

Kingston Area Loyalist-Related Events

Spring-Summer 2019

Saturday, April 13, 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. Genealogy Workshop at County of Lennox and Addington Museum and Archives, 97 Thomas St East Napanee ON K7R 4B9, sponsored by Bay of Quinte Branch UELAC. $5.00 registration plus bring brown-bag lunch. Only 60 spots available, so register by April 1st: contact johnsonue@bell.net if interested.

Friday, May 10, 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. Heritage Fair at McArthur Hall, Queen's West Campus: Volunteers are needed, when possible please wear Loyalist clothing items. Contact below if you would like to attend. Parking is not free. ar11@queensu.ca; cutwaynancy@gmail.com

Friday, May 17, 2019: UEL Heritage Centre and Park at Adolphustown opens for the season. Send any email inquiries to 1784@uel.ca or read more at their site: <http://uel.ca/>

Thursday, May 30 – Sunday, June 2: UEL Conference hosted by the Sir Guy Carleton Branch, “The Capital Calls”. Details at <http://www.uelac.org/SirGuyCarleton/conference19.php>. There may be opportunities for car-pooling from Kingston to Ottawa. Held in Gatineau/Aylmer.

Hay Bay Church Fundraiser: Happy Harmony Women's Choir: Sunday, June 9, 2019 at 2 PM – 4 PM, $10, South Fredericksburgh Community Centre, 2456 County Rd 8, Napanee, Ontario K7R 3K7 johnsonue@bell.net for more info.

Wednesday, June 12 - Loyalist Day in Kingston (Flag Day): Watch for the Proclamation in the Whig-Standard, and meet just before noon at City Hall. We're led across the street by Fort Henry Fife and Drums, the Loyalist Flag is raised for the day, and usually the Mayor says a few words. Please wear Loyalist Attire if possible, or other Loyalist items, pins, or crest-items.

Canada Day BATH PARADE (Monday, July 1), featuring members of our Kingston and District Branch, and Bay of Quinte Branch members in Loyalist Garments. Sign up to participate, decorate, loan items or other support! Contact Anne Redish for info. ar11@queensu.ca This is a KINGSTON BRANCH event with Bay of Quinte Branch! Please plan to participate if you possibly can!

Fairfield House, built in 1793, preserves the building skills of the Loyalist settlers who had arrived in 1784. Visit for a guided tour, July 1 through August 31, Wednesday to Sunday each week, 11:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The park on the lakeshore is a pleasant picnic area. At 4574 Bath Road in Amherstview.

Hay Bay Church Annual Pilgrimage Service August 25 and Opening Saturday May 18, Closing Sept 22 (open weekends until Oct 13) Hours of operation 9-5:00, 7 days a week, August 25 - Annual Pilgrimage Service with guest preacher The Rev. Mike Putnam. 200th Anniversary of the 1819 Hay Bay Drowning. The Restoration Project is accepting donations to raise $300,000 – $20 gets you a tax receipt. <http://www.oldhaybaychurch.ca/> . A potential 2019 Sunset service is also in the works. Look for details soon.

Re Loyalist Attire: With a bit of lead time, Anne can dress many of you in something Loyalist-esque. See the 2 page info sheet that is available. Perhaps you have items to use! I have some outfits ready to go for some sizes. To 'book' an outfit, or to get something prepared, get in touch ASAP. ar11@queensu.ca / 613-483-3245 and perhaps just leave a message if I am busy.