

GREGOR McKINNON

Thomas A. Murray
5MAR2010

In attempting to compose a work on the family of Gregor McKinnon, some reliance is given to prior work. However, in considering the 1851 census of Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., New Brunswick, in which Gregor's son, Hugh, and Hugh's family appear; it is clear that daughters, Sarah and Bona McKinnon have been left out of some previous compilations. In addition, in the same census, Jane McKinnon b. ca. 1833 appears with her McDonald cousins. The nature of her relationship, probably through her mother, is not clear. (I have managed to clarify it below.) It is reasonable to believe that, until 1851, the only McKinnon family in Glenelg Parish was that of Gregor; and since, in 1851, only his son, Hugh, is noticeably there, Jane appears to be another d/o Hugh missed by previous searchers.

The conclusion, then, is that works on this McKinnon family so far are based on limited material. The 1851, 1861, 1871, 1881, 1890, 1901 and 1911 census returns are usually available, certainly on microfilm if not on-line, and have been for decades.

It is not my purpose to fill in missing information by poring over microfilms of marriage records, probate records, etc. This may seem hypocritical, but the McKinnon's, while my ancestors, are not my major field of genealogical study. I can offer my assurance that, where my main areas of interest lie, I have spent considerable time and effort; and continue to do so. The objective here is simply to build a genealogical structure based on what is readily available.

It is necessary, then, to point out that in following the research and conclusions of others, I am necessarily replicating unreliable and unsubstantiated work. To the extent that material (such as the 1851 census) is available on-line, I do try to verify what is given. On the other hand, as this is essentially a work for my own information, I do not meticulously note sources. The style I use is indicative of where the information comes from; at least to me. Consider person [226A], Margaret Fraser Leggat.

MARGARET ('MAGGIE') FRASER LEGGATT (b. 15APR1874, d. 1955, bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem, Richibucto, Kent Co., NB), d/o C. Alexander and Catherine (Gaffney) Leggat (Legatt/Leggett.)

Since I know where she is buried, I have seen a transcription of her headstone inscription; thus I know the year, but not the date, of her death. Since I have the date of her (post 1900) marriage, I have seen the relevant marriage register on microfilm. The 1901 census gives her birth-date (which may or may not be accurate) and the forename of her mother. Other cemetery inscriptions give her father. The 1871 and 1881 census returns put her parents together. A death notice of a sister gives her father's first initial; and a notice of a visit of her unmarried sister from Calais, ME gives the mother's maiden name. Also, Mary Gaffney, Catherine's sister, is with them in 1901. It is the spelling of the surnames that creates the greatest problem. That C. Alexander Leggat was the s/o James and Ellen Leggat, originally from Scotland by way of the Miramichi, is extraneous. That Alexander and Catherine Leggett live 'next door' (i.e., in the next, listed household) to Thomas and 'Margueret' [31] Curren in the 1871 census may be relevant. In short, the information, although in fragments, is more often available than not.

Of the Black River area, Donald J. Edge (31MAR2003) wrote a study on the place and the origin of its name. In part, he wrote:

There are four rivers named Black River in New Brunswick, and only one is in Glenelg and Hardwicke Parishes. This Black River empties into the Bay du Vin, an extension of the Miramichi Bay. Bay du Vin means bay of wine, but there are no wine grapes in that region, and it is more likely that the name was originally Baie des Ventes, bay of the winds.

The river originates in a few small streams in a peat bed approximately ten miles south of Miramichi, and flows about twelve miles northeast to its mouth in Bay du Vin; the river is tidal from a bit west of where it crosses Highway 117, where when I was young there was a covered bridge where the youngsters would gather and I had to walk three miles to get there. A hundred yards or so west of the bridge was my grandfather's abandoned boathouse where my sister and I would go swimming with my cousins, Francis and Margaret MacNaughton, Sidney MacNaughton, and the MacKay girls. Lucky Francie and Margie lived only a few hundred yards from that bridge.

The name Black River also refers to the rural neighborhood that borders the river from west of Highway 11 on into Hardwicke Parish. This is the neighborhood MacNaughton descendants refer to as down home.

New Brunswick is part of the Appalachian Chain extending from Newfoundland to Alabama. Our Black River (the bridge) is located at N47°00'30"--W65°14'00"; head of the river is approximately N46°55'00", W65°21'00", and mouth of the river is at N47°02'00", W65°13'00". If you have access to Canadian Government Topographic maps, you'll find Black River on maps 21P/O3 Chatham and 21I/14 Kouchibouguac, and in the, "New Brunswick Atlas", pages 36 and 43.

GREGOR McKINNON

Sergeant GREGOR McKINNON b. Isle of Skye 1745-9, d. Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB DEC1837, m. 1st _____; m. 2nd Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 1799 JANE/JEAN? (PEARSON?) SHARP (b. ca. 1770-1, d. Bay du Vin, Hardwicke Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 18APR1856, aet. 85 years), widow of William Sharp of the Queen's Rangers.

A strange death notice extracted from the Chatham, "The Gleaner and Northumberland Schediasma", 5DEC1837 is given as:

d. Napan (Northumberland Co.), 1st December, Robert DICK, age 44. 689 d. At his residence, Glenelg (Northumberland Co.), Gregory MCKINNON, native of Isle of Skye.

Since the reference given is to entry 681, of Vol. 7., of Daniel F. Johnson's original series of vital statistics extracted from New Brunswick newspaper; I assume that '689' refers to item 689 in the same volume, and that the entry for Robert Dick has no application. Thus, the best that can be inferred is that 'Gregory' McKinnon d. in Glenelg, Parish in DEC1837.

Jane was granted a pension after her second husband's death as a widow of a soldier who fought in the Revolution, ("Copy of the Affidavit of Jane McKinnon Widow of Soldier After Revolutionary War, 16 July 1840".) In 1843 she is given as age 73 years.

The IGI gives Gregor's wife as Jane Martin; m. 1st William Sharp (d. 1796.)

Some notes, from posting at genealogical boards, are:

"He is listed on a "Muster Roll of a Detachment of the North Carolina Volunteers, doing duty with the New York Volunteers, under the Command of Lieut. Indicating that Gregor did not have a wife or children with him, and that he, Angus and Daniel McLeod, Daniel McGraw and Donald Ross likely knew each other well, and likely went to the Miramichi together. In the New York Volunteers, and included in this grant, was Corporal Joseph Haines who, in later years, moved to Richibucto, Kent Co., NB. At least two of Joseph's descendants married into Gregor's family there; one of these marriages making both Gregor and Joseph my ancestors.

The force was crushed as history records at Moore's Creek Bridge in February of 1776, and McDONALD and scores of officers were captured. This put an end to the North Carolina Provincials, except for a number of officers who remained as prisoners of war until as late as January of 1781.

More North Carolina refugees had joined the army in Georgia. On 22 February 1779 Lt.

Col. CAMPBELL organized these people into a corps of two companies, one of foot, and one of horse, by the name of "Royal Volunteers of North Carolina," commanded by Lt. Col. John MOORE. At some point between February and October of 1779 the corps, by now known as the Royal North Carolina Regiment, consisted of two battalions. John HAMILTON was lieutenant colonel of one or both of them, but it's unknown what John MOORE was doing.

In any case, the corps was consolidated into one battalion between the time of the Siege of Savannah and the Siege of Charlestown. In a bit of bad timing, HAMILTON and his servant were taken prisoner by the Rebels scouting Charlestown during the siege. The Royal North Carolina Regiment was a part of the army that advanced to the siege from Georgia under the command of General PATERSON.

The Royal North Carolina Regiment served in several bloody encounters, most notably Hanging Rock and the Battle of Camden. In 1781 they were a part of CORNWALLIS' army that entered North Carolina, attracting more recruits to the unit. By this time the corps consisted of seven companies (including a light infantry company), with an eighth being raised later on the march to Virginia.

In 1780 another body of North Carolina Loyalists made their way to the British, who were by this time in neighboring South Carolina. Over 300 of them were formed into a body and commanded by Colonel Samuel BRYAN. BRYAN had formerly been an officer in the North Carolina Provincials. This corps would be known by the name of North Carolina Volunteers.

This corps however was not a Provincial regiment, as was the Royal North Carolina Regiment. This unit can best be described as an embodied militia regiment. They mostly served in South Carolina, fighting alongside the RNCR at Hanging Rock and Camden. One or two companies of them under Captain HUNTER likewise accompanied CORNWALLIS to Virginia and surrendered at Yorktown. This unit was not uniformed or provided for as Provincials were. They seem to have been disbanded in 1782 at or near Charlestown.

The above notes are from John Garner and Linda McKinnon. (John Garner, Ancestry.com, Northumberland Co. board, 16FEB2002; Linda, e-mail 1FEB2003.) In spite of my prefacing condemnation of early researchers, John Garner is a thorough and knowledgeable genealogist who has demonstrated his skill and knowledge in several instances. Linda McKinnon has shown a remarkable tenacity. The web site noted is, "An Introduction to North Carolina Loyalist Units", Nan Cole and Todd Braisted, 12JAN2000, part of, "The On-line Institute For Advanced Loyalist Studies." I have quoted it at length as the events appear to have influenced not only the McKinnon's, but many of their later neighbours and kindred.

Gregor McKinnon's movements amongst various Loyalist units may appear puzzling; but John Garner and I have noticed several instances; particularly dealing with Scots; both pre-Revolutionary settlers and Scottish Regiments brought into the American Revolution. Essentially, there were three types of Scottish settlers before the Revolution: soldiers disbanded after the Seven Years War, transportees after the Risings of 1715 and 1745 and those seeking religious (Roman Catholics) freedom or land of their own. Thus, when the Scottish Regiments arrived in the Revolution, they found not only countrymen but kinsmen. It seems clear that they conversed; whether through gossip, letters or some other medium is not clear. It is clear that they discussed their futures, organized in small groups and, having settled, probably had much to do with the influx of Scottish Settlers in the early 1800's. Regular Scottish units very likely reinforced themselves with the impromptu Scottish irregulars; which the North Carolina Volunteers seem to have been. The Black Watch, McDonnell's seem to have recruited from these; and, as it appears, so did other Loyalist forces such as the New York Volunteers. There were a number of Scottish settlers in upstate New York, and the Queen's Rangers had a kilted, Highland company.

An example of the connections between the Queens Rangers and North Carolina Loyalists is evidenced by the career of Capt. Donald McAlpine. McAlpine was in the 78th Highlanders in the Seven Year's War, raised 85 volunteers for the New Hampshire Volunteers (disbanded MAY1777) which was absorbed into the Queen's Rangers, replaced John Eagles as a captain, resigned 19SEP1777 and became a captain in the South Carolina Rangers later absorbed into the North Carolina Regiment, where he was a lieutenant.

That the Queens Rangers and the Maryland Loyalists knew of each other is indicated in the report of the commanding officer of the Rangers, Lt. Col. J. Graves Simcoe, to Evan Nepean, Undersecretary of State, MAR1783. Simcoe describes the Maryland Loyalists as looking to him for assistance, and of expressing their high regard of the Queen's Rangers and their commander.

This premise is difficult to demonstrate, let alone explain, but it seems that Gregor McKinnon, in spite of early indications (i.e., he may have been granted land in the Keswick area, possibly with members of the NYV, but it is questionable as to whether he ever settled there); it seems that he joined with other Scots, both Loyalists and regular army, in settling on the Miramichi River. Since some of these Scots were connected with the Queen's Rangers; it is not that surprising that he would marry a widow from that unit.

"The following is an e-mail message from Todd W. Braisted:

Hello Bill

I'm afraid there is very little to be found on your ancestor. He is listed on a "Muster Roll of a Detachment of the North Carolina Volunteers, doing duty with the New York Volunteers, under the Command of Lieut. Colonel George Turnbull, from 25th April to 24th June 1783" and a similar roll for 25th June to 24th August 1783. Source: National Archives of Canada, Chipman Papers, MG 23, D 1, Series I, Volume 26, Pages 272 & 273.

He is also listed in a "Muster Roll of a Detached Corps under the Charge of Lieut. DeBeck New York Volunteers Lancaster [Prison] 24 April 1782." This lists him as being taken prisoner at Yorktown, 19 October 1781. Source: Ibid, Volume 27, Page 333.

These lists are somewhat misleading though by their names. The men listed on the above (as far as I have checked) are a mixture of men from the Royal North Carolina Regiment and others who do not appear on their rolls. I can only assume that these men are from Bryan's North Carolina Volunteers of some other Independent Company. The problem with the name "North Carolina Volunteers" is that it was used loosely to describe the Royal North Carolina Regiment and God knows who else. That's why I always look at who they are talking about to figure out which corps they actually mean. It gets very confusing, but they didn't have us in mind I'm afraid when they wrote these things down! It would look though as if your man was one of Bryan's. At least we know he was indeed taken prisoner at Yorktown with Cornwallis and apparently exchanged in early 1783, along with the rest of the POW's.

"I'm afraid I have no further on him.

Regards,

Todd W. Braisted"

Lt. Col. Turnbull's company is also listed at:

<http://www.royalprovincial.com/military/musters/nyv/nyvtbull1.htm>

as, "New York Volunteers Turnbull's Coy.: Muster Roll of Lieut. Colonel George Turnbull's Company of New York Volunteers, Savannah in Georgia 29th November 1779"; with reference to, "National Archives of Canada, RG 8, "C" Series, Volume 1874, page 49". First of all, this partially explains why North Carolina Loyalists would be attached to the New York Volunteers. Being in Savannah, Georgia, having persons generally acquainted with the region would be useful, and attaching elements of the NC Loyalists to a larger unit would mean the NYV as one of the more available regiments. A second element of interest is that, amongst several persons identifiable as being from Westchester Co., NY, there is Joseph 'Hains', the Corporal Joseph Haines who with Gregor is granted land in York Co, NB and whose descendants intermarry with Gregor's in Richibucto, Kent Co., NB eventually resulting in my existence. I find it peculiar that two of my ancestors, from fairly diverse geographical and cultural backgrounds should be obviously acquainted, separate only to have later generations meet without knowing on the previous connection.

Gregor McKinnon appears to have petitioned for land in Saint John Co., NB in 1785. This was with many others, and, while many were Scottish, many were also Loyalist names from New York. However, Daniel Micheaus' plan of lots on the Miramichi River (with the south side likely being around Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB) made 1785 had Gregor on the south side in Lot 26. If Gregor ever went to York Co., NB, especially the Keswick area, he was not long there. Gregor may have chosen Lot 26 as Middle Island fronted it and was included in the lot. Such islands were often useful as pasturage for cattle, not needing fencing. This also appears to be somewhat below Beaubair's Island and the extent of Davidson's grant. Further downstream, on the same side, is Charlotte Taylor's (the Widow Blake) grants of Lots 89 and 9, with Black Brook in Lots 6 and 7; and just across the Miramichi from Black Brook is the mouth of Bartibog River. As near as I can figure, Charlotte lived about where Loggieville is; and Middle Island has a bridge to it off of Water St. in what is now the City of Miramichi, and about where Chatham was.

By 1787, Gregor was petitioning in Northumberland Co., NB with John Noble. In 1803, he is included amongst several Bay du Vin inhabitants. One of these was Angus McDonald, presumably the forebear of some of the McDonald's in the area. Another petition was in 1814, with a large number of others identifiable as residents of Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB. These included Thomas Sharp; possibly a stepson?

JOHN NOBLE b. ca. 1757, d. 1846
Maryland Loyalists

John Noble also petitioned in Northumberland Co., in 1785. This appears to be one of William Davidson's attempts to keep portions of the large grants that were gradually being escheated from him, and included many names on the Miramichi. In 1787 he petitioned alone. In 1798, a petitioned with some of the Horton's, and others, suggests he was still in Glenelg Parish. Petitions in later years, by such as Jonathan and Robert Noble, suggests he left family. In 1784, John Noble had a 200 acre grant in Maugerville, Sunbury Co., NB; which he may not have taken up.

Also, in 1784, a town lot in Parr Town, Saint John Co.; 150 acres on the Passamaquoddy River, a three-quarter acre garden lot on the St. Croix River (both in Charlotte Co., NB.) This appears to be another Loyalist, also John Noble, who m. Jemima Purdy.

John Noble was granted 316 acres in Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1805. This latter may be a son, as a John Noble, Jr. was granted 170 acres in Newcastle Parish in 1810. Thus, John Noble seems much engaged in trying to get as much free land of agricultural use (with such timber as might make a quick profit); but was reluctant to settle permanently too quickly. His petitioned with Gregor McKinnon may have been speculative in nature; but suggests Gregor's introduction to the Miramichi. John Noble b. ca. 1757, d. 1846 age 89 years. He had been born in Virginia, and came to the Miramichi after the American Revolution. While he may have been from Virginia, he served in the Maryland Loyalists from 1778, under Col. James Chambers (Chalmers), in Capt. Caleb Jones' company. He, together with Jane McKinnon, Angus McDonald Elizabeth Robertson received a pension for his military services; showing he was likely a neighbour of Jane and Angus; and probably acquainted with Elizabeth's husband, Duncan Robertson. He was, however, by the time he was receiving this pension in Chatham Parish, Northumberland Co., NB; age 82 years in 1839 when he first petitioned for it; and age 85 in 1843. He declared himself indigent, and had probably moved to be with his son, also John, who appears to have predeceased him by some time (before 1832.)

One can see how John Noble and Gregor McKinnon might have had much in common; both Loyalists in irregular units from the South with somewhat less than prestigious histories (smallpox and defeat by the Spanish in Florida for John) early on. Both captured, both in units sent to New York presumably attached to or reinforcing larger units. Even going to NB in 1783, John's luck was bad, and he seems to be one of those who escaped when the ship, 'Martha', transporting the Maryland Loyalists to NB was wrecked between the Seal Islands and Cape Sable off Nova Scotia in late SEP1783. 75 of 174 persons were rescued and taken to Saint John. In the same fleet were elements of the Queen's Rangers, apparently landing at Saint John 27SEP1783. A little younger than Gregor, John and Gregor may have been part of what appears to be a larger group, largely Scottish, many members of the Queen's Rangers, who sought new homes.

ANGUS McDONALD b. ca. 1747 d. 1842 age 95 years
(or b. ca. 1740?, d. 1846? age 106 years)
Queen's Ranger's
42nd Royal Highland (Black Watch) Regiment?

The next name associated with Gregor McKinnon is Angus McDonald. I note this as, in the 1851 census of Glenelg Parish, Jane McKinnon b. ca. 1833 is described as a cousin of John (b. ca. 1814) and Margaret (b. ca. 1823) McDonald. Assuming Jane was a granddaughter of Gregor McKinnon, the suggestion that first leaps to mind is that a daughter of Gregor McKinnon married a McDonald. According to present-day compilations, this does not appear to be probable. Assuming Jane McKinnon to be a d/o Hugh and Jane (Forsyth) McKinnon, perhaps the connection is with Jane's assumed mother. Not only is the latter conclusion accurate, but it establishes Jane McKinnon as almost certainly the d/o Hugh and Jane (Forsyth) McKinnon; but also substantiates Jane Forsyth as a d/o Robert and Jane (Martin) McKinnon.

To reach this conclusion, I attempted the theory of a McDonald kinship at first. Anyone familiar with McDonald Genealogy in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., or anywhere, will realize the perils. Since these difficulties are of little moment here, I will condense my findings to say something of Angus McDonald, obviously well-acquainted with Gregor McKinnon, sharing a very similar history beyond that of being neighbours, and both examples of a larger, Scottish system of communications.

Angus McDonald was granted 213 acres in Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 7MAR1798. Gregor McKinnon was also a grantee of 204 acres. The other grantors suggest this was actually Glenelg Parish, but it is difficult to be certain. A grant in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB dated 28OCT1816 includes:

CAMPBELL, Dungald 380 acres
MCDONALD, Angus 170 acres
MCDONALD, Ronald 230 acres
MCGRAW, Neil 500 acres
MCKINNON, Gregor 2095 acres
MCRAE, Farquhar 175 acres
MORRISON, Findley 185 acres
ROSS, Donald 215 acres

It is unlikely that Gregor McKinnon was granted 2,095 acres, but had the remainder after the others had their share; about 240 acres. It is probable that the large number was assigned to Gregor as he had taken a leading role in petitioning for the land. Possibly the 1814 petition noted above. At least it is clear that Angus McDonald and Alexander McDonald were neighbours with whom Gregor McKinnon was associated.

Angus is also given as having been in the Queen's Ranger's (as was Jane's first husband.) Alexander McDonald is also said to have been in the Queen's Rangers, and may have had a wife, Mary _____ (b. ca. b. ca. 1768, age 75 in 1843.) There was an Alexander McDonald in the Highland Company, John MacKay, captain, of the Queen's American Rangers, 25DEC1779-23FEB1780. As near as I can tell, MacKay's company of a few more than a score enlisted men, was an elite company of an elite corps, preceding the light and grenadier companies; attached to the headquarters and commanding officers of the Queen's Rangers. Included amongst them were: Angus MacDonald, Lauchlan MacKinnon, Alex. MacDonald, Murdock MacLeod, Angus MacDonald, Alex. Mackinnon.

There was also an Alexander McDonald in the North Carolina Highlanders in 1776. Definitely not the same Alexander, but one begins, at this point, to suspect more than coincidence. The Major Alexander McDonald of the North Carolina Highlanders may well be the Major Alexander Macdonald, of Cuidrach, later of the 84th Royal Highland Emigrant Regiment whose raising Flora Macdonald and her husband had much to do with; and which was raised from Highlanders in North Carolina. Flora's son, Charles Macdonald, was also a captain in the Queen's Ranger's. Charles appears to have died as a young man, and was mourned by all his kin including Lord Macdonald who regarded him as the most finished gentleman of his family and name. A connection to the Macdonald's-McDonald's was a connection to all Scotsmen active in the American Revolution.

In 1839, when Angus first petitioned for the pension for soldiers of the American Revolution, he was a resident of Bay du Vin, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB, and was age 95 years (b. ca. 1744.) He was the same in Capt. McKay's company, and was discharged in Saint John in 1783. He made his mark, unusual for a Scot. The Justice-of-the-Peace taking the deposition was John MacDonald. Another deponent who appeared before John MacDonald in 1839 was Isabella McInnis, widow of Angus McInnis, late of the 76th (MacDonald's) Regiment. The 76th was likely raised by the same Lord Macdonald who mourned the death of Capt. Charles Macdonald, and also included: Corporal Donald McInnis, Private Angus McDonald, Private James Ross and Private Murdock McLeod.

Angus' wife, Mary, also received a military pension, as was age 75 years in 1843 (b. ca. 1768.) Her husband is given in one disbursement as having served in the Queen's Rangers. Angus, himself, received the 1841 disbursement, so appears to have d. ca. 1841-3. Mary seems to have received disbursements as late as 1862.

Mary's affidavit, in 1843, states she was age 75 years, and married Angus in Saint John in 1787. She also states that Angus was 'attached' to the Queen's Rangers; suggesting a prior unit. Angus died in Glenelg Parish in 1842.

Mary d. Glenelg Parish 28MAY1862, and 3JAN1863, Donald McDonald petitioned for the balance of her pension. This petition claims that Angus McDonald had served in the 42 Regiment, the Black Watch. It appears that he was attached from the 42nd to the Queen's Rangers; which seems most unusual. The petition states that Angus died 15 years ago (ca. 1847) at the age of 106 years (b. ca. 1741.) It is almost as if Donald speaks of another Angus, but may be simply stretching to make his sums come out right. He states that he was the eldest son of Angus and Mary, and that she had lived with him after his father died. Also intriguing is that Donald signed his name. It seems as if neither of his parents could do so, although infirmity may have prevented them.

An attempt to discover an early connection between the families of Angus McDonald and Gregor McKinnon found nothing direct. More on this is mentioned at Jane McKinnon b. ca. 1833.

THOMAS SHARP

Since Gregor McKinnon is sad to have married as his 2nd wife, Jane (Pearson) Sharp, it may be worthwhile examining Thomas Sharp who appears in a land petition with Gregor in 1814.

William Sharp is listed as a private in Capt. Thomas Ivy Cook's company of the Queen's Rangers; and was likely one of those who arrived at Saint John 27SEP1783. I believe Capt. Cook was detached from the 17th Light Dragoons; therefore William Sharp was likely a member of the cavalry units of the Rangers. Simcoe once noted that he had about 70 mounted troopers who could move quickly. It may be that William Sharp was also originally of the 17th. For example, a victualling lists of detachments in New York 29APR1781 lists 47 men and 82 women, but no children. It is doubtful if the whole regiment consisted of only 47 men; so this must be a detachment with which the women stayed. The Black Watch, at the same time, had 451 men, 78 women and 68 children. The 76th had 384 men, 53 women and 34 children. The "Death or Glory Boys" became, in 1822, the 17th Light Lancers; part of the infamous Light Brigade in the poem.

That William Sharp did, as did so many others, settle in Queensbury Parish (named after the Rangers) in York Co. suggests he 'took up' with others attracted by word-of-mouth to the Miramichi. Some of these may have been Scots in the Queen's Rangers (Angus McDonald, Murdock McLeod), probably in touch with Scots (Duncan Robertson) of the Black Watch first settled on the Nashwaak River, also in York Co., NB. Certainly, the route from Queensbury Parish to the Miramichi was up the Nashwaak.

As early as 1785 a William Sharp petitioned for land in Northumberland Co., NB with others, including Murdock McLeod and Alexander McDonald; all as members of the Queens Rangers. One motive would be dissatisfaction with land allotted in York Co., NB; but another may have been active recruitment by or on behalf of William Davidson. Davidson had been granted large tracts of land on the Miramichi prior to 1783 on the understanding that he would settle a certain number of persons. In particular, he approached fellow Scots, and the Wishart's noted that they had written to the folks at home many times in this endeavour. Thus, he not only approached people personally, but encouraged others to 'pass on the word'. After 1783, not having met his commitments regarding settlers, much of his land was escheated, and much of the rest in danger of being escheated. It can be shown, for example, that he managed to recruit pre-Loyalists from Maugerville unhappy with the Loyalist influx. It would be absurd for him not to approach Scots. Scots in the Scottish regiments, Scots from settlements in New York and North Carolina and Scots from the wave of immigration just beginning due to the Clearances. They did not even have to be Scots. It is possible that William Sharp and Gregor McKinnon were amongst those invited, even begged, to petition for grants on the Miramichi so that Davidson could attract others and fill his quotas.

Another petition William Sharp made was in Northumberland Co., NB with Alexander 'McMillen'. From 1785 to 1820, the name, William Sharp, appears on other petitions, but these, especially in Kings Co., NB, are apparently another of that name. In 1790, William Sharpe, again with member of the Queens Rangers, petitions in Northumberland Co.

Thomas Sharp first appears as a petitioner in Northumberland Co., NB in 1809 with John Sharp. The time is William and Jane Sharp had children, one might suppose that, 16 years after their arrival in NB, they would be coming of age. As mentioned above, Thomas Sharp was also a petitioner in 1814, with many others, including Gregor McKinnon, Alexander McDonald, Taylor's, Williston, Angus McInnis, etc.; which places him in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB.

William Sharp received a grant on the Miramichi River 13DEC1793 of 210 acres. Amongst other grantees were James and William Gordon. In later years. the Gordon's appear to be in Newcastle Parish.

Thomas Sharp received 300 acres (apparently in Glenelg Parish) 17DEC1814. The size of the grant suggests he was at least married at the time.

As there were no Sharp's/Sharpe's in Glenelg Parish in the 1851 census, it seems that Thomas and John Sharp lived elsewhere or moved. The only persons indicated by the directories of 1865, 1867 and 1871 in Northumberland Co. is Mrs. Annie Sharp, a grocer, widow of William Sharp, in Chatham.

Thomas Sharp is generally assumed to be William's son; a not unreasonable theory. If his mother was b. ca. 1771, then he was likely b. ca. 1789-1791. In 1809, he would have been about 18-19 years of age. If John was a brother; probably younger, he would have been about 16 years of age. 16 would seem the minimal age before one might petition for land. William Sharp appears to have been living at least until about 1793. When Thomas received 300 acres in 1814, he would likely have been about 24 years of age, and seems to have married. After that, he seems to have left Northumberland Co., if not New Brunswick.

OTHER MCKINNON'S

Another difficulty in the genealogy of the family of Gregor McKinnon is that, while a viable assumption can be made that early McKinnon's in Glenelg Parish were Gregor's family, there is the question of Samuel McKinnon of Glenelg Parish, administration of whose estate was granted 29MAY1826 to James Murchy and John Cameron. While one might suspect that Samuel was a s/o Gregor, then one might also expect administration of his estate to have been assigned to a relative. Also, if a s/o Gregor, then Samuel appears to have been old enough to have acquired an estate; presumably including land. Therefore he was b. before 1806; possibly well before as he petitions for land as early as 1821. Possibly he was even married. There is no sign of a family in the 1851 census.

In Northumberland Co., NB in 1801, Alexander McKinnon and Donald Ross petitioned for land. An Alexander McKinnon also petitions alone in 1852. As far as I can see, Donald Ross is likely associated with the Donald Ross of the 42nd Regiment. He was involved in several petitions in Northumberland Co.; often with names of persons with whom Gregor might be associated with. In 1816, Donald Ross was a grantee along with Gregor McKinnon. Donald Ross would seem to be one of the Black Watch granted small lots at Taymouth in York Co., NB in 1787, and one of those on the Miramichi by 1791; in other words, one of the larger group of Scots who seemed to work together in smaller or larger groups to find suitable land. If, as it appears, Donald Ross knew Gregor McKinnon, cannot the same be said of Alexander McKinnon? Donald Ross is granted land in Newcastle Parish by 1810 and 1812, but by 1816 he is given 215 acres in Glenelg Parish. At about the same time Gregor McKinnon was granted land (204 acres 7MAR1798) in Newcastle Parish, Alexander was granted 4 acres 14MAY1798 in the same parish. The impression given is that Alexander, while an adult, was not married and that he knew Gregor McKinnon. The suspicion that Alexander was Gregor's son seems worth considering.

In the 1865 directory, an Alexander McKinnon is a farmer at Oak Point, Northumberland Co., NB. For some reason, he does not seem to be listed in the 1851 census of Alnwick Parish,

In the 1851 census of Alnwick Parish, there is a lady, apparently entered twice, Ann McKinnon b. NB ca. 1831, servant to Peter and Mary Morrison. Peter Morrison lives at Oak Point. A servant to a widower, John Morrison, is Margaret McKinnon b. ca. 1826. Maria Stronach (b. ca. 1819), wife of John Stronach (b.

ca. 1821) seems to have m. 1st a McKinnon as their stepson is Hector McKinnon b. ca. 1839. John and Maria seem to have m. ca. 1845. Here, the assumption that these are descendants of Gregor McKinnon is not valid, as in the 1851 census there is also:

McKinnon Hector M Head 68 Scotch 1807
McKinnon Mary F Wife 62 Scotch 1803
McKinnon Ann F Daughter 43 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Alexander M Son 38 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Sarah F Daughter 25 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Hector M Son 17 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Nick M Grandson 8 Scotch Birth
Davidson Jas M Grandson 16 Scotch Birth

also at Oak Point in 1865, and:

McKinnon John M Head 50 Scotch Farmer June 1810
McKinnon Catherine F Wife 45 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Ann F Daughter 20 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Elizabeth F Daughter 17 Scotch Birth
McKinnon William M Son 15 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Donald M Son 13 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Phillip M Son 10 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Duncan M Son 7 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Hannah F Daughter 6 Scotch Birth
McKinnon John M Son 3 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Angus M Son 9 m Scotch Birth

Thus, there is evidence of the existence of a nearby family also named McKinnon; but Alexander was in the area before this family arrived. Thus there are also hints that not all of Gregor McKinnon's family are known.

Sarah McKinnon, widow of Alexander McKinnon, was b. Argyleshire, Scotland ca. 1767, d. Oak Point Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 21FEB1851 age 84 years. She had lived there since 1803. One assumes she was married before she arrived.

An Alexander McKinnon of Chatham had a wife, Mary, and a son, Archibald who d. 22MAY1894 age 10 years.

Gregor McKinnon's children were:

1st

1. WILLIAM McKINNON b. 1792, d. 1836, may have gone to Kent Co.

"Review", Richibucto, Kent Co., NB, issue of 12JAN1893:

m. 28th Dec., at residence of bride's father, 'The Glen', Aboyne, by Rev. W. J. Fowler, B.D., James O'CONNOR of Pointe a la Garde / Marion Isabella McKINNON second d/o William McKINNON.

Pointe a la Garde was near Metapedia on the border between Quebec and New Brunswick. There was a large McKinnon family in that area, apparently from Scotland. Why this wedding should be reported in a Richibucto newspaper is unclear.

A more likely s/o William McKinnon is the namesake mentioned in the following.

Pierre Amiraux was the s/o Pierre and Jeanne (Canivet) Amiraux at one time of Jersey Island, in the English Channel. Pierre was baptized 1772, and d. Kouchibouguac, NB where he d. 1856 age 84 years. Pierre's 2nd wife was Patience 'Hains' whom he m. Keswick, York Co., NB 1815. Patience is given as b. 1815 and as the d/o Joseph H. 'Hains'. After Pierre died, she m. 2nd Richibucto, NB 1862 William McKinnon. (Probably his 2nd marriage as well.)

Patience's children by her 1st marriage were:

Lemuel Canivet Amiraux b. Eel Brook, Argyle, NB? 1837, bpt. 1837 by the Rev. Snyder of Weymouth, NS while on his way to Shelburne. His birth was registered at Yarmouth, NS. He m. Richibucto, NB 1860 Elizabeth Handey or Handley, d/o Wm.

Elias Du Sordier Amiraux b. Roberts Island, Argyle Co., NS 1838, d. Richibucto, NB 1924, m. Richibucto, NB 1860 Abigail Shaddick. He was a tanner.

This from a typescript published as a book, "The Quiet Adventurers", by Marion G. Turk. In a separate file, my notes on Patience, d/o Joseph and Nancy Ann (Boone) Haines are:

PATIENCE HAINES b. 1816, m. York Co., NB 12JUN1834 PETER AMERAUX (b. ca. 1812.)
Peter may have been a s/o Peter Amereaux b. 1757, d. 1856, bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem., Richibucto, Kent Co., NB.

which is somewhat at odds with the preceding. Turk does give Pierre Amiraux three sons by his first marriage to Magdelan Prevost; including a son, Peter Canivet Amiraux b. Cornwallis Co., NB? ca. 1808. The question arises, did Patience marry the father or the son? In spite of the disparity in ages, it is possible that she married the father. Since William McKinnon, s/o Gregor McKinnon, is given as d. 1836; she would most likely have married a younger William.

In St. Basile Parish, Victoria Co., NB in the 1851 census (probably in Madawaska Co. now), was a family:

Amireaux Peter C M Head 51 English farmer (prop) May 1827
Amireaux Mary A F Wife 39 birth
Amireaux John M M Son 21 birth
Amireaux Henry A M Son 19 birth
Amireaux Susan R A F Daughter 17 birth
Amireaux Delia J F Daughter 13 birth
Amireaux Clement H M Son 13 birth

Patience was the aunt of Benedict Haines [22A] below.

William, Patience's 2nd husband, is likely the William McKinnon b. ca. 1805, d. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 3MAR1866 age 61 years (Saint John, "Morning News", 12MAR1866), leaving a wife. This would seem to make him born too early to be William's son.

William is said to have had a son:

11. WILLIAM McKINNON went to Michigan.
2. HUGH McKINNON b. 1793-1801, m. 15OCT1829 JANE FORSYTH (b. NB ca. 1808), d/o Robert and Jane (or Jean) (Martin) Forsyth.

Jane is most likely a d/o Robert and Jane (or Jean) (Martin) Forsyth; where Jane Martin was a d/o William and Mary Ann Martin.

Making some assumptions, it seems likely that Hugh McKinnon and Jane Forsyth were married in Northumberland Co., NB before moving to Richibucto. (Of course, Kent Co. was part of Northumberland Co. at the time, so that may not be such a huge assumption.) Also, it seems probable that Jane Forsyth was b. before 1810, perhaps earlier; and her father before 1780. Amongst early petitions for land in Northumberland Co., NB were those of Robert Forsyth (1785-1811.) Some of these petitions contain surnames suggesting the lower Miramichi River, and the 82nd Regiment. In 1811, a John Forsyth, probably a son, petitioned with him. Another early petitioner in Northumberland Co., NB (1789-1810) was William Forsyth. Again the lower Miramichi River is suggested, and the 84th Regiment is mentioned. Robert received a grant in Newcastle Parish in 1808, and William in Newcastle Parish in 1791 and 1812. The size of the grants suggests William was the elder.

William Forsyth appears to have been a merchant operating out of Halifax, NS; and his interests on the Miramichi appear to have been in the salmon fishery. It does not appear he was a resident.

Robert Forsyth was, in 1785, described as a refugee from New York, on the north side of the Miramichi. Across the river, at the same time, was Gregor McKinnon; Hugh McKinnon's father. It seems both were Loyalists. Gregor was a sergeant in the Carolina Volunteers; and Robert Forsyth, in spite of coming to New Brunswick from New York (the usual departure point for most NB and NS Loyalists), he was with the North Carolina Volunteers in the American Revolution. To confuse the matter further, he is also said to have been from Pennsylvania. His 'abduction' of his wife, Jane (or Jean) Martin (d/o William and Mary Ann Martin), was a matter of local comment, resulting in a court case. The case was dismissed due to lack of witnesses.

In 1789, at Beaubair's Point, Northumberland Co., NB, four men, including a Murdoch McLeod, were charged with having broken into the home of William and Mary Ann Martin on 10FEB1788. They were acquitted, and this may have been the same Murdoch McLeod.

Mary Lynn Smith, at part of her site on Charlotte Taylor, expands on the incident at:
http://www3.bc.sympatico.ca/charlotte_taylor/Folder1/Hierlihy%20Years.htm

The process of establishing a legal infrastructure began but there were many difficulties and inconsistencies. The first meeting of the Court of Quarter Sessions convened at Beaubair's Point in Newcastle (Miramichi, New Brunswick) on September 15, 1789. The Justices of the Peace in attendance were: William Davidson, John Willson, Alexander Wishart, James Horton, Arthur Nicholson, Alexander Taylor and James Fraser. Their duty was to implement the 'Peace and Sunday Acts', of which there were twelve distinct Acts: 1) Against Profanity on Lord's Day, 2) Regulating Juries, 3) Punishing Rogues and Vagabonds, 4) Appointing Town or Parish Officers, 5) Preventing Trespasses, 6) Laying Out and Repairing Roads, etc., 7) Appointing Commissioners and Surveyors, 8) Regulating Servants, 9) Preservation of Moose 10) License of Retailers of Spirituous Liquors, 11) Regulating Fisheries, 12) Regulating Fish and Lumber. The next day Court reconvened for the trial of King vs Robert Forsythe, Murdoch McLeod, Alex. McDonald, and William Sharpe. William Martin and his wife Mary Ann had complained that these four men had broken into their house during the night of February 10, 1788 and taken their daughter Jane Martin away. The men were acquitted by the Court when the prosecution failed to appear.

More details of the case are described in, "The North West Miramichi", by Doreen Menzies Arbuckle (privately, Westboro Printers Ltd., Ottawa, ONT, 1978, p. 213.) In this work it is suggested that Jean (or Jane) Martin and Robert Forsythe were married, and by the time the case came to court (the incident having taken place 10FEB1788) matters were relatively settled. At least, Jean Forsythe was presented 480 acres by her father 17JUL1811 for the rather paltry sum of 5 shillings.

In MAR1785, a petition of Robert 'Forsith' indicated he had a house on the north side of the Miramichi, and had been there for two years.

A Jane Forsyth is not listed amongst Robert's children. A son, Robert Forsyth, Jr., m. 30JUN1831 Margaret McKinnon, d/o Gregor and Jane (Pearson?/Sharp) McKinnon.

It is clear that the McKinnon's and Forsyth's knew each other well. Since Hugh McKinnon is given as b. 1793, one assumes Jane Forsyth was not b. much after. At least she was b. ca. 1795-1812. This suggests she was a previously un-recorded daughter of Robert and Jane (Martin) Forsyth. This is at least partially substantiated in a discussion at her daughter, Jane McKinnon b. ca. 1833.

A Gregory McKinnon b. ca. 1838-40 (41 in 1881), d. 4JUL1891 aet. 53 years, m. Ellen Irving (b. ca. 1843, d. 19FEB1914 aet. 71 years) is buried in St. Andrew's United (Presbyterian) Church Cem., Rexton, Kent Co., NB. In 1881, Gregory and Ellen are living with her brother, Henry Irving (b. ca. 1847) in Richibucto. As Henry Irving was a pilot, he probably was the s/o George (b. Scotland ca. 1807) and Elizabeth (b. Scotland ca. 1806), where, in 1881, George was also a pilot.

Kenneth Colin Irving's forefather, George Irving was born in Dumfries, Scotland in 1771. He immigrated with his wife Jane, to Richibucto, N.B. in 1822. It was to start a new life.

Kenneth Colin Irving was born in Richibucto in 1899. He grew up there and as soon as he was old enough, he started working in the family store and lumber mill after school. He managed to complete grammar school and high school.

"KC Irving", by Nick Lamb, 15JAN2002

In 1822, George Irving, K. C.'s great-grandfather, arrives in Canada in Richibucto, New Brunswick and settles in Beersville, New Brunswick with his wife. In 1860, his father, James Dergavel Irving or J. D. Irving was born. In 1881 he moves to Bouctouche, New Brunswick to run a sawmill and a farm. In 1899, Kenneth Colin or K. C. Was born to parents James Dergavel Irving and his second wife, Mary Elizabeth Gifford. In 1909.

Hugh and Jane McKinnon were in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1851 as:

McKinnon Hugh M Head 58 Scotch Farmer Birth
McKinnon Jane F Wife 43 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Margaret F Daughter 20 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Sarah F Daughter 15 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Grigor M Son 13 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Catharine F Daughter 10 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Robert M Son 8 Scotch Birth
McKinnon William M Son 6 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Ann F Daughter 4 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Bona F Daughter 7 m Scotch Birth

Also in Glenleg Parish, in 1851, was the family:

McDonald John M Head 37 Scotch Farmer (Prop) Birth
McDonald Margaret F Wife 28 Scotch Birth
McDonald Francis M Son 9 Scotch Birth
McDonald Ann F Daughter 7 Scotch Birth
McDonald Karin F Daughter 5 Scotch Birth
McDonald Alexander M Son 3 Scotch Birth
McKinnon Jane F Cousin 18 Scotch Birth

The circumstances strongly suggest that cousin Jane McKinnon was Hugh's daughter. The relationship of the McDonald's to the McKinnon's is not immediately clear.

Hugh McKinnon was in Division 1 of Richibucto in 1871, age 70, b. NB, Scottish, Presbyterian and a lumberer. He was a widower, and two children with him were Robert (25) and Catherine (28.) Robert was also a lumberer, and he and Catherine are not indicated as being married; so it is assumed she was his sister. In 1881, in Richibucto, Robert (age 37) did have a wife, Catherine (age 35.) Robert was C. Presbyterian and Scottish, while his wife was Roman Catholic and Irish. Since the Catherine in 1871 was Presbyterian and Scottish, it seems unlikely that she was his wife.

Next door was the family of Joseph Haines (age 26), also a lumberer; possibly in partnership.

Since Hugh and his son, Gregory, are the only McKinnon's in Richibucto in 1871, it is assumed that all McKinnon's in the immediate area at that time, and before then, were Hugh's family.

One given as Hugh's son appears to be:

JOSEPH McKINNON (?), m. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB by the Rev. James Hannay 14NOV1839 ABIGAIL SMITH.

A daughter was possibly Annie McKinnon (b. 24DEC1861), a niece of Ellie McKinnon, in the 1901 census of Richibucto. In 1911, Annie (b. DEC1861) was Ellen's adopted daughter. Ellen also had a grandson, Gregor McKinnon (b. MAR1901); possibly Annie's son. Annie (age 18) was with Gregory and Ellen McKinnon in 1881; suggesting her parents died before then.
1. ANNIE McKINNON b. 24DEC1861 (ca. 1862-3)

However, if Joseph and Abigail were actually m. 1839, when most of Hugh's children had yet to be born, I cannot see that the conclusion is viable.

Hugh appears to have moved to Kent Co., NB between the census returns of 1851 and 1858, by which time his daughter, Margaret, was married. Perhaps land was an issue. I do not see any immediate indications that Hugh either petitioned for land nor that he was granted any. It seems more likely that his land in Glenelg Parish he inherited from his father, and when he moved, left to his sister, Catherine (McKinnon) Anderson; from whom it seems to pass to her daughters and perhaps to the Cameron's. At least it seems that members of the general family are in occupation of some land in Little Branch, Black River, Glenelg Parish up until, and perhaps after, 1900. If my guesses in this are correct, the possessor at that time would appear to be Christina Janet Anderson (Allen) Cameron [3121] and her husband, James Robert Cameron. Certainly most of their children were b. in Little Branch. Perhaps land once owned by Gregor McKinnon is still in the hands of his descendants.

That Hugh was Gregor's son is supported by the funeral records of his grandson, John Alexander Haines, which gives Margaret (McKinnon) Haine's (Alexander's mother and Hugh's daughter) as b. Bay du Vin, NB. This could only be true if Margaret was a granddaughter of Gregor McKinnon.
children:

21. JANE McKINNON b. ca. 1832-3, d. Pointe aux Car, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 21JUN1853 age 21 years, m. the Manse, Chatham, Chatham Parish, Northumberland Co., NB by the Rev. Wm. Stewart 8APR1852 ROBERT RUSSELL (b. ca. 1825; m. 2nd by the Rev. Wm. Stewart 21JAN1857 Margaret Stewart (b. ca. 1838)), s/o Francis and Ann Russell.

As noted above, Jane McKinnon b. ca. 1833 appears with John McDonald (b. ca. 1814) and his wife, Margaret (b. ca. 1823) in the 1851 census of Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB. The eldest son of John and Margaret is Francis McDonald (b. ca. 1842), suggesting they were married ca. 1840. As it turns out, Francis' forename suggests more than that.

Jane is given, in 1851, as a cousin to John and Margaret McDonald. An attempt to find a McKinnon-McDonald kinship was fruitless. Turning to the possibility that Jane and Margaret were cousins, a marriage worth noting is that of John McDonald at Point aux Car, by A. Goodfellow, Esq. 6JAN1840 to Margaret Russell, eldest d/o F. Russell, all of Glenelg Parish. The timing and the fact that Jane's cousins are the only John and Margaret McDonald in Glenelg Parish in 1851 suggest they are the same persons.

F. Russell, Margaret's father, lives very close in 1851 (one page of the census returns), and is Francis Russell b. NB ca. 1790, with a wife, Ann (b. NB ca. 1793) and a son, Robert (b. ca. 1825.) there is also a Francis R. Taylor b. ca. 1843, likely a grandson, and suggesting at least one older, married daughter. Robert Taylor would also be the same who m. Jane McKinnon. Thus, while the 1851 census seems to anticipate a bit, Jane and Margaret (Russell) McDonald will soon be related a sisters-in-law.

It should be noted that mentions of Hardwick Parish, where Hugh's mother died, are not inconsistent as Hardwick was set off from Glenelg Parish in 1851, just after the census. Thus a change of 'place' does not mean an actual movement of persons. Also, John McDonald, one of the first families listed in 1851, seems to have lived near a boundary of the Parish. Thus, when a newspaper notes Jane's marriage as:

"m. Manse, Chatham (North. Co.) Thursday 8th inst., by Rev. Wm Stewart, Robert RUSSELL, Glenelg / Miss Jane MCKINNON, Hardwicke"

the mention of Hardwicke Parish is not only consistent, but supportive.

Francis Russell is mentioned in Doreen M. Arbuckle's, "The North West Miramichi", pgs. 211-215; and in Kathleen Willis Williston's, "Biographies and notes on early settlers" written by Mrs. Williston in 1947. In summary, he is given as b. Scotland ca. 1790, d. 1874, m. 4FEB1813 Ann Forsyth (b. ca. 1793), d/o Robert and Jane (Martin) Forsyth.

These circumstances strongly suggest that Jane McKinnon and Margaret (Russell) McDonald were first cousins; therefore Jane was the daughter of Margaret's maternal aunt (paternal aunt being unlikely), therefore Hugh McKinnon's wife, Jane, was Jane Forsyth, d/o Robert and Jane (Martin) Forsyth, as suspected. Also, that Jane McKinnon's husband, Robert Russell, is her maternal first cousin.

By 1881, in Glenelg Parish, Robert Russell b. ca. 1825, appears to have married again as his wife is Margaret, b. ca. 1838. Children are: Charles (23), Francis (21), Angus (18), John (16; John A. Russell d. while bathing Berlin Falls, NH 4JUL1886), James (13), Arthur (11), Clifford (8), Harry (6), David (4) and Ellen (1.) Robert is a farmer-fisherman and Charles and Francis are carpenters. All are b. NB, Scottish and Presbyterian.

22. MARGARET A. McKINNON (?) b. Bay du Vin, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 20APR1832 (ca. 1831), d. 1916, bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem., m. BENEDICT HAINES (b. NB 20APR1834, d. 1919, bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem.), s/o Alexander and Catherine (Till) Haines

A Malcolm McKinnon b. PEI 10OCT1848, and his family, are in Richibucto in the 1901 census. Their son, J. Rankine McKinnon, is buried near the Haines and Hallorans. This may suggest that Margaret's family, like the Halloran's, came from PEI.

"KENT COUNTY MARRIAGES PRIOR TO 1845", compiled by Deborah MacDonald Hale. "The following transcription appeared in "Generations", Issue 26 December 1985. Reproduced with the kind permission of Researcher/Author Deborah MacDonald Hale."; is record the marriage in Richibucto by the Rev. James Hannay of Joseph McKinnon and Abigail Smith 14NOV1839.

A Mary Smith (ca. 1799-22JAN1875, d. aet. 75 years) is bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem.

Elizabeth Smith (ca. 1771-26JUN1859, aet. 88 years), wife of Dr. Rufus Smith is bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem. According to:

<http://members.tripod.com/~grgordon/dixroach.htm>

This is Elizabeth Dixon b. England 25AUG1770, d. 26JUN1859, m. 13OCT1789 Dr. Rufus Smith (b. 19NOV1766, d. 15NOV1854), s/o Nathan (b. 1738; d. 26 Oct 181) and Elizabeth _____ (d. Feb 1784 at 39) Smith. His brother William Howe SMITH; d. 1828); (Smith information from Bible belonging to Mary & Matilda SMITH, Richibucto, N.B., transcribed by "Grandson" 27 Sep 1871, per MS)

SMITH.--Dr. Rufus Smith lived near Fort Cumberland and had a large medical practice on the Isthmus. He belonged to one of the Loyalist families, and represented the County of Westmoreland in the Assembly at Fredericton for a period of fifteen years, from 1816. His remains lie in the cemetery at Point de Bute.

Benedict's family is found in the 1881 census of Richibucto, Kent Co., NB. He was a seaman as was his son, Hugh, and most of his family were Church of England, but Margaret A. was Presbyterian, as was an infant, Leda, presumably their daughter. With them at the time was a William McKinnon (b. NB ca. 1845), probably Margaret's brother. Benedict and his children are described as English, but Margaret, William McKinnon, and young Leda are Scottish. William McKinnon would be the same William McKinnon b. 22AUG1845, in Richibucto in 1901, with his wife and children. At that time, William lived very near Gordon Smith and Mary Ann (Haines) Halloran, with Mary presumably William's niece. William McKinnon's wife was Amelia, b. 5AUG1859. Birth records give her as Amelia ("Emilie", Emeline, Emilia) Blanchard. She apparently m. 2nd 1912 Hugh M. Daigle. This would mean that William was the same who d. Richibucto 28NOV1908 aet. 65 years.

Linda wrote (e-mail, 7MAR2004) :

I have a William McKinnon born 1845, no marriage, he was the son of Hugh McKinnon and Jane Forsyth...he died Nov 28th 1908 in Richibucto. He had a sister Margaret born 1831. Could that possibly be your Margaret? Hugh McKinnon was Gregor McKinnons son.

Apparently, the William McKinnon with Margaret A. (McKinnon) Haines in 1881, the William McKinnon in the death record and the William McKinnon in 1901 are the same person, except that Linda states he was unmarried. Apart from that, it appears that William and Margaret were children of Hugh and Jane (Forsyth) McKinnon.

children:

221. HUGH HAINES b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 8JUL1858 (8JAN1859 in 1901, ca. 1860, 8JUL1859 in death record), d. Portland, ME 15SEP1940 age 83 years, 2 months and 8 days, bur. Fellows Cem., Fayette, Kennebec Co., ME 18SEP1940, m. 1889 JOHANNA MOORE (b. Halifax, NS 28MAY1856, d. Fayette Kennebec Co., ME 31AUG1947 age 91 years, 3 months and 3 days, bur. Fellows Cem., Fayette, Kennebec Co., ME 2SEP1947), d/o Edward and Johanna (Hair) Moore.

According to a newspaper announcement (Saint John, The Daily Sun, 4MAY1893), Hugh Haines, s/o Benedict Haines, of Richibucto, had been in Boston, MA for 7 years. About 2MAY1893 he purchased a farm in Galloway (East Galloway, Kent Co., NB?), and was to arrive shortly to take possession.

A James Haines of Richibucto m. residence of Enoch Rushton, Esq., Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB by the Rev. E. Bertram, rector of St. George's Church 8APR1891 Ella R. Frecker, also of Richibucto, d/o Thomas and Martha Eleanor Frecker. Ella d. Highfield St., Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB MAR1894 age 31 years, 2 months and 5 days.

Johanna's first husband may have been John E. Frecker, eldest s/o Thomas Frecker of Richibucto, who was b. NB ca. 1850, and d. Chelsea, MA 8MAR1888. John E. Frecker, his wife, Johanna, and her father, Edward Moore (and others of their family) were in Chelsea, Suffolk Co., MA in 1880.

222. MARY ANN HAINES b. New Brunswick 29JUL(27JUL in 1901)1861, d. 6NOV1922, bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem., m. Kent Co., NB 8JUL1888 GORDON SMITH HALLORAN (b. Prince Edward Island (NB in 1881) (1891 census of Richibucto) or NB (1901 Census Division I, Richibucto where he is Irish, a Methodist, and a labourer) 9SEP1863, d. 15OCT1928, bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem.), s/o Maurice and Margaret (Smallman) Halloran.

children:

2121. MARGARET MacKINNON HALLORAN (d/o Gordon Smith and Margaret Ann (Haines) Halloran of Richibucto, Kent Co., NB) b. NB 26MAY1893, d. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 7JUN1940, m. ALFRED ("ALF") NORMAN MURRAY (b. Tabusintac, Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB (or Bangor or Brewer or Madison, Maine) 16JUL1893, d. Truro, Colchester Co., Nova Scotia, 6SEP1965, bur. Fredericton, York Co., NB; m 2nd VERNA ELIZABETH MacCALLUM (b. Tabusintac, Northumberland Co., NB 10MAY1897, d. 1978), d/o John William and Belinda Jane (Robertson) MacCallum; m. 1st 15MAR1916 John Cleveland Jewett (b. 26MAR1888), s/o Harvey Allen and Sarah Jane (Smith) Jewett), s/o John J. and Ellen Austin (Robertson) Murray.)

223. JOHN ALEXANDER HAINES b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 20MAY1864 (1901 census, ca. 1864-5 in 1881), d. 25 Coburg St. Saint John, Saint John Co., NB 8SEP1910 age 75 years, bur. Redbank Cem., Chipman Parish, Queens Co., NB, m. Saint John Co., NB 29JUN1904 HATTIE MAY McLELLAN (b. Midland, Queens Co., NB 27OCT1872, d. 1958, bur. Redbank Cem., Chipman Parish, Queens Co., NB), d/o d/o Joseph and Mary Jane (Kadey/Kady) McLellan.

Perhaps the Alexander Haines who m. Saint John Co., NB 29JUN1904 Hattie McLellan.

In the 1911 census of Chipman Parish, Queens Co., NB, Alexander Hains was b. MAY1866, and Hattie was b. OCT1872. Their marriage was mentioned in the 7JUL1904 issue of the, "Richibucto Review", (as Hattie McLean) so presumably Alexander was from there. Hattie was from Chipman Parish, and in the 1901 census is found there (b. 27OCT1872), with her parents, Joseph McLellan (24MAY1835, 5MAY1836 on headstone, d. 15AUG1929) and Mary (11NOV1832, d. 27JAN1908 age 78 years.) Two birth records give her as Hattie May McLellan b. Midland, Queens Co., NB 27OCT1872, d/o Joseph and Mary Jane (Kadey/Kady) McLellan.

Hattie M. Haines (1872-1958) is bur. Redbank Cem., Chipman Parish, Queens Co., NB; and her headstone indicates that she was the wife of J. Alexander Haines (1864-1940) who is bur. in the same cemetery.

That J. Alexander is John Alexander and Alexander s/o Benedict and Margaret McKinnon) Haines is confirmed by his funeral records. What is of particular interest is that Margaret is given as b. Bay du Vin, NB; confirming her as a member of Gregor McKinnon's family. Alexander was a trackmaster for the C.P.R.

224. ROBERT HAINES b. ca. 1866-8

225. JANE HAINES b. ca. 1870

226. Capt. BENEDICT HAINES b. 27MAR1873, d. Saint John Co., NB 26SEP1950, bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem, Richibucto, Kent Co., NB, m. Saint John Co., NB 24MAY1909 MARGARET ('MAGGIE') FRASER LEGGATT (b. 15APR1874, d. 1955, bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem, Richibucto, Kent Co., NB), d/o C. Alexander and Catherine (Gaffney) Leggatt (Legatt/Leggett.) Apparently the same person whom Arnold Norman Murray knew as "uncle" Ben Haines, and was living in Fredericton, NB in 1947 when Arnold was married there. Arnold's daughter, Janet, relayed from Arnold's wife, Vera (e-mail 18MAY2002) the following:

She keeps calling Dad's great-uncle Capt. Ben...says the title is from ship's he captained...said, yes he was old when she met him....says his wife was crabby...and doesn't remember mention of children, though she is unsure.

Margaret Fraser Leggatt may be Maggie Leggatt b. 15APR1874, d/o a widow, Catherine Leggatt (16NOV1837, d. 1920, bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem, Richibucto, Kent Co., NB), in Richibucto, Kent Co., NB in the 1901 census. Her father was likely Alexander Leggatt (b. on the Miramichi, Northumberland Co., NB ca. 1834, d. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 30AUG1900 age 66 years, bur. Richibucto Protestant Cem, Richibucto, Kent Co., NB), a fisherman in Richibucto in 1871.

227. CELESTA ("ESSIE"?) ELVINA HAINES ("E. S." in 1881) b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 20JUN1876, m. Kent Co., NB 21DEC1904 FREDERICK (FRED) J. KENNEDY (b. 15APR1871 (APR1870 in 1911, ca. 1869 in 1881)), s/o William and Catherine (Geddes) Kennedy.

They were in Richibucto Parish, Kent Co., NB in the 1911 census.

Fred may be the Frederick Kennedy who d. Kent Co., NB 7MAR1946.

228. LEDA HAINES b. JUN1880, possible daughter.

23. SARAH MCKINNON b. ca. 1836-40, m. 13OC1857 DANIEL TOUCHIE (b. Newcastle, Northumberland Co., NB 24APR1832), possibly a s/o James F. and Mary (Forsyth) Touchie.

A Sarah Ann McKinnon of Richibucto m. 13OC1857 Daniel Tushie of Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB.

A Daniel Tushie (Touchie) is given as b. Newcastle, Northumberland Co., NB 24APR1832. Daniel Touchie petitioned for land in Northumberland Co., NB in 1863.

In Newcastle, in the 1871 directory, was:

Touche, Daniel - Newcastle Newcastle Northumberland Laborer, New Highway

The 'New Highway' may be a reference to a military project of the mid 1800's.

A Sarah Touchie b. NB ca. 1840 is in Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1881. She is married, but her husband is not with them. She is Scottish and C. Presbyterian, and the children were: William (19), Jane (18), Ellen (15), Boine (13), Barbara (12) and Melvin (7.) Not in the census was a son, Watson James Touchie b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 3MAR1879, s/o Daniel and Sarah (MacKinnon) Touchie. Watson lived to m. Northumberland Co., NB 10JAN1917 Hattie I. Campbell. He d. Northumberland Co., NB 8JUL1935. There may have been two Watson's as, in the 1901 census of Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB Watson was b. 16MAR1881, and lived with his brother, William (1AUG1858) and William's wife, Mary (22MAY1857.) William appears to be the same b. ca. 1862 in 1881; therefore his mother is the Sarah McKinnon from Richibucto.

In Northesk Parish, in 1851, was a family:

Tushie John M Head 31 Labourer (prop) 1824

Tushie Christey F Wife 26 Birth

Tushie Mary Jane F Daughter 3 Birth

Tushie Elisabeth F Daughter 1 Birth

Tushie James M Lodger 65 Cooper Birth

Tushie Mary F Lodger 62 Birth

Christina Fisher, John's wife, was the d/o Angus and Elizabeth (Forsyth) Fisher; so possibly she was Sarah's cousin. Also, John is given as a son of James F. and Mary (Forsyth) Touchie; where Mary m. 1st _____ Whitney. So John would appear to be a cousin as well. If, for example, Daniel Touchie was a s/o James and Mary, and was in Richibucto, he would naturally visit Hugh McKinnon's family; hence his wife might easily be Hugh's daughter.

That John Tushie arrived in NB in 1824 only makes sense if his father left the province to work (i.e., in Maine), and returned after John was born.

Forsyth genealogies state that Mary Forsyth b. ca. 1788, d/o Robert and Jane (Martin) Forsyth, m. 1st Daniel Whitney; m. 2nd James F. Touchie (b. ca. 1788), s/o John Touchie. Mary's sister, Elizabeth Forsyth (b. ca. 1795, d. ca. 1857), m. Angus Fisher (b. ca. 1788.) As seen elsewhere, Sarah McKinnon's mother, Jane Forsyth, is almost certainly a sister of Mary and Elizabeth.

There was a John Tushie (Toshen) in Northumberland Co., NB as early as 1785, perhaps as early as 1777, noted as a river pilot on the Miramichi. Also known as John Touchie, and thought to have been Portuguese or of Portuguese descent, he is also thought to have arrived ca. 1775, settled at Chatham Head, married a lady of the Mi'Maq Nation, and to have had sons: Julian Touchie, m. Molly _____; Jean Touchie; and James F. Touchie.

In Chatham Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in was Bella Touchie b. NB ca. 1859, a servant to Edward and Jessie B. Johnston.

Annie Tushie m. Chatham Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 21APR1874 William McKay.

Elizabeth Tushie was b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 3APR1850, d. 14DEC1933.

In Chatham Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1911 Watson is a lodger (b. MAR1882.) William (MAY1859) and Mary (JAN1876) Touchie are in Newcastle Parish. Perhaps a 2nd wife for William? The first wife would be Mary McGinnes with whom he had a daughter, Sarah Ellen Wilhelmina Touchie b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 25NOV1892, d. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 23JUL1893.

About 1880, a John Tushie. eldest s/o John Tushie, left Chatham for Eau Claire, Wisconsin. He d. there 10JUL1894 age 31 years. The elder John Tushie may be the John Tushie b. ca. 1831, a servant to George J. and Marion Parker in Chatham Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1851. George J. Parker was a 'Provincial Merchant'; presumably a government post. In the 1865 directory, John Tushie was a watchman, living near Water and Johnson Streets, Chatham.

Former Prime Minister, Brian Mulroney attended high school in Chatham. One of Mulroney's 'boyhood friends' was a Wilbur Touchie.

children:

231. WILLIAM TOUCHIE b. 1AUG1858 (ca. 1862, MAY1859 in 1911), m. 1st MARY MCGINNES (b. 22MAY1857); m. 2nd MARY _____ (b. JAN1876)

children:

1st

2311. SARAH ELLEN WILHELMINA TOUCHIE b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 25NOV1892, d. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 23JUL1893

232. ELLEN TOUCHIE b. ca. 1866.

Possibly the Ellen Tushie who m. Lawrence Tremblay and had a son, John Tremblay, b. Chatham, Northumberland Co., NB 20APR1884.

Lawrence may be the Lawrence Tremblay b. c. 1859 in the 1881 census of Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB. His father, also Lawrence (b. Quebec ca. 1833), was a school teacher; and his mother, Lucy, was b. NB ca. 1842.

233. BOINE TOUCHIE b. ca. 1868

234. BARBARA TOUCHIE b. ca. 1869

235. MELVIN TOUCHIE b. ca. 1874

236. WATSON JAMES TOUCHIE b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 3MAR1879 (16MAR1881 in 1901, MAR1882 in 1911), d. Northumberland Co., NB 8JUL1935, m. Northumberland Co., NB 10JAN1917 HARRIETT (HATTIE) I. CAMPBELL, d/o John Wright and Adella (McDonald) Campbell.

Watson James Touchie was involved in the Boer War, and made a claim for land based on that service.

24. GREGORY (GRIGOR) MCKINNON (?) b. ca. 1837-40 (41 in 1881, 13 in 1851), d. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 4JUL1891 aet. 53 (or 52) years, bur. St. Andrew's United (Presbyterian) Church Cem., Rexton, Kent Co., NB, m. ELLEN (ELLIE) IRVING (b. 1OCT1841 (ca. 1843), d. 19FEB1914 aet. 71 years, bur. St. Andrew's United (Presbyterian) Church Cem., Rexton, Kent Co., NB), probably d/o George and Elizabeth (Lockerby) Irving.

Three death records are listed for Gregory; two of which list his place-of-birth and place-of-death. An announcement of his death (Richibucto, 'Review', 9JUL1891) states he was a s/o the late Hugh and Jane McKinnon, age 53. d. Richibucto 4JUL1891 and left a wife, 2 sons and 1 daughter.

Gregory (age 32) and Ellen (age 26) are in Division 1 of Richibucto in the 1871 census. Both are b. NB, Presbyterian and Scottish; and Gregory is a farmer.

Review, Richibucto, Kent Co., NB, issue of 9JUL1891:

d. Richibucto (Kent Co.) July 4th, Gregory McKINNON s/o late Hugh McKINNON and Jane McKINNON, 53rd year, left wife, one daughter, two sons.

A Gregory McKinnon b. ca. 1838-40 (41 in 1881), d. 4JUL1891 aet. 53 years, m. Ellen Irving (b. ca. 1843, d. 19FEB1914 aet. 71 years) is buried in St. Andrew's United (Presbyterian) Church Cem., Rexton, Kent Co., NB. In 1881, Gregory and Ellen are living with her brother, Henry Irving (b. ca. 1847) in Richibucto.

As Henry Irving was a pilot, he probably was the s/o George (b. Scotland ca. 1807) and Elizabeth (b. Scotland ca. 1806), where, in 1881, George was also a pilot. Elizabeth, the wife of Capt. George Irving, Sr., pilot, was b. Annan, Dumfriesshire, Scotland ca. 1804, and d. Richibucto 18OCT1886 age 82 years. The matter is complicated by there being to families, both headed by George Irving, with several generations of George's, in Kent Co. However, buried in the same cemetery as Gregory and Ellen are:

IRVING, George died May 6 1891 aged 85

his wife:

LOCKERBY, Elizabeth died Oct 18 1886 aged 82

native of Annan, Scotland settled in Richibucto in 1834

and these seem to have been Ellen's parents.

In 1891, Gregory is age 54, and with him is Catherine (age 47); likely his sister? or sister-in-law? Hugh (16) is described as 'servant', and there are also George (14), Jane (17) and Annie (29.)

In 1901, Ellen is a widow.

children:

241. ANNIE McKINNON (adopted daughter; in 1881 and 1891 census, but not in 1871; in 1901 a niece and in 1911 adopted) b. ca. 1862-3. (See [11].)

242. JANE McKINNON b. ca. 1873-4

243. HUGH McKINNON b. 27JUN1874, m. Kent Co., NB 19DEC1904 MAUD JESSIE FERGUSON (b. Main River, Kent Co., NB 22APR1880), d/o Robert Thomas and Sarah Jane (Glendenning) Ferguson.

"Review", Richibucto, Kent Co., NB, issue of 12SEP1895:

"A paragraph is going the rounds of press to the effect that Fred PHINNEY and Hugh McKINNON were drowned off Richibucto harbor last week. The report, which first appeared in a St. John paper, originated in the fertile brain of a Harcourt correspondent."

Possibly the Hugh McKinnon b. JUN1874, m. 19DEC1904 Maud Jessie Ferguson; and in Bathurst, NB in 1911.

Said to have lived in Gloucester Co., NB and to have had a son, Lorne McCallum.

Another son might be Gregory McKinnon who m. Bathurst, Gloucester Co., NB 6JUN1926 Katharine J. Foley. Katherine may have m. 2nd Bathurst, Gloucester Co., NB 7APR1956 Vincent de Paul Shellmer. Also, A Hugh McKinnon m. Bathurst, Gloucester Co., NB 5SEP1923 Margaret Moorehead Ellis.

In the 1911 census of Bathurst Parish, Gloucester Co., NB is Hugh (JUN1874) and 'Mode' (APR1880) McKinnon, and their son, Lorne (JUL1906) McKinnon. Since the enumerator seems to have been relatively close in birth dates, it seems Maud was b. in April, 1879-1881. That is, in 1901, she was age about 20-23 years. While nobody who fits the criteria appears in the 1901 census of Kent Co., in the 1881 census of Weldford Parish, Kent Co., NB is the family of Robert and Sarah Ferguson; including a daughter, Maud, b. ca. 1880. Other children are Ernest (10), Willie (8), 'Mable' (5) and Jessie (4.) A birth for Bessie I. (as opposed to 'Jessie') b. 18JAN1877 in Rexton gives her parents as Robert and Sarah (Glendenning)

Ferguson. Jessie Maud Ferguson, d/o Robert Thomas and Sarah Jane (Glendenning) Ferguson was b. Main River, Kent Co., NB 22APR1880. It would appear that Jessie Maud became Maud Jessie. While her mother and siblings appear in Weldford Parish in 1901, she does not.

children:

2431. HUBERT BLAKE McKINNON b. Bathurst Village, Gloucester Co., NB 30JUN1906, d. Gloucester Co., NB 22AUG1906
2432. LORNE DELBERT McKINNON b. Bathurst, Gloucester Co., NB 12JUL1907, m. _____ CAMPBELL
2433. FLORENCE ELVIE McKINNON b. Bathurst, Gloucester Co., NB 9NOV1909, d. Gloucester Co., NB 2DEC1909
2434. LYLE FERGUSON McKINNON b. Bathurst, Gloucester Co., NB 3NOV1912 or 3NOV1913 (two birth records)
244. GEORGE McKINNON b. 22APR1876, d. Gloucester Co., NB 11DEC1911 aet. 35 years, bur. St. Andrew's United (Presbyterian) Church Cem., Rexton, Kent Co., NB.
Possibly with his brother, Hugh, when he died.
25. CATHERINE McKINNON b. NB ca. 1843.
26. ROBERT McKINNON b. Bay du Vin, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 17MAR1844 (ca. 1844-6, ca. 1841 in death record, ca. 1843 in 1851), d. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 21MAR1911 age 70 years, m. CATHERINE BURNS (b. Barnaby River, Northumberland Co., NB 12FEB1846 (ca. 1845-6, JAN1843 in 1911), d. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 20FEB1917 ('Mrs. Robert McKinnon') age 72 years.)

Two death records exist for Robert, both making him age 70 years when he died. One gives his place-of-death, and also makes his place-of-birth as Bay du Vin.

In Richibucto Parish, Kent Co., NB, in 1871, two households are in the same dwelling:

1 18 54 60 McKinnon Hugh m 70 NB Presb Scotch Lumberer W
1 18 54 60 McKinnon Robert m 25 NB Presb Scotch Lumberer
1 18 54 60 McKinnon Catherine f 28 NB Presb Scotch
1 18 54 61 Hains Joseph m 26 NB C of E. English Lumberer M
1 18 54 61 Hains Mary f 25 NB C of E. English M
1 18 54 61 Hains Ruth f 8 NB C of E. English
1 18 54 61 Hains Margaret Ann f 6 NB C of E. English
1 18 54 61 Hains Charles m 3 NB C of E. English
1 18 54 61 Hains infant m 2/12 February NB C of E. English

While it is clear that this is Robert and his father, Hugh; it is not clear who Catherine McKinnon is. Neither is indicated as married, suggesting she was a sister. If so, then she is likely the 'Bona' in the 1851 census. Mary, wife of Joseph Haines, might be thought to be Robert's sister as well. She is, however, Mary Mountain. Robert's sister, Margaret A. McKinnon, however, married Joseph's brother, Benedict Haines; so the families are connected but not in ways one might expect.

Catherine Burns, if b. Barnaby River 1846, would likely have been b. in Nelson Parish, Northumberland Co., NB; where I believe Barnaby River is. Thus, she is likely the "Kathn" in the household in that parish in 1851 as:

Burns Michl M Head 30 Irish Farmer 1836 Ord Health
Burns Elizabeth F Wife 35 Irish 1836 Ord Health
Burns Mary F Daughter 12 Irish Born Col Ord Health
Burns Martha F Daughter 10 Irish Born Col Ord Health
Burns Kathn F Daughter 6 Irish Born Col Ord Health
Burns Sarah F Daughter 3 Irish Born Col Ord Health

In 1881, in Richibucto, Kent Co., NB, a Robert McKinnon b. NB ca. 1844, Scottish, labourer and C. Presbyterian. His wife was Catherine (b. NB ca. 1846, Irish and Roman Catholic.) Children: Jane (b. ca. 1871), Ida M. (b. ca. 1877) and Fred (b. ca. 1880); all Scottish, b. NB and Roman Catholic.

- children:
261. JANE McKINNON b. 22JUN1872, m. Kent Co., NB 17FEB1896 HENRY (HARRY) JOSEPH LANIGAN (b. 12OCT1872.)
In Richibucto in 1901.
262. IDA M. McKINNON b. 1FEB1877 (in 1901, MAR1880 in 1911)
263. WILLIAM (FRED) McKINNON b. 6AUG1880, d. 21DEC1929, bur. Roman Catholic Cemetery.
A death certificate exists for William giving him as the s/o Robert and Kate (Burns) McKinnon, with his brother, George, as informant. He was apparently unmarried, and appears to have d. in Richibucto.
264. HUGH (HUGHEY) McKINNON b. 19AUG1883 (in 1910, AUG1882 in 1911.)
Possibly the Hugh McKinnon who m. Kent Co., NB 28SEP1912 Winnifred Legoff (b. 2NOV1889), d/o John and Mary Grace (Windle) Legoff.
265. GEORGE McKINNON b. 2JUN1885 (in 1901, JUN1887 in 1911)
266. ROBERT McKINNON b. 7APR1887 (in 1901, APR1889 in 1911)
27. BONA McKINNON b. ca. 1844.
The name is sometimes given as Boina. I can barely verify Bona as a given name. There is one incident of 'Bonna' in the 1881 census of New Brunswick; and none of Bona, Boina, or Bonnie (b. between 1837 and 1857.)
28. WILLIAM McKINNON b. Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 22AUG1845, d. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 28NOV1908 aet. 65 years, m. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB by the Rev. S. Probably Margaret (McKinnon) Haine's brother living with her in Richibucto in 1881.
In 1881, in Richibucto, Kent Co., NB, in household of Benedict and Margaret Hains, a William McKinnon b. ca. NB 1845, Scottish, labourer and C. Presbyterian.
In 1891 William was a general labourer, Presbyterian, b.. NB as were his parents. 'Amelia' was Roman Catholic, b. NB, father b. PEI, mother b. NB. They were living 'next door' to Maurice Halloran.
In 1901, Emilie (b. ca. 1861) is probably the d/o Leon and Marie Blanchard in St.-Louis-de-Kent in 1881. That Emelie did have a brother, 'Frederic', b. ca. 1858. Emilie's nephew, Arthur Blanchard (b. 8SEP1890) lived with them. Arthur possibly s/o Frederick (3JUL1852) and Lucy G. (13JUL1875) Blanchard, living 'next door'.

3. CATHERINE ("KATE") McKINNON b. 1802, m. JOHN ANDERSON (b. Clackmannon, Ayresshire, Scotland 1JAN1791, d. 6AUG1877.)

They are said to have had 11 children.

In Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1851, John was a farmer, owning his own land, and had arrived in NB in 1816. They appear as:

Anderson John M Head 60 Scotch Farmer (prop) June 1816
Anderson Catharine F Wife 49 Scotch Birth
Anderson William M Son 25 Scotch Birth
Anderson Grigor M Son 20 Scotch Birth
Anderson John M Son 18 Scotch Birth
Anderson James M Son 16 Scotch Birth
Anderson Mary F Daughter 13 Scotch Birth
Anderson Hugh M Son 10 Scotch Birth
Anderson Christina F Daughter 3 Scotch Birth

There were, of course, other Anderson families in Northumberland Co., NB; some pre-Loyalist. A John Anderson did petition for land in 1821; once alone and once with several others. Whether this is the same John, or one or two different ones is not clear. A James Anderson was granted land in Glenelg Parish 26NOV1816. His grant is given as 2,245 acres, but he shared it with 3 Campbell's, 2 McNaughton's and two Stewart's, 1,640 acres; still leaving an impressive 605 acres. Presumably James Anderson had a sizable family.

On 5DEC1844 Margaret Anderson and Thomas Hudson Curren, both of Glenelg Parish, were married at Little Branch, Black River by the Rev. Angus McMaster. Since Thomas and Margaret, in 1851, live 'next door' to John and Margaret Anderson, I assume that Margaret was their daughter. There appears to be no other Anderson family in Glenelg Parish in 1851.

On 1FEB1852, Gregory Anderson, s/o George Anderson of Little Branch, Black River d. age 21 years and 1 month (b. ca. JAN1831.) This appears to be Gregor Anderson in the 1851 census; but naming his father as 'George' is unexpected.

In the 1865 directory, John Anderson is listed as a farmer at Little Branch Black River, Black River Bridge, Northumberland Co., NB. In 1867, two such John Anderson's are listed, with one being distinguished as being on the North Side, Black River, and the other as on the Little Branch, Black River. Possibly father and son, although all three listings could be the son, with the 1867 entry duplicated. In the 1871 directory, two John's are listed:

Anderson, John - Burnt Church Alnwick Northumberland Farmer/Fisherman
Anderson, John - Douglastown Newcastle Northumberland Laborer

with the Burnt Church John Anderson being likely of the earlier family. Particularly John Anderson, Esq. of Loggie & Anderson.

children:

31. JANET M. ANDERSON b. Little Branch, Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 10NOV1821 (ca. 1822), m. BENJAMIN S. POWERS ALLEN (b. 1JUN1815 (ca. 1816)), s/o Eliphalet Y. and Hannah (Raworth) Allen.

For a lengthy discussion as to why Janet is considered here to be a daughter of John (b. 1791) and Catherine (McKinnon, b. ca. 1802) Anderson, see her sister, Mary at [37]. Also, see:

http://www.trenholm.org/trenholmNB/WC07/WC07_145.htm

where her parents are given as John George (b. 1790) and Catherine (b. 1801) Anderson. I can only assume that the same Trenholm family Bible which gives Janet's maiden name also names her parents. For her mother and siblings, the same site refers to the 1851 census of Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB as noted above, and suggests that Catherine's maiden name might be Powers or Penman. The surname, Penman, is actually one of the Bedeque names associated with the Allen's; and not (at least not closely) associated with the McKinnon's. It is associated with the Murray's of Bedeque (my ancestors), but that association is irrelevant here. (See discussion below again.)

The web site mentioned is part of, "Descendants, Ancestors, and Cousins of John Trenholm & Isabella Coates of New Brunswick, Canada: (plus ancestors of William Olsen Trenholm 1889-1982) (and a few strays)", by Barbara Trenholm, 28AUG2008, beginning at:

http://www.trenholm.org/trenholmNB/WC_TOC.htm

and with sources rather fully cited.

That Benjamin's wife was Jane Anderson apparently comes from a family Bible of Job Trenholm (1814-1867), and the 1901 census makes her Jane M. The family Bible also has her b. Little Branch (Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB.)

In the 1851 census of Botsford Parish, Westmorland Co., NB they are:

Allan Benjamine M Head 35 American miller birth
Allan Jane F Wife 29 American birth
Allan Catherine F Daughter 2 American birth
Allan Elipholet F Daughter -6 American birth

with "-6" likely meaning he was 6 months of age.

Mary Anderson b. NB ca. 1838, single, is living in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1881 with 'Elipholet' (b. ca. 1850) and 'Jennet' (b. ca. 1847) Allan and their daughter, Christie Ann Allan (b. DEC1880) Elipholet and his daughter are English, and Jennet and Mary are Scottish; otherwise all are b. NB and Presbyterian. Birth records give 'Jennet' as Janet McDonald. Her husband is given as Elipholet Pennan Allen. They lived at Little Branch on the Black River; apparently near where Mary's parents once lived.

Apparently Eliphalet and Janet are buried with his family in Port Elgin Fernwood Cem., Port Elgin, Westmorland Co., NB as:

Eliphalet P. Allen 1850 - 1904,
h/w Janet R. MacDonald 1846 - 1927
William B. Allen 1890 - 1927

at:

"Port Elgin Fernwood Cemetery, (Port Elgin, Westmorland Parish, N.B.)", recorded by Mrs. Marion Frye, contributed by Cleadie Barnett, CG(C). It is possible that, prior to 1904 but after the 1901 census, Eliphalet and Janet went to Westmorland Co., as their daughter, Janet Katherine May Allen (b. ca. 1883) was m. Cumberland Co., NS 17AUG1904 to Whitney John Trenholm, of the Botsford Parish family.

In the 1901 census, Eliphalet (11APR1850) and Janet R. (18JAN1848) Allan live in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB. Mary Anderson (8JAN1838) is an 'Aunt'.

32. MARGARET ANDERSON b. Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB ca. 1823-5, d. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 20MAR1895 age 72 years, bur. Kingston, Kent Co., NB (St. Andrew's United Church Cem., Rexton, Kent Co., NB), m. Little Branch, Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB by the Rev. Angus McMaster 5DEC1844 THOMAS HUDSON CURWIN (CURRIN, CURREN, CURRAN, CURWEN) (b. NB (Maryport, Cumberland Co., England?) ca. 1824), s/o George and Agnes (Hudson) Curwin.

Margaret died on a Monday morning after a "lingering illness". She was given as Mrs. Curwin, the widow of Thomas Curwin. Another notice of her death in the 21MAR1895 edition of the Richibucto, "Review", is:

The death of Mrs. Thomas Curwin which occurred Sunday night removes one of our oldest inhabitants. The deceased lady was a sufferer for some time and has passed peacefully to rest at the age of 71 years. A family of seven children survive her, our sons and three daughters. The burial took place in St. Andrew's cemetery, Kingston.

A death record had her as Margaret A. (Anderson) Curwin, b. Black River in Kent Co. (?), and d. Richibucto 17MAR1895 age 70 years. A 2nd death record gives her as Mrs. Thomas Curwin, b. Miramichi, d. Richibucto 18MAR1895 age 72 years.

St. Andrew's, in all probability, was likely at that time a Presbyterian Church, later St. Andrew's United Church. Kingston then is now, I believe, Rexton (Rex = King); but in an online transcription of headstones I do not believe I noticed an inscription for her. See, "St. Andrew's Cemetery Rexton", inscriptions originally transcribed in 1983, by researcher/Author Deborah MacDonald Hale, at:

http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~nbken/CemST_And.html

possibly her marker was wooden, or some other type susceptible to the vicissitudes of time. A separate notice at the time stated that Wm. Anderson attended his sister's funeral.

Margaret and Thomas are listed just after her parents in the 1851 census of Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB as:

Currin Thomas M Head 27 English Labourer Birth
 Currin Margaret F Wife 27 English Birth

Currin Agnes F Daughter 6 English Birth
Currin John M Son 4 English Birth
Currin Jane F Daughter 2 English Birth

There were Hudson's in Glenelg Parish in 1851, so it seems that Thomas may have been visited relatives, saw something he liked and stayed on.

In Richibucto 15OCT1869, William Hudson was m. by the Rev. (later Archdeacon) N. Coster to Margaret Curren. Buried in the Protestant Cemetery in Richibucto are:

HUDSON, William born Nov 19 1837 died Nov 22 1905
his wife
CURWEN, Agnes born 1845 died 1928

Thomas and 'Margueret' Curren are in the 1871 census of Richibucto, Kent Co., NB as:

Curren Thomas m 47 NB C of E. English Waterman M
Curren Margueret f 47 NB Presb Scotch M
Curren Mary Jane f 17 NB Presb Scotch
Curren Thomas H. m 14 NB Presb Scotch
Curren Christina f 12 NB Presb Scotch
Curren George Rufus m 10 NB Presb Scotch
Curren William m 7 NB Presb Scotch
Curren James m 5 NB Presb Scotch

In Richibucto in 1881, Margaret 'Curwin' is a widow. In 1891, she lives 'next door' to her nephew, Gregory McKinnon [24] as:

Curwin Margaret f 65 w - " Scot. Scot. C.Presb. - 22
" William m 27 m s " NB NB " Labourer 23
" Mary f 22 m S. Wife " " " - 24
Peters Margaret f 12 - G.Dau. " " " - 25
" Mary f 10 - G.Dau. " " "

with granddaughters, Margaret and Mary Peters.

The surname, at least initially, is given as Curren; but from 1871 on seems more consistently to be Curwin. I do not know if this represents an accidental or a deliberate change, or if the name was originally Curwin.

There appear to have been ships sailing from Maryport, Cumberland Co., England to Richibucto in the 1820's. A reference is made to the log of the ship, "St. George", which sailed to Richibucto, "USA" between 1819-20. Apparently the Curwen's were an influential family in Maryport; and seem to claim a relationship to Fletcher Christian of the, "Bounty", mutiny. The Curwen home is Workington Hall.

A member of this family is likely Andrew Milligan Curwin b. 1882, d. 1961, bur. St. Andrew's United Church Cem., Rexton, Kent Co., NB, m. Kent Co., NB 2JAN190724AUG1910 Lillian Gertrude Long (b. 1889, d. 1965, St. Andrew's United Church Cem., Rexton, Kent Co., NB); I simply haven't figured out how he fits in. Then there is James Curwin m. Saint-Louis-de-Kent, Kent Co., NB 30OCT1929 Zoe Vautour (d. Kent Co., NB 4JAN1933.) In fact, there are a large number yet to be fitted in; but these two are earlier ones. Another is Herbert Gragg Curwin b. 1896, d. 1976, bur. Holy Cross Cem., Saint John Co., NB, m. Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB 2JUN1933 Robena E. Kinnear Rowe (b. 1903, d. 1983, bur. Holy Cross Cem., Saint John Co., NB)

In 1887, when his brother, Andrew Hudson, died, William was a merchant in Richibucto.

In SEP1889:

A wedding took place in Richibucto (Kent Co.) when H. Havelock Phinney, railway mail clerk, C.P.R. was united in marriage to the daughter of William Hudson, Richibucto. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father by Rev. Hooper, rector of Weldford. The happy couple left by the K.N.R. for their home in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Possibly the Francis (Frank) Curwin who m. Lillian May King and had a sons, 'Ermin' (Herman) Alfred Curwin and Harold Cecil Curwin, b. Chatham, Northumberland Co., NB 1913. A daughter was Florence May Curwin b. Chatham, Northumberland Co., NB 18SEP1909.

Also, several of their children are assumed to be theirs as they are buried with them (and each other.) There are others in the same cemetery. Pte. George M. Curwin b. ca. 1914, d. 21FEB1970 age 56 years. Harold Curwin b. 1912, d. 1989, m. Rose Anna Chaisson (b. 1916, d. 1962.) Presumably they are related, but the connection is not clear.

- In 1911, in Alnwick Parish, John was b. OCT1871, Minnie was b. SEP1883, Curwin b. OCT1909.
- At least two sons are buried with Minnie.
- John, in 1914 and 1916 appears to have been a sawyer. In 1908 he was a mill worker.
- children:

3226. MARGARET CURWIN b. 14NOV1887
3227. SAMUEL JAMES CURWIN b. Jardineville (Richibucto), Kent Co., NB 3OCT1889.
- Sam was in Assinaboine, Saskatchewan when he joined the CEF in WWI in Regina 11NOV1917. He gave his date-of-birth as 24MAR1894, and apparently his surname as Cervoin (making a mark rather than signing), but his father is John 'Cervoin' of Richibucto, and he was b. Kent Co., NB. The 'Cervoin' is crossed out and Curwin written in. He seems to have thought better of joining, as a comment indicates that he was a 'defaulter' and apprehended 20JUL1918. At least he showed some intelligence. He was a farmer and single. He was 5 feet 6 inches, with fair complexion, dark-brown hair and blue eyes.
3228. L/Cpl CECIL CURWIN b. Jardineville (Richibucto), Kent Co., NB 8JUL1891 (8JUL1893 in attestation forms but 8 JUL1891 in birth announcement and in 1901), d. France 15AUG1917 age 24 years, bur. Barlin Communal Cemetery Extension, Pas de Calais, France.
- Served in the 26th Battalion Canadian Infantry, CEF. When he joined, 23APR1915 in Chatham, NB, Cecil was a cook and single. He had a dark complexion, grey eyes and brown hair, and was 5 feet and 11 inches. He was Presbyterian.

3229. AGNES CURWIN b. 23MAY1893, m. 1st Saint John Co., NB 17SEP1916 THOMAS LOUIS CODY; m. 2nd Saint-Louis-de-Kent, Kent Co., NB 6APR1932 EDMOND VAUTOUR

Ralph also joined the CEF in WWI in Moncton 8MAR1916. He was 5 feet and 6 inches, with a medium complexion, blue eyes and brown hair, and was Presbyterian and single.

327. Capt. GEORGE RUFUS CURWIN b. 12APR1861, m. the Manse, Kingston, Kent Co., NB by the Rev. Wm. Hamilton 23OCT1886 MARY C. AMIRAUX (b. ca. 1862-3), d/o Lemuel Canivet and Elizabeth (Handey (Handley)) Amiraux

Both were of Richibucto when married, and are likely sort of step-cousins. Certainly both are my cousins, with Mary related to be through the Haines'. In Richibucto in 1901 as 'Curwin'. Mary was the daughter (b. ca. 1862) in the 1871 family:

Rufus received his mate's certificate in 1893. He had been serving as mate on the barque, "Dunvegan", which returned to Richibucto from Liverpool, England OCT1892 In 1895, ". . . Nov. 27, to the wife of Capt. Rufus CURWIN, twins, sons and daughters.", which is sort of confusing; as did they have four children, two of each; or two children, one of each? Birth records give Greta and George Rufus, Jr. In either case, he appears to have had his master mariner's certificate by the time.

children:

3271. MAY CURWIN b. 7MAY1889

3272. GUY CURWIN 28OCT1890

3273. GEORGE RUFUS CURWIN (twin) b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 26NOV1895 (27NOV1895?, not in 1901 census), d. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 2AUG1896

3274. GRETA CURWIN (twin) b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 27NOV1895?, living with her grandparents, Lemuel and Elizabeth Amiraux, in Richibucto in 1901.

3275. SMITH AMIRAUX CURWIN b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 21MAY1897 (21MAY1896 in 1901)
328. WILLIAM GREGORY CURWIN b. 12JAN1863 (ca. 1864, JAN1863 in 1911), d. Westmorland Co., NB 12DEC1941, m. Kent Co., NB 24DEC1890 MARY (MAGGIE?) CHARLOTTE ROSS (b. Tabusintac, Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 26MAR1870 (16MAR1870 in 1901, MAR1871 in 1911)), d/o Donald and Maria (Blake) Ross.

Possibly William G. Curran in Richibucto in 1901, b. 12JAN1863, with a wife, Mary C. (16MAR1870), and children: Ida M. (11APR1896), Margarite M. (15NOV1897) and Mary M. (3JUL1899.) The 1891 census suggests this as well.

A newspaper announcement, however, has him m. at the Manse (presumably of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church) Kingston, Kent Co., NB by the Rev. Wm. Hamilton 24DEC1890 Maggie C. Ross. This is likely Margaret R. Ross b. ca. 1868, living with Robert and Euphemia Harding in Richibucto in 1881. Also with her are siblings James Ross (ca. 1872) and William Ross (ca. 1874.) Ida 'Munill' Curwin's birth record makes her a d/o William and Mary C. (Ross) Curwin. Margaret M.'s birth record, although it does not give her name, gives the same parents.

An announcement of the death of their 3-year old son (Richibucto, "Review", 10OCT1894) suggests that his grandmother was Mrs. Russell of Tabusintac; therefore that Mary C.'s maiden name was Russell. This might make William's wife Mary J. Russell, b. ca. 1871, d/o Demans and Florah Russell of Alnwick Parish in 1881; or Mary M. Russell b. ca. 1868, d/o August and Rosann Russell of Alnwick Parish in 1881. On the other hand, the birth record for James William Curwin b. Tabusintac, Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 16FEB1892 makes his parents William and Mary C. (Ross) Curwin. This would suggest that "Mrs. Russell" might be "Mrs. Ross".

Mary C. Ross, b. 16MAR1870 in 1901, is necessarily Mary Charlotte Ross b. Tabusintac, Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 26MAR1870, d/o Donald and Maria (Blake) Ross. Her great grandfather, Donald Ross of the New York Volunteers, would very easily have known Gregor McKinnon.

In Richibucto in 1911.

children:

3281. JAMES WILLIAM ROSS CURWIN b. Tabusintac, Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 16FEB1892, d. Tabusintac, Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 27SEP1894 (OCT1894) age 3 years.

A death record has him d. in Kent Co., NB; but the newspaper announcement of his death suggests he d. in Tabusintac.

3282. ANNIE CURWIN b. SEP1894 (in 1911 but not 1901 census?)

3283. IDA MURIEL CURWIN b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 11APR1897 (11APR1896 in 1901)

It is possible two, different daughters are being referred to in two, different birth records; but that they were b. the same date a year apart seems very unlikely.

3286. McLEOD CURWIN b. APR1902.

Probably the Alexander McLeod Curwen who d. Westmorland Co., NB 21FEB1922.

3287. ROSS FREEMAN CURWIN b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 3SEP1903

3288. ALBERT CURWIN Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 19SEP1906

3289. ELONIA DENA CURWIN b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 7FEB1912

329. JAMES L. CURWIN b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB ca. 1866-8, d. Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB 7JUN1916 age 48 years, m. 1st Kent Co., NB 28MAR1903 BESSIE (BETSEY) CLARK (b. Kouchibouguac, NB ca. 1885, d. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 2JUN1907 age 22 years); m. 2nd Kent Co., NB 8APR1913 MARIE (MARY) ROSE GUIMOND.

A James Curwin m, 1st Betsey Clark; m. 2nd Mary Rose Guimond. James E. Curwin b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 31JUL1904, was the s/o James Curwin. A s/o James and Bessie (Clark) Curwin was Thomas Clark Curwin b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 2JAN1907.

Although he d. in Moncton, he was a resident of Saint-Louis-de-Kent, Kent Co., NB.
children:

3291. ROY JEFFERSON CURWIN b. Kouchibouguac, Kent Co., NB 29MAY1902
 3292. JAMES CURWIN b. 1904, d. 1974, bur. St. Louis de Gonzague Cem., Kent Co., NB.
 James and his brother, John Clark Curwin, are buried together.
 3293. THOMAS CLARK CURWIN b. Richibucto, Kent Co., NB 2JAN1907
 3294. JOHN CLARK CURWIN b. 1908, d. 1966, bur. St. Louis de Gonzague Cem., Kent Co., NB
 3295. MARCEL CURWIN b. Saint-Louis-de-Kent, Kent Co., NB ca. 1916, d. Saint-Louis-de-Kent, Kent Co., NB 5DEC1918 age 2 years.
 Assumed to be a son because of the locations of his birth and death.
33. WILLIAM ANDERSON b. ca. 1826.
 A William Anderson b. ca. 1826 was in the Customs Department in Chatham Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in the 1881 census with a wife and family. His wife was Agnes C. (b. ca. 1838), and children were: Catherine J. (23), Mary C. (21), Robert (19), Agnes R. (13) and Katie E. (3.) All were b. NB, and all were Presbyterian.
 William Anderson of Chatham was still living in 1895 when he attended the funeral of his sister, Margaret (Anderson) Curwin.
34. GREGOR ANDERSON b. ca. JAN1831, d. Little Branch, Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 1FEB1852 age 21 years and 1 month
 35. JOHN ANDERSON b. ca. 1833
 36. JAMES ANDERSON b. ca. 1835
 37. MARY ANDERSON b. ca. 1838.

Apparently the Mary Anderson b. NB ca. 1838, single, living in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1881 with 'Eliphlet' (b. ca. 1850) and 'Jennet' (b. ca. 1847) Allan and their daughter, Christie Ann Allan (b. DEC1880) Eliphalet and his daughter are English, and Jennet and Mary are Scottish; otherwise all are b. NB and Presbyterian. Birth records give 'Jennet' as Janet McDonald. Her husband is given as Eliphlet Pennan Allen. They lived at Little Branch on the Black River; apparently near where Mary's parents once lived.

In the 1901 census, Eliphalet (11APR1850) and Janet R. (18JAN1848) Allan live in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB. Mary Anderson (8JAN1838) is an 'Aunt'.

If Janet R. McDonald b. ca. 1848 lived in Glenelg Parish in 1881 and 1901; one might expect to find her amongst the many McDonald's in 1851. In spite of the fact that the forename, Janet, and its variations was extravagantly, even annoyingly, popular amongst the Scots; there appear to be only two, immediate candidates. The first is in the household:

McDonald Donald	M Head	32	Scotch Farmer (prop)	Birth
McDonald Grace F Wife		26	Scotch	Birth
McDonald Jannet	F Daughter	4	Scotch	Birth
McDonald Catharine	F Daughter	2	Scotch	Birth
McDonald Barbara	F Daughter	1m	Scotch	Birth

The second Janet McDonald, however, is far more intriguing and is found in three, contiguous households very near the Anderson's, as:

McDonald Grace F Wid		70	Scotch	Sept 1803
McDonald Anabela	F Daughter	44	Scotch	Birth
McDonald Hugh	M Son	42	Scotch Farmer (prop)	Birth
McDonald Margaret	F Daughter	35	Scotch	Birth
McDonald Mary	F Daughter	30	Scotch	Birth
McDonald John	M Head	34	Scotch	Birth
McDonald Elspet F Wife		29	Scotch	Birth
McDonald James	M Son	9	Scotch	Birth
McDonald Alexander	M Son	6	Scotch	Birth
McDonald Jannet	F Daughter	4	Scotch	Birth
McDonald Grace F Daughter		2	Scotch	Birth
McDonald Kenneth	M Son	8 m	Scotch	Birth

McDonald David	M Head	47	Scotch Farmer (prop)	Birth
McDonald Margaret	F Wife		42 Scotch		July 1826
McDonald Christina	F Daughter		19 Scotch		Birth
McDonald Agnes	F Daughter	17	Scotch	Birth
McDonald Margaret	F Daughter		16 Scotch		Birth
McDonald Robert	M Son		14 Scotch		Birth
McDonald Mary	F Daughter		13 Scotch		Birth
McDonald Jannet	F Daughter		11 Scotch		Birth
McDonald John	M Son		10 Scotch		Birth
McDonald Sarah	F Daughter	8	Scotch	Birth

With Grace McDonald the apparent matriarch of the family, and Janet (b. ca. 1847), d/o John and Elspeth McDonald being possibly Eliphalet Allan's future wife.

So far, in this composition, the eldest child of John (b. 1791) and Catherine (b. ca. 1802) (McKinnon) Anderson is Margaret (b. ca. 1823-5.) If Mary Anderson (b. ca. 1838) is their daughter, then one might surmise that Elspeth McDonald (b. ca. 1822) was also a daughter. Not only does this appear to be feasible, but there is some reason to wonder why John and Catherine did not have one or two older children.

In 1881, in Glenelg Parish, Annabella McDonald (b. ca. 1806) lives with John (ca. 1817) and 'Elspsz' (ca. 1823) McDonald. Therefore Grace McDonald is likely John's mother. Elspeth R. McDonald b. 17AUG1821, in Glenelg Parish in 1901, lives with her son, James J. McDonald (20JUN1842.)

Annabella seems to be Christina Anabella MacDonald (d/o Alexander and Grace (MacLean) MacDonald b. 25SEP1803; but she is said to have m. Donald Fraser and settled at Bay du Vin.

"The Family Herald", Vol. 1, Issue 24, FEB2004, is an on-line periodical which seems to focus on the families of Black River, Glenelg Parish. It appears to be produced by 'barrymack' (Barry MacKenzie?) The particular issue has a will of Alexander K. McKenzie of Little Branch made 3MAY1920. Amongst the bequests is one of $100 to Elspeth Allen, d/o the late Elisphalet Allen. A footnote states:

"Elspeth Allen was the daughter of Elisphalet Allen and Janet Roberts McDonald, Alexander's first cousin. Janet's father was John McDonald, brother of Isabella McDonald, Alexander's mother."

The New Brunswick Genealogical Society web site, "First Families", includes, at:

the following:

MCDONALD: Alexander McDonald b. 1775 at Assynt, Scotland, died 1843: came from Assynt to Cape Breton in 1803: married Grace MacAskill b. 1781, d. 1874: came to NB: settled at Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland County:

thus John's wife, Elspeth, is Elspeth R. Jardine, not Anderson. Also, there is no indication that Mary Anderson was an aunt of Janet Roberts McDonald, d/o John and Elspeth R. (Jardine) McDonald; yet it is Janet Roberts McDonald who m. Eliphalet Allen. It would appear that Mary Anderson might be the aunt of Eliphalet Allen.

Another Eliphalet Allen is he b. Baie Verte, Westmorland Co., NB ca. 1787, d. Cape Tormentine, Westmorland Co., NB 22JUN1877, m. Hannah Raworth. He was the s/o Benjamin and Sarah (Somers) Allen. Eliphalet Allen is said to have had a son, also Eliphalet Allen, of whom no more is given.

I find that care is necessary here as, if Mary Anderson b. ca. 1838, living with the Allen's in 1881, is the daughter of John and Catherine (McKinnon) Anderson, then she is my cousin of some degree through my paternal grandmother. Eliphalet Allen is most likely a similar cousin by a somewhat similar route through my paternal grandfather. My grandfather is descended from a Strang whose sister married a Silliker amongst whose descendants are the Allen's. This is reflected in such names in NB as Strang Allen, or in PEI as Ephraim Allen Strang. In fact, "A History and Story of Botsford", by W. M. Burns, The Tribune Printing Co., Sackville, NB, 1933, reprinted 1962 relates that families from Bedeque, PEI were involved in settling Botsford Parish, Westmorland Co., NB. My Murray family, the Murray's of Tabusintac, Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB, are descended from John Murray of Bedeque; as are their kin, the Andersons and Loggie's. Through the Price's, the connection is even more complex. This might lead to speculation that John Anderson, for example, was connected to James Anderson who m. Mary Murray, d/o John Murray of Bedeque and sister of John Murray of Tabusintac. There is, however, no indication of such a relationship.

It is Burns who notes:

"Eliphalet Allen married a Miss Raworth and settled on what is known as Liff's Island where his descendants lived until 1932. His family consisted of Cyrus, Benjamin, Eliphalet, John, George, Thomas, William, Joshua, Penman and Mary who married Alexander McKay, another of the early settlers of Cape Tormentine."

While Burns notes the sons of some of these sons, Eliphalet, Jr. receives no further mention, and either he died or moved elsewhere. It requires no great stretch to imagine that he is the same in Glenelg Parish in 1881. As well as the Allen's, Burns mentions an Anderson family, from Bedeque, PEI.

"A name well and favorably known in Shemogue is that of Anderson. Lt. Col. S. B. Anderson who served with distinction in the Great War is a native of Shemogue. Col. Anderson is the Secretary Treasurer and City Clerk of Moncton. The first to bear the name was William Anderson who came to Shemogue in 1809 from Bedeque, P.E.I. His family consisted of two sons Stephen and James who both settled on the western side of the Little Shemogue harbor, and six daughters, viz: Maria (Mrs. John Peacock), Jane (Mrs. George Spence), Hannah (Mrs. James Spence), Charlotte (Mrs. James Amos), Frances (Mrs. William Blacklock), and Eliza (Mrs. George Amos). The brothers of William Anderson who also came from Bedeque, P.E.I. and settled at Shemogue were John Anderson, Joseph Anderson, David Anderson, Robert Anderson and Alexander Anderson. Robert Anderson of Anderson Settlement was a son of Joseph Anderson while Joseph Anderson Jr., David Anderson and John Anderson Jr. were sons of John Anderson Sr."

If Mary Anderson were the aunt of Eliphalet Allen, Jr. and if Eliphalet Allen, Jr. were the s/o Eliphalet Allen who m. Hannah Raworth, then her surname should be Allen or Raworth. Also, I cannot find that any of Eliphalet Allen, Sr.'s siblings married an Anderson. That there were connections between the Allen's and Anderson's is evidenced by Andrew Somers Allen (s/o David (brother of Eliphalet Allen) and Sarah Eunice (Polley) Allen) b. 20MAR1815, m. Botsford Parish 27AUG1839 Charlotte Eleanor Isabel Anderson (b. ca. 1820), d/o John and Hannah (Trenholm) Allen.

There is, however, another possible origin for Eliphalet Allen. Elsewhere in the work is mention of the Haines family of York Co., NB. Indeed, for me, the connection is significant as it is through the Haines' that I am connected to the McKinnon's. In York Co., Nathaniel Allen (s/o Peter and Dorcas (Gallop) Allen) m. Lydia Haines, d/o Robert and Amy (Gallop?) Haines. A son was Albion Haines who m. Sarah Amelia Albright. The son of this last couple was Eliphalet Allen b. ca. 1885. I have no reason to believe the York Co. Allen's were connected to the Westmorland Co. Allen's (although they may be in colonial times); and it seems unlikely that there was any immediate connection in the 1800's. Also, I do not see a connection to any Anderson's. In spite of this possibility, I feel that Eliphalet Allen b. ca. 1850 is most likely the 'daughter' in the 1851 census of Botsford Parish, Westmorland Co., NB:

Allan Benjamine	M Head	35 American miller	birth
Allan Jane	F Wife	29 American	birth
Allan Catherine	F Daughter	2 American	birth
Allan Elipholet	F Daughter	6 American	birth

with "-6" likely meaning he was 6 months of age. Benjamin Allen would most likely be the s/o Eliphalet Allen, Sr. and his wife was Jane Dobson. Their son is given as Eliphalet P. Allen b. 1850, d. 1904. His full name, I would judge from the circumstances, would be Eliphalet Penman Allen and this seems to be the same in Glenelg Parish in 1881. That Eliphalet Allen, Sr. had grandsons of the same name is evidenced by the same census:

Allan Elipholet	M Head	63 American farmer	birth
Allan Hannah	F Wife	60 English	June1800
Allan Lolitia	F Daughter	24 American	birth
Allan Hannah	F Daughter	20 American	birth
Allan William	M Son	16 American	birth
Allan Penman	M Son	14 American	birth
Allan Sarah	F Granddaughter	10 American	birth
Allan Elipholet	M Grandson	8 American	birth

with the forename, Penman, indicative of a connection to Bedeque, PEI. Not far off was the family:

Anderson Joseph	M Head	52 Scotch farmer	Oct1816
Anderson Margaret	F Wife	45 Scotch	birth
Anderson Elizabeth	F Daughter	18 Scotch	birth
Anderson Mary	F Daughter	15 Scotch	birth
Anderson Sarah	F Daughter	13 Scotch	birth
Anderson John	M Son	11 Scotch	birth
Anderson Robert	M Daughter	9 Scotch	birth
Anderson George	M Son	7 Scotch	birth
Anderson Joseph	M Son	5 Scotch	birth
Anderson Jamis	M Son	1 Scotch	birth

which gives at least one Mary Anderson b. ca. 1836. Another family, further off, was:

Anderson Alexander	M Head	38 Scotch French
Anderson Mary	F Wife	34 English	Jun 1817
Anderson Mary	F Daughter	10 English
Anderson Emilia	F Daughter	8 English
Anderson Cynthia	F Daughter	6 English
Anderson Celia	F Daughter	4 English
Anderson Rebecca	F Daughter	9 English
Anderson John	M Son	2 English

although with the family being, apparently, Acadian I would question the spelling of the surname.

The parents of the couple in Glenelg Parish in 1881, Eliphalet Penman and Janet Roberts (McDonald) Allen, would appear to have been Benjamin and Jane (Dobson) Allen and John and Elspeth R. (Jardine) McDonald. This would indicate that Mary Anderson, if that is her maiden name (which seems to be the case) could not be an aunt to either Eliphalet nor to Janet. However, Eliphalet's father, Benjamin, may have married twice, as his wife is also given as Jane Anderson. Specifically, Eliphalet's parents are also given as Benjamin S. Powers Allen and Jane M. Anderson (b. ca. 1822.) That Benjamin's wife was Jane Anderson apparently comes from a family Bible of Job Trenholm (1814-1867), and the 1901 census makes her Jane M. The family Bible also has her b. Little Branch (Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB.)

Earlier, in this search, I speculated that John and Catherine (McKinnon) Anderson may have had children not noted in the 1851 census as they were already married. In particular, I surmised that Elspeth McDonald (b. ca. 1822) might be such a daughter. As it evolved, this was not the case. Returning to the same premise, it would appear that James M. (Anderson) Allen b. ca. 1822 could (and most likely is), such a daughter. One might speculate that the 'M.' for her middle name indicates either Jane McKinnon or Jane Martin. One might be rash.

The question rises as to whether the Anderson's in Westmorland Co. are connected in any way to John Anderson. The possibility exists and Burns wrote:

“The brothers of William Anderson who also came from Bedeque, P.E.I. and settled at Shemogue were John Anderson, Joseph Anderson, David Anderson, Robert Anderson and Alexander Anderson. Robert Anderson of Anderson Settlement was a son of Joseph Anderson while Joseph Anderson Jr., David Anderson and John Anderson Jr. were sons of John Anderson Sr.”

Note, again, the connection to Bedeque and recall that families in that place had relatives on the Miramichi near, if not in, Glenelg Parish. William Anderson arrived in 1809; perhaps his brothers arrived later. The John Anderson who m. Catherine McKinnon, however, is given as b. in Scotland; and there is no reason to dispute that. Possibly a relative of the Anderson's in Bedeque, PEI, Westmorland Co., NB and Northumberland Co., NB; but not a close one. We can also see why Eliphalet and Janet Allen reside in Little Branch, Black River, Glenelg Parish. If, as it seems, John and Catherine Anderson went to Richibucto, they left the homestead to their daughter, Mary, and to her nephew, Eliphalet.

Apparently Eliphalet and Janet are buried with his family in Port Elgin Fernwood Cem., Port Elgin, Westmorland Co., NB as:

Eliphalet P. Allen 1850 - 1904,
h/w Janet R. MacDonald 1846 - 1927
William B. Allen 1890 - 1927

at:

<http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~nbwestmo/cem-portelgin-fern.htm>

“Port Elgin Fernwood Cemetery, (Port Elgin, Westmorland Parish, N.B.)”, recorded by Mrs. Marion Frye, contributed by Cleadie Barnett, CG(C). It is possible that, prior to 1904 but after the 1901 census, Eliphalet and Janet went to Westmorland Co., as their daughter, Janet Katherine May Allen (b. ca. 1883) was m. Cumberland Co., NS 17AUG1904 to Whitney John Trenholm, of the Botsford Parish family.

The only rational conclusion I can come to that might make Mary Anderson the aunt of Eliphalet Penman Allen is if her sister m. his father, therefore Jane M. Anderson is also a d/o John and Catherine (McKinnon) Anderson.

- 39. HUGH ANDERSON b. ca. 1841
- 39. CHRISTINA ANDERSON b. ca. 1848
- 4. JEAN (JANE) MCKINNON b. Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB NOV1804 (21JUL1804, ca. 1808-10), d. Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 8MAY1910, m. 18AUG1830 FARQUHAR MCGRAW (b. ca. 1799-1803, d. Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 7JUN1894 (1884?) age 92 years), s/o Neil and Mary (Edwards) McGraw.

Farquhar is often given as b. 1792, d. 1884. This is because someone misread the year of his death as 1884 and, subtracting 92 years, made his birth as 1792. The 1851 census gives him as b. ca. 1799, the 1881 census as b. ca. 1803, and his death notice, in 1894, gives him as b. ca. 1802.

There are several McGraw, McRae, McRaw, etc. families in Northumberland Co., NB. They seem to have known each other, and to have shared some relatively unusual forenames, but the exact extent of their relationship is a matter of debate. Most, if not all, of these were founded by soldiers of Scottish Regiments who stayed on in 1783. In a separate work, some notes on Farquhar's family are:

NEIL McGRAW (McCraw, NcRaw, McRae, McCrae), 42nd Royal Highland (Black Watch) Regiment, settled at Pointe Aux Carr, possibly brother of Duncan McRae, b. Argyleshire, Scotland ca. 1755, d. Black River (Loggieville), Northumberland Co., NB MAY1834, m. Newcastle, Northumberland Co., NB 30JUN1796 MARY EDWARDS (b. Essex Co., England ca. 1775-6, d. 1861, m. 1st the Rev. James Fraser, m. 3rd Ernest Dickson), d/o Col. Reuben Edwards.

Information and comments from John Garner (e-mail, 2SEP2002), indicating sources:
1851 Census, Northumberland Co., NB
1871 Census, Northumberland Co., NB

Veteran of the 42nd Reg. Discharged 24 Oct 1783 in Halifax. Wounded at Moore's Bridge and received pension for life. First took land on Nashwaak but was dissatisfied and moved to Black River.

Notes for MARY EDWARDS: Mary's mother died when she was born; Col. Edwards resigned from the army and went to the East Indies as a trader. He was successful and when he returned settled a sum of money in a bank for Mary. He left her again with some people named Ray and returned to the East Indies but was never heard from again. Mary came to North America with the Rays and settled in Nashwaak. She worked for Rev. Fraser caring for his sick wife, and later married Rev. Fraser when his first wife died. Rev. Fraser made a trip to Scotland but the ship was lost with all on board. But before he left, he had made a will leaving everything to Mary. Widow Mary moved to the Miramichi when the vets got dissatisfied and came north. She marries Neil McGraw and has a bunch of kids (10) including my Great Great Grandfather Donald MacLeod's first wife Euphemia McGraw and my Great Great Great Uncle Duncan. Then when Neil dies in 1834, Mary turns around and marries Ernest Dickson, yet another relative from another direction.

Children:

1. FARQUHAR McGRAW b. ca. 1792, m. 1st? 18AUG1830 JEAN/JANE McKINNON (b. 1804, d. 1910), d/o Gregor and Jane (Pierson, Sharp) MacKinnon
2. EUPHEMIA ("EFFIE") McGRAW b. ca. 1794 m. 31MAY1829 DONALD MacLEOD (b. Bay du Vin, NB ca. 1803, d. Bay du Vin, NB 8MAY1884; m. 2nd 14FEB1846 ELEANOR MILLER MURRAY), s/o John and Jane (MacAlpine) MacLeod
3. ALEXANDER McGRAW b. ca. 1796
4. DANIEL McGRAW b. ca. 1800
5. DUNCAN McGRAW b. ca. 1803, m. JAN1832 ISOBELLA MacDOUGALL
6. MARGARET McGRAW b. ca. 1808, d. Sarnia, ONT ca. 1875, m. 9FEB1828 THOMAS P. (PHILIP?) JONES (b. Monmouthshire, South Wales, ca. 1796.)

Thomas served aboard his father's ship for a number of years. His father was Captain Jones of the British Royal Navy.

They may have gone to Bayfield, ONT as their son-in-law, Thomas Burgess is given as being from there. Eventually, they settled in Sarnia, ONT.

7. JANET ("JENNIE") McGRAW b. ca. 1809, m. 3JAN1831 WILLIAM GIBSON
8. SUSANNA McGRAW b. ca. 1813, m. JOHN MURRAY (Of Glenelg Parish Murrays? Brother of Thomas Murray m. Margaret Miller, originally of Perthshire, Scotland.)
9. EMMA (AMY) McGRAW b. ca. 1816, m. Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 24OCT1837 WILLIAM PATTERSON
- J. GEORGE McGRAW n. ca. 1817, unkm.

That Neil McGraw fought at Moore's Bridge means that he was likely engaged in the same, disastrous action that Gregor McKinnon's semi-militia unit was involved in. It was likely this event that brought several Scottish groups into contact leading to settlement on the Miramichi.

A Margaret McRae, youngest d/o the late Farquhar McRae, Esq., d. Bay du Vin, Northumberland Co., NB 3NOV1861 age 41 years. At first, this might seem to be Margaret, here; who is the youngest daughter (so far.) However, Farquhar (here) was not yet 'late', so it is likely a cousin?, d/o his uncle? and namesake, whose death is noted. The eldest daughter of the elder Farquhar appears to be 'Boine' McRae, who d. Chatham 1MAY1888 age 79 years. This would also seem to be the Bona McRae b. ca. 1808, d/o of the widow, 'Emelia' McRae (b. ca. 1783) living 'next door' to Hugh McKinnon in the 1851 census of Glenelg Parish. Emily also had a daughter, Margaret McRae, b. ca. 1820. That both families had a daughter, Bona, seems suggestive. Emily Cameron McRae, widow of Farquhar McRae, Esq. (suggesting he was a justice-of-the-peace), d. 2MAR1858 age 76 years.

The elder Farquhar McRae (who may or may not be related) is probably a son of another Farquhar McRae, possibly the same in the 42nd Royal Highland (Black Watch) Regiment (as was Neil McGraw), although a bit young, b. Ross-shire, Scotland ca. 1767, d. Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 1825. Sorting out Farquhar's is a tricky business.

Farquhar's mother, Mary McGraw (b. ca. 1776) is still in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1851:

McGraw Mary	F Wid	76 Scotch	Birth
McGraw Donald	M Son	55 Scotch Farmer	Birth
McGraw Alexander	M Son	52 Scotch Labourer	Birth
McLeod Jannet	F Granddaughter	22 Scotch	Birth
McLeod Euphemia	F Granddaughter	12 Scotch	Birth

with two other of her sons and two grandchildren. While she may have been Mary Edwards, and the story of her 1st marriage may be true, other elements seem questionable. A British colonel, and a person of some substance, does not leave a daughter uneducated; and Mary was illiterate. Also, the daughter of a colonel does not seem likely to marry a private soldier; and then the son of another colonel. It is clear, that, in 1851, she has not married a 3rd time, and seems at the age of 75 years unlikely to do so, colonel's son or not. There are Dickinson's in Glenelg Parish in 1851; but no Ernest and none that seem particularly martial. One of these may well be the William Dickinson who 1858 m. Flora McRae, both of Hardwicke Parish (formerly part of Glenelg Parish.)

Not far off in 1851 are Farquhar and Jane as:

McGraw Farquhar	M Head	52 Scotch Farmer (prop)	Birth
McGraw Jane	F Wife	41 Scotch	Birth
McGraw Jane	F Daughter	16 Scotch	Birth
McGraw Mary	F Daughter	16 Scotch	Birth
McGraw Alexander	M Son	22 Scotch	Birth
McGraw Reubin	M Son	19 Scotch	Birth
McGraw Neal	M Son	13 Scotch	Birth
McGraw Euphemia	F Daughter	11 Scotch	Birth
McGraw Margaret	F Daughter	9 Scotch	Birth
McGraw Gregor	M Son	6 Scotch	Birth
McGraw Farquhar	M Son	3 Scotch	Birth

"Faquer" and Jane McGraw are still in Glenelg Parish in 1881. Farguhar is age and Jane is 73. With them are Gregory (ca. 1843), William (ca. 1854) and Catharine (1860.) There is also 'Mariah' (b. ca. 1880.)

Jennifer McKenzie Quist has a website, "McKenzie of New Brunswick", with the McGraw's (2NOV2001) beginning at:

43. SARAH McGRAW b. ca. 1833, d. 29AUG1919, m. by the Rev. Wm. Stewart 27SEP1855 WILLIAM KENNEDY (b. ca. 1827, d. 1912.)

Since, when married, William was from Dundas Parish, Kent Co., NB (Sarah being from Glenelg Parish), I suspect this is William (b. ca. 18JUN1829) and Sarah (15AUG1828) Kennedy in Carleton Parish, Kent Co., NB in 1901. A daughter is Catherine (14JAN1865.) This William appears to be the same who d. East Galloway, Kent Co., NB 7JAN1904 age 77 years. Another William Kennedy d. Kent Co., NB 10AUG1912 age 82 years.

William (b. ca. 1829) and Sarah (b. ca. 1833) Kennedy were in Carleton Parish in 1881 as well. William was a labourer and the family was Scottish, b. NB and C. Presbyterian. Children were: Catherine (ca. 1858), William (ca. 1862) and James (ca. 1865.)

children:

431. JANE KENNEDY b. ca. 1856.
 432. CATHERINE KENNEDY b. ca. 1858
 433. WILLIAM KENNEDY b. ca. 1861-2
 434. JAMES JENNEDY b. ca. 1865
 435. ELLEN KENNEDY b. ca. 1868
 436. JOHN SMITH KENNEDY b. ca. 1873
44. JANE PEARSON McGRAW (twin?) b. 15FEB1835 (ca. 1835-6), m. JOSEPH THOMPSON (b. ca. 1823-5), s/o Robert and Margaret (McFarlane) Thompson.

Jane and her sister, Mary E., are both age 16 in 1851, suggesting they were twins. Mary is given as b. 17FEB1833, and in 1901, in Glenelg Parish, a widow, Jane is b. 15FEB1835. What is significant is not that the years are different (as the years in the 1901 census are out by a year more often than not), but that the dates are so close; again suggesting they were twins.

Two birth records for their daughter, given as Anne Jane Hughes Thompson b. Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 17APR1868 and Anna Jane Thompson b. Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 17APR1865 give jane as Jane Pearson McGraw and Jane Carson McGraw. To add to the confusion, the 1901 census gives Annie J. as b. 17APR1867. In 1881 she is b. ca. 1867; so the 1868 date, which also gives 'Pearson' versus 'Carson', seems most correct.

A Miss Jane McGraw, of Glenelg Parish, m. the Manse, Chatham, Northumberland Co., NB by the Rev. John McCurdy 6JUN1855 Joseph Thompson, also of Glenelg Parish. In Glenelg Parish in 1851 was the family:

Woods Margaret	F Wife	48 Scotch	Birth
Thompson Joseph	M Son	28 Scotch Farmer (prop)	Birth
Thompson George	M Son	13 Scotch	Birth
Thompson Isabela	F Daughter	13 Scotch	Birth
Thompson Daniel	M Son	6 Scotch	Birth
Thompson Robert	M Son	3 Scotch	Birth

Presumably Joseph is the same who m. Jane McGraw. Although Margaret Woods is indicated as a 'wife' her husband does not seem to be present. Presumably she married twice, and the children are by her first marriage. another reading of the census makes Mary Woods a 'widow' and not a 'wife'. Elsewhere in the parish is Robert Thompson, a widower and a teacher, b. Ireland ca. 1792, arrived OCT1841. While with Robert being Irish, and arriving in 1841, and Joseph being Scottish and b. NB ca. 1823; perhaps Robert is the father and Mary Woods a housekeeper.

The first theory is more likely, and a posting by David (dsdrane) 28FEB2007 at Ancestry.com's Northumberland Co., NB board essentially gives Robert Thompson of Glenelg Parish, m. 1822 Margaret McFarlane of Chatham Parish. In 1844, Margaret m. 2nd William Woods. Isabella Thompson was baptized as the d/o the widow, Mrs. Robt. Thompson; so Daniel and Robert, in the census, likely should be surnamed Woods.

Joseph and Jane are in Glenelg Parish in 1881, farming, with Joseph and the children Irish, with Jane Scottish and all b. NB and Presbyterian.

children:

441. ALEXANDER (ALEX) THOMPSON b. 30MAR1856 (ca. 1856), d. ca. 1905-10, m. MARY ANN McDONALD (b. 29SEP1865 (SEP1867 in 1911).)

In 1901, in Glenelg Parish, Alexander lived 'next door' to his mother.

Mary Ann may be the M. Ann Thompson who d. Northumberland Co., NB 12MAY1942. Other possibilities are Mary Thompson d. Northumberland Co., NB 20AUG1920; Mary Thompson d. Northumberland Co., NB 14FEB1939 and Mary Thompson d. Northumberland Co., NB 5JAN1944.

In 1911, Mary Ann was a widow in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB with most of her children, and Benjamin and Russell in a separate household nearby.

children:

4411. RAYMOND J. THOMPSON b. 16MAY1885 (not in 1911 census?)

4412. RUSSELL J. C. THOMPSON b. Lower Napan, Northumberland Co., NB 31DEC1886 (30DEC1886, DEC1887 in 1911.)

In the 1911 census, Russell and his brother, Benjamin, lived together in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB.

When Russell joined the CEF in WWI in Saint John 25MAY1918, he gave his birth as Lower Napan North. Co. N. B. 31DEC1886. He was single, Presbyterian and a farmer. His next-of-kin was his mother, Mrs. Alexander Thompson of Point Aux Couer (Point aux Carr?), NB.

Russell was 5 feet and 9 inches, with medium complexion, brown eyes and dark hair.

4413. BENJAMIN A. (AUBREY?) BURBRIDGE ROBERT PLUMBER THOMPSON b. Lower Napan, Northumberland Co., NB 19JAN1893 (19JAN1890 in 1901, JAN1890 in 1911.)

Benjamin's full name on his WWI attestation, when he joined the CEF 28DEC1915 in Chatham, NB, is difficult to read. It looks like Benjamin Aubrey Burbridge Robert Plumber Thompson. The 'Aubrey' is uncertain, and the 'Burbridge' might be spelled differently. He signed himself, simply, Benj. R. Thompson.

He gave his birth as Lower Napan, Northumberland Co., NB 19JAN1893, and he was a labourer with his residence in Chatham, Northumberland Co., NB. His next-of-kin was his mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Thompson, of Point aux Carr, Northumberland Co., NB.

Benjamin Thompson was 5 feet 8 inches, with a light complexion, greyish-blue eyes and brown hair; and was Presbyterian.

4414. WELLMAN (WELMAN) WILMOT THOMPSON b. Napan Bay, Northumberland Co., NB 4SEP1891 (SEP1892 in 1911), d. Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB 1971, bur, Elmwood Cem., Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB, m. 1st Restigouche Co., NB 25AUG1915 FLORENCE BERNICE (TUCKER) McAULAY (b. ca. 1877, d. Westmorland Co., NB 11MAY1917 age 35 years, m. 1st Westmorland Co., NB 28JUL1896 James William McAulay (b. ca. 1872, d. Westmorland Co., NB 20DEC1913 age 41 years)). d/o James Taylor and Eunice N. (Bleakney) Tucker; m. 2nd Highfield Baptist Church, Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB 23JAN1919 ISOBEL JANE MITTON (b. Turtle Creek or Hardscrabble, Albert Co., NB 19DEC1899, d. Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB AUG1879, bur. Elmwood Cem., Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB), d/o George Alonzo.

and Elizabeth (Lizzie) Rachel (Alward) Mitton.

Florence's children by her 1st marriage were: Jean G. McAulay (1901) and Annie Bernice McAulay (1906), both b. Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB. The surname is also McAuley, and there are records of a James William McAuley; but the spelling, 'McAulay', seems preferred.

Also, a Florence B. Thompson b. ca. 1882, d. Westmorland Co., NB 11MAY1917 age 35 years. There was a 'Florance' Tucker, b. ca. 1877, with her parents, James and Eunice Tucker, in Elgin Parish, Albert Co., NB in the 1881 census. Elgin Parish is where Florence Bernice Tucker, 1883-1917, is said to have been born. Her parents are given as James and Eunice (Bleakney) Tucker. Elsewhere, Florence is given as b. 1877, d. 1916.

Isabel J. Mitton was b. Turtle Creek (in birth record) or Hardscrabble, Albert Co., NB 19DEC1899, the d/o George Alonzo and Elizabeth (Lizzie) Rachel (Alward) Mitton.

44141. JOHN RUSSELL PERCY THOMPSON

44142. AURELIA BERNICE THOMPSON, m. DARRELL LISTON

44143. MARION EDNA THOMPSON

44144. LORENA JANE THOMPSON

4415. ROBERT M. THOMPSON b. 3MAR1895 (MAR1894 in 1911)

4416. PETER LOGGIE THOMPSON b. Lower Napan, Northumberland Co., NB 23JAN1897 (23JAN1896 in 1901, JAN1896 in 1911), d. Northumberland Co., NB 26MAY1957.

When Peter Loggie Thompson joined the CEF in WWI, in Chatham 20DEC1915, he gave his birth as in Lower Napan, Northumberland Co., NB 23JAN1897, and his next-of-kin as his mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Thompson, also of Lower Napan, Northumberland Co., NB. He was a labourer in Lower Napan, 5 feet 9½ inches, with a dark complexion, blue eyes and black hair; and was Presbyterian.

Since his brother, Benjamin, enlisted about a week later, also into the 132nd Battalion (North Shore), they probably served together at least initially.

4417. JOHN FORSYTHE THOMPSON b. Napan, Chatham Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 20JUN1898 (in 1901, 27JUN1887 on attestation form, JUN1898 in 1911), d. France 19AUG1918.

When John Forsythe Thompson joined the CEF in WWI, in Chatham 22MAR1916, he gave his birth as at 'Nappan', Parish of Chatham, Northumberland Co., NB 27JUN1887. Being only 17 years of age at the time, I can only assume he lied. There is a note next to his birth-date, which is illegible, but raises the concept that the recruiting officer had some suspicions. On the back of the form, his 'apparent' age is 21 years (ca. 1895), so I suspect he was not really fooling anyone.

His next-of-kin is Mrs. Mary Ann Thompson (with next to her name the same notation as is next to his date-of-birth), of Point aux Carr, Northumberland Co., NB. He was a lumberman, 5 feet 11 inches, with light-reddish complexion, brown eyes and red hair. He was Presbyterian, and like his brothers, was first mustered into the 132nd Battalion. He was in the 87th (Grenadier Guards of Canada) Battalion when he d. 19AUG1918 either at Amiens or in the action around Damery, and is buried in the Hillside Cem., Le Quesnel, France; given as age 31; but likely just 20. The 87th also took heavy casualties at Vimy Ridge earlier on. Grenadiers were chosen for their height. At almost 6 feet, John would have been likely to have been invited into such a corps.

4418. GEORGE N. THOMPSON b. 8OCT1900 (OCT1901 in 1911)

4419. GERALD THOMPSON b. Centre Napan, Northumberland Co., NB 29AUG1904 (AUG1904 in 1901)

442. ROBERT THOMPSON b. ca. 1858

443. MARY JANE THOMPSON b. ca. 1860

444. GEORGE NEIL McGRAW THOMPSON b. ca. FEB1863, d. Napan, Northumberland Co., NB 27JUN1868 age 5 years and 5 months.

445. MARGARET THOMPSON b. ca. 1865

446. ANNE (ANNA, ANN, ANNIE) JANE HUGHES THOMPSON b. Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 17APR1868 (17APR1865 in a 2nd birth record; 17APR1867 in 1901, ca. 1867 in 1881.)

An Annie Thompson m. Northumberland Co., NB 5SEP1906 John Thomas Donovan.

447. GEORGENIA THOMPSON b. ca. 1869.

Possibly the Georgina Thompson, formerly of the Miramichi, who m. by the Rev. E. S.

Gould, Athol, Massachusetts 21FEB1894 John R. Noble. John may have had connections to Glenelg Parish as well.

448. JOHN THOMPSON b. 13JUL1871 (ca. 1872)

449. CYNTHY THOMPSON b. ca. 1874

45. MARY E. McGRAW (twin?) b. 17FEB1833 (ca. 1835-6), d. Loggieville, Northumberland Co., NB 8NOV1909, m. 6OCT1862 GEORGE TAIT (b. Ireland MAR1824 (ca. 1826-7), m. 1st m. 24DEC1853 Maria (Mary) Hierlihy (b. Tabusintac, Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 16SEP1829, d. Loggieville, Northumberland Co., NB 16APR1858), d/o Philip and Jane (Lewis) Hierlihy.)

In the 1861 census, a "Meria" and James "Tate", nephew and niece of Philip Hierlihy, were with Philip and his mother.

At least two children by his 1st marriage were Maria Tait (b. ca. 1854) and James Tait (b. ca. 1856.)

Mary was with her uncle, Benjamin McKinnon, in the 1861 census of Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB. A Miss Mary McGraw of Glenelg Parish, m. 6OCT1862 George Tait, a joiner from Newcastle.

Most likely this was the same George Tait who m. 24DEC1853 Maria Hierlihy (16SEP1829-16APR1858.) If so, children may be William Tait (ca. 1865) and Joseph Tait (ca. 1871.)

George (65) and Mary (55) Tait were in Chatham Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1891. Then their children were Wilson (18) and Joseph (14.)

In Chatham Parish in 1901 Mary E. Taite (17FEB1833) is a widow.

The only Tait's in Northumberland Co., NB in the 1851 census were James (b. Scotland ca. 1792-5) and Ann Jane (Paige) (b. ca. Scotland 1806-7) Tait. (elsewhere, they are given as b. Ireland.) Their eldest child was Moses (ca. 1842.) They are all given as arrived in Nb in 1831 (although this seems impossible for the children) and presumably were married in Scotland; so likely had older children. None are apparent. James is a weaver.

A possible son is William McKinnon Tait b. 11APR1865, d. 1956, bur. Pine Grove Cemetery, Loggieville (Miramichi), Northumberland Co., NB, m. the Manse, Chatham, Northumberland Co., NB by the Rev. E. Wallace Waits, BA 6OCT1887 Janet (Jennie) Scott (b. 2DEC1863 (1884 on headstone?), d. 1919, bur. Pine Grove Cemetery, Loggieville (Miramichi), Northumberland Co., NB.) A son, noted on their headstone, was Clarence M. Tait (b. 1894, d. France JUL1918. They appear to be buried next to Bessie Winona (Tait) Hierlihy. William McKinnon Tait appears to be the same William 'Lait' b. ca. 1865 in the 1881 census of Chatham Parish. His parents are George (b. Ireland ca. 1827, but Scottish) and Mary (b. NB ca. 1835, also Scottish) 'Lait'. They were Methodist and George was a labourer. Other children were George W. (ca. 1873) and Joseph E. (ca. 1877.)

Children:

451. WILLIAM McKINNON TAIT b. 11APR1865 (APR1867 in 1911), d. 1956, bur. William (ca. 1865) and Janet (ca. 1865) were in Chatham Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1891. A daughter with an illegible name ('Uretel?) was age 2 years. They were in Chatham Parish in 1901. The daughter is given as 'Myrtie'. They were in Addington Parish, Restigouche Co., NB in 1911 as 'Taite'.

Calais, France.

Clarence was a machinist when he joined the CEF in WWI. Interestingly, he was at least first in the 236th Battalion, the New Brunswick Kilties or Sir Sam's (Sir Sam Hughes) Own; also the MacLean Highlanders. This was later absorbed into 20th Battalion in MAR1918; probably into the Black Watch which was part of the 20th Reserve Battalion at the time. When he died, Clarence was in the 72nd Battalion (British Columbia Regiment) as was Andrew Ernest Tait. There is a War Memorial Plaque for Private Clarence Melvin Tait placed by Tait Family in the Knox United Church, Loggieville, (Miramichi) Northumberland County, New Brunswick, Canada. It states that he died while on outpost duty.

It would seem, however, that it was more likely a brother of Mildred Tait who married her husband's sister.

46. NEIL McGRAW b. ca. 1835-9 (ca. 1836 in 1881, ca. 1835 in 1891), m. Charlotte Co., NB 1867 EUPHEMIA ANN MacLEOD (b. ca. 1838-9, d. Milltown, Charlotte Co., NB OCT1895), d/o Donald and Euphemia (McGraw) MacLeod.

Neil may be confused with Neil McGraw, s/o Duncan and Isobella (MacDougall) McGraw. A Neil McGraw b. ca. 1839 is in St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB in 1871; b. NB, Presbyterian, Scottish and a labourer. His wife, 'Euphremie' by her forename may have been a cousin. Indeed, it is generally given that she is his first cousin.

Euphemia is also given as 'Ellen' or 'Helen', but it would appear to me that there is little reason to assume Euphemia and Ellen are versions of the same name. Also, in Charlotte Co., was a Reuben McGraw in Milltown, Charlotte Co., NB (which how I ended up here) who may be Reuben [12], also a s/o Farquhar McGraw. At this point, I cannot determine with certainty whether one Neil m. Ellen and another m. Euphemia and the two have been confused. I feel that I must assume that Neil and Reuben, living in the same place at the same time, are brothers. Naturally this conclusion is more intuitive than logical.

Euphemia/Ellen is given as b. Northumberland Co., NB 23AUG1840, d. 17JUL1910. Mrs. 'Neal' McGraw's funeral took place in Milltown, Charlotte Co., NB the Sunday prior to 25OCT1894. She was a member of the Congregational Church, and the funeral was officiated by the Rev. Williams. Again, Euphemia and Ellen appear to be separate persons.

In 1851, Ellen (age 12) lived with her grandmother, Mary. She also live with Donald and Eleanor (Murray) MacLeod, and was called a 'student of divinity'.

In 1871, Neil and Euphemia's son was Edgar McGraw b. ca. 1867.

The only child of Neil and Effie Ann McGraw, Alexander Herbert McGraw, d. St. Stephen, Charlotte Co., NB 13MAR1873 age 1 years and 3 months. This suggests that Edgar, in 1871, d. before 1873. Presumably he was Edward , s/o Neil and Effie McGraw, d. Milltown 12NOV1872 age 14 months.

A Jennie P. McGraw d. Milltown, 1OCT1894 age 41 years and 5 months (b. ca. MAY1853.)

Neal (45) and Effie (43) McGraw are still in the town of Milltown, Charlotte Co., NB in 1881. Children are Ellen (3) and Mary E. (9 months.) Neil is Presbyterian, English (the horror!) and a teamster. There is no date on the census pages, but I suspect that Mary E. is the daughter given as Emma b. ca. 1882.

That these are the correct couple, at least, is evidenced by a marriage bond issued in Charlotte Co., NB to Neil McGraw and Euphemia McLeod, both resident in that county. The co-signer was Edward Conley.

Neil (56) and Effie A. (N.?) (52) McGraw are in the Town of Milltown 21APR1891 for the 1891 census. Withthem are daughters Ella May (13) and Mary Emma (11.) children:

461. EDGAR (EDWARD) McGRAW b. ca. JUL1870 (ca. 1867?), d. Milltown 12NOV1872 age 14 months

464. MARY EMMA McGRAW b. Northumberland Co., NB (?) ca. SEP1880 (ca. 1882), m. WILLIAM R. PERRY.

In the 1920 census, was in Carleton, Spokane Co., WA. Worked for a minister in Saint John. Lived in Rosalia, near Spokane, WA; Lot 25, Section 2.

47. EUPHEMIA McGRAW b. ca. 1840, d. 3APR1911, m. JAMES WILLIAM SMITH (b. ca. 1845.)

A Euphemia McGraw was b. ca. AUG1836, and d. Little Branch, Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 13MAR1846 age 9 years and 7 months. Since this Euphemia is still living in 1851, she cannot be the same.

by the Rev. F. Home 19JUL1866 JAMES C. McDONALD.

Although there were many McDonald's living very nearby, James was, when married, from Richibucto, Kent Co., NB. He may, however, have been related to the McDonald's of Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB. Nevertheless, in Glenelg Paris in 1851 were:

James McDonald b. ca. 1792, with a wife, Catharine (b. ca. 1814)
 James McDonald b. Ireland ca. 1801, arrived 1831, with a wife, Judith (b. ca. 1811)
 James McDonald b. ca. 1834, s/o Alexander and Janet McDonald
 James McDonald b. ca. 1836, s/o Roderick and Sarah McDonald
 James McDonald b. ca. 1839, s/o Alexander and Margaret McDonald
 James McDonald b. ca. 1842, s/o John and Elspeth McDonald
 James McDonald b. ca. 1850, s/o Ronald and Catherine McDonald

Perhaps more interesting was two families listed next to each other in 1891 in Richibucto:

149 McDonald James	? 57 -	NB Ire PEI RC ? -
" John	? 24 -	NB NB NB RC Gen Lab -
" Mary	? 21 -	- " " " " -
" Ellen	? 19 -	- " " " " -
" Ronald S ? 15 -	- " " " " -

M Graw Margaret	? 50 -	NB Scot Scot Pres - -
Carruthers Robert	? 69 B-in-law	NB Scot Scot " " -

I suspect that James McDonald is Margaret's husband and Hugh M'Graw is Margaret's brother. There was, however, no Hugh in 1851. Margaret, Hugh's wife, could be a Carruthers with Robert Carruthers her brother.

5. MARGARET MCKINNON b. Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 15SEP1806 (ca. 1808), d. 11FEB1871, m. 30JUN1831 ROBERT FORSYTH (b. 7SEP1804 (ca. 1805), d. Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 13MAR1884 age 80 years), s/o Robert and Jane (Martin) Forsyth.

They are said to have settled in Whitney and to have had 8 children. In the 1851 census of Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB Robert and Margaret are found in what appears to be Whitney. At least members of the Whitney family lived nearby. 'Next door' is apparently the family of Robert's brother, James Forsyth (b. ca. 1809.) Both James and Robert are 'British American' and James is 'Loyalist Decendent'. Their family is:

Forsyth Robert	M Head	47 British American Farmer (Tenant)	Birth
Forsyth Margaret	F Wife	43 British American	Birth
Forsyth John M Son		19 British American	Birth
Forsyth Gregory (?)	M Son	17 British American	Birth

Robert may have worked with a John Forsyth (brother?, son?) logging on the Little Southwest

Miramichi, as notice transcribed from the, "Newcastle Advocate", in a Saint John paper dated 18MAY1876 read:

"On Saturday morn., Wm Robertson who belongs down river, and an Indian, belonging to Eel Ground, went to work on the landing of Robert Forsyth and John Forsyth, Little South West. While at work the men were injured by being jammed between the logs and the landing. Robertson had both his thighs broken. The Indian was fatally injured about the chest and died in about 12 hours after the accident."

Since Robert's brother, John, d. 1827, the Robert and John mentioned could be Robert and Margaret's sons.

A Robert Forsyth of Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB d. about 1820, and executors of his estate were named 2JUL1820 as John Goodfellow, John McTavish and John Simpson. It is possible that Robert and Margaret went to what was Northesk Parish (Southesk was set off in 1879), and took up property originally belonging to his father. It would appear that Robert, Jr. was the Robert Forsythe granted 50 acres in Northesk Parish 14AUG1848, and that this would be insufficient land upon which to raise a family. Again, this may have been a younger Robert, as Robert Forsyth petitioned for land in 1848 as did John Forsyth separately; and as seem a John and Robert seem to have been in partnership.

If Robert was engaged with a brother, it would appear to be James Batey Forsyth, who m. Margaret Russell, and live near his in-laws in Northesk Parish in 1851.

Robert (age 56) and Margaret (53) are, in fact, in Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in the 1861 census. He was a farmer, lumberer and lumber surveyor. All were b. NB and Presbyterian. Children were: John (29), Gregory (27), Ann (23), William (18) and Benjamin (16.)

In Northesk Parish, in 1881, Robert Forsythe is a widower, age 76 years, living with his son, John, and John's family. John's family is given as Irish, all b. NB and Presbyterian. John was a farmer children:

51. JOHN FORSYTH b. ca. 1831-2, m. 1st Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB by the Rev. Wm. Henderson 26JUL1855 JANET RUSSELL (b. Scotland ca. 1832), d/o John and Margaret (Hutchinson) Russell; m. 2nd Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB by the Rev. Wm. Henderson 1AUG1866 AMANDA McKENDRICK (b. 22MAY1842 (ca. 1838-41)), d/o Neil and Arabella McKendrick.

Janet Russell is most likely to have been the sister of the wife of John's uncle, James, therefore a d/o John and Margaret (Hutchinson) Russell of Northesk Parish in 1851. Janet (b. ca. 1833) is given as being the last of their children b. Scotland before they arrived in 1832. A contradiction, I know; but at age 18 it is possible she was b. late 1832, and that they arrived soon after her birth. As well as accepting these basic concepts, I also assume that Janet was b. Scotland ca. 1832.

Neil and Arabella McKendrick also are in Northesk Parish in 1851; and were b. in NB. Amanda, b. ca. 1838, is amongst their children.

Amanda is a widow in Northesk Parish in 1901, living with her brother, "Jas McKendrick". Very nearby is the family of Peter Forsyth (20SEP1863.) His mother is Margaret (22AUG1821) and a sister is Isabella (10MAY1857.) This would make Peter to be Peter A. Forsythe b. ca. 1860, s/o James Batey and Margaret (Russell) Forsyth; John's 1st cousin.

In Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1901. "Next door" was 'Esabella' Matchett b. 11JUL1838 (11JUL1837 elsewhere), likely Annie's mother. Isabella Matchett was a widow in 1881 as well, and amongst her children was Annie b. ca. 1879.
children:
5251. EDWARD WILLISTON DUNNETT FORSYTH b. Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 30DEC1898 (30DEC1899 in 1901)
526. BENJAMIN FORSYTH b. ca. 1878
527. ROBERT FORSYTHE b. MAY1880
53. MARY ANN FORSYTH b. ca. 1835
54. ANN (ANNIE) FORSYTH b. ca. 1837-8, m. at the residence of her uncle, Benjamin McKinnon [6], by the Rev. F. R. McDonald 16OCT1872 ANTHONY ROGERS (b. ca. 1835-6, d. APR1883), s/o Anthony and Hannah Rogers.

When married, both were of Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB; and it appears that her uncle, Benjamin McKinnon (whose 2nd wife was Sarah A. Rogers) lived there as well.

In 1861, Anthony is with his parents, Anthony (b. ca. 1796) and Hannah (b. ca. 1800) in Northesk Parish. He had a sister, Susan (b. ca. 1844), who is mentioned below. Also, boarding with them is a Justus Woodworth (b. ca. 1841), who may be related (s/o John and Abigail (Adams) Woodworth); but I suspect that the forename, Justus, may be of greater antiquity within the family. Or derived from a neighbour, Justus Adams (Abigail (Adams) Woodworth's brother), who seems to have had a son, Anthony Rogers Adams.

It is clear that the Anthony b. ca. 1836 in 1861 is not the other Anthony Rogers (b. 12MAR1846-9) of Manistee, MI; s/o Anthony and Mary (Sweet) Rogers. It is also clear that their father's, both Anthony's, are not brothers; but very likely 1st cousins.

Hannah, wife of Anthony Rogers, Sr., d. in Northesk Parish 16JAN1887 age 87 years. Anthony, Sr. would appear to have been the s/o Edward and Jane (Whitney) Rogers; with Edward the son of the Loyalist, Anthony Rogers. Anthony, Sr. d. Northesk Parish 1AUG1881 age 86 years. There is no indication of Hannah's maiden name, but if Justus Woodworth, in 1861, for example, might be a nephew; it is possible it was 'Adams'. There seems, however, no indication that Daniel and Sarah B. (Ives) Adams (parents of Justus and Abigail Adams) had a daughter, Hannah.

In 1880, Anthony and Annie are in Oscoda, Iosco Co., Michigan. Both are b. Canada, with parents b. Canada. Anthony is a labourer, and the two children are b. Michigan.

Also with them are George McKinnon (b. ca. 1858) and John McKinnon (b. ca. 1859.) Both are b. Canada, as are their parents, and they would appear to be brothers and Annie's cousins. The connection, however, is not clear. One suspicion is that they may be sons of Benjamin McKinnon, her uncle, by his 1st marriage. A John McKinnon, b. Canada, appears to have d. East Tawas, Iosco Co., MI between 1897 and 1916. A John McKinnon was naturalized as a US citizen in 1891, so he seem to have lived until then.

Also of Oscoda, originally of Newcastle, was William G. McKinnon, who m. New Bandon, Gloucester Co., NB by the Rev. James Quinn 14NOV1884 Lucy J. Hornibrook (b. New Bandon, Gloucester Co., NB 6JAN1860), d/o William and Elizabeth Hornibrook. The only William McKinnon I can find in the 1881 census who might fit is the s/o the widow, Mary McKinnon (b. NS ca. 1815.) Also in the household was a John McKinnon (b. ca. 1859, who may well be John in Michigan in 1880. Also, there was a Maggie McKinnon b. ca. 1861. It should be noted that the Hornibrook's, aside from their Gloucester Co., origins, had several ties to families in Tabusintac, Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB.

Sometime between 1884 and 1889, either Annie (Anna) or Anthony appear to have died as an index to probate records for Iosco Co. suggests. It seems that Justus is mentioned in these as well.

Phineas Williston, age 54, formerly of the Miramichi, d. in the residence of Anthony Rogers, in Manistee, Michigan 24AUG1869. This was likely Anthony's uncle as well as namesake, as the elder Anthony (s/o Anthony), was b. ca. 1812, and d. Browntown, Manistee Co., MI 1MAR1888 age 76. He had gone to Milwaukee in 1849, with his wife, Mary Sweet; and after 4 years to Michigan to become one of the principal lumbermen. Possibly the younger Anthony followed him. Separating Anthony's may be a major task. Anthony Rogers of Manistee Co. also had a son, Anthony, b. 1849.

An old query at an Iosco Co., MI board was made by Schusan 31DEC1999 and reads:

"I am searching for Jones, Rogers and McPhail surnames. My Grandfather George Henry Jones moved to Oscoda at the age of 5 yrs in 1885 with his parents Henry Jones and Susan Rogers Jones from Newcastle, New Brunswick, Canada. He came South with the logging business and met my Grandmother in La. He eventually settled down here and only went back home once or twice. We know he had a sister Ida Jones McPhail who always lived in Oscoda. She didnt have children so there are no Jones or McPhail descendents but there could be Rogers as Susan Rogers had two brothers, Justice and Anthony who also lived in Oscoda. Any info would be welcomed."

The Susan who is the husband of Henry Jones, and her brothers, Anthony and Justus, seem to be Anthony's (Annie's) husband) cousins. It appears they Henry Jones and Susan Rogers married in NB.

The Iosco Co., MI, "Herald", suggests that an obituary was in the 4AUG1911 issue giving Justus A. Rogers as d. 2AUG1911 age 72 years. Justus A. Rogers was naturalized in 1888. This Justus (b. ca. 1839) may have been a brother of Anthony; so Susan may be Anthony's sister. Justus Rogers (b. ca. 1839) might also have been a son of the other Anthony Rogers; or a cousin.

"History of Iosco Co.", by H. R. Page & Co., ca. 1883; part of, "History of the Lake Huron Shore; with illustrations and biographical sketches of some of its . . .", with Iosco Co. on pp. 121-190; reprinted by Unigraphics Inc., Evansville, IN ca. 1976 on behalf of Parks Library Genealogy at risk books. A standard atlas of the period, containing biographies so that everyone would buy a few copies. On pp. 177-8 is:

"Anthony Rogers of Oscoda , who died in April, 1883, was one of the early comers to the vicinity. He was born at Miramichi, Northumberland Co., New Brunswick, November 10, 1835. He came to Michigan in 18[65]. Working one year on the Saginaw River, the next year he came to Au Sable. For four years he worked on the river for J. K. Stanley, subsequently he managed camps for Mr. John W. Glennie, for Genl. Alger, and for the Stone Livingstone Lumber Company, and for the last eight years he has managed camps for Messrs. Pack, Woods & Company. Beginning as a laborer, by his energy, industry and integrity, he attained to positions of trust and responsibility, his employers always finding him faithful in the performance of all duties laid upon him. He leaves his mother and two brothers at the old home in New Brunswick, a brother in Au Sable, a brother and sister in Wisconsin, a sister in California, a sister in Tennessee, a sister in Tawas, besides his wife and two children in Oscoda. Those that knew him most closely realize that in his death an excellent neighbor, a kind father and an affectionate husband has passed from their midst."

and on p. 166 is:

"Justes Rogers has been associated with lumbering on the Au Sable River fifteen years. He was born in New Brunswick, and in 1868 settled at Au Sable. When he first came here he worked on the boom, Summers, and scaled, Winters. He then was engaged looking after the lumber interests of outside parties, and has been so engaged to the present time. He is a practical lumberman and reliable in every respect. He has been president of the village, and belongs to the Masonic fraternity and the Royal Templars of Temperance. Mr. Rogers is one of the old residents, and looked upon as a leading citizen of the village. He has a wife, but no children."

An accompanying photograph of J. A. Rogers shows a typical, good-looking, Scots-Irish type of New Brunswicker with a large brow, dark hair, largish eyebrows, and the unfortunate fashion of the time for a full beard.

Benjamin and Elizabeth were in Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1881 when Benjamin was a farmer, and they were b. NB, Irish and Presbyterian.

6. BENJAMIN McKINNON b. ca. 1810-11, d. Newcastle, Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 29JUN1877 age 66 years, m. 1st SARAH A. ROGERS (b. Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 15JAN1831), d/o James and Eleanor (Ellen) (Quigley) Rogers; m. 2nd by the Rev. William Henderson 13JUL1854 MARY CROCKER (b. ca. 1815-6 (ca. 1831?; 1817 on headstone), d. 1900, bur. MI), d/o John and Margaret (Dickie) Crocker.

Said to have had an illegitimate daughter, Linda McKinnon.

In 1865, Benjamin McKinnon was on Newcastle Road, Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB; a farmer. He was in Newcastle Parish in 1867 as well.

The Crocker's appear to have been in Blissville, Blackville and Nelson Parishes by the 1830's. In particular David and Rowland Crocker. They appear to have been brothers, and if Rowland's family is fully known, then perhaps John was David's son; but it seems unlikely. In fact, John Crocker seems to have been of a different family. Rowland and David were of Loyalist origins in Charlotte Co., NB. In the 1851 census of Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB was:

Crocker John	M Head	69 Scotch Farmer (prop)	May 1835
Crocker Margaret	F Wife	69 Scotch	May 1835
Crocker Andrew	M Son	26 Scotch	May 1835
Crocker Mary	F Daughter	20	May 1835
Crocker Ellen	F Daughter	18 Scotch	May 1835

Having arrived in MAY1835, it is unlikely that they were connected to the Loyalist family.

The assumption that Mary was the d/o John and Margaret (Dickie) Crocker may be incorrect. For example, the Loyalist Crocker family, in Nelson Parish in 1851, has a Mary Crocker b. ca. 1833, d/o David and Mary Crocker. An 'uncle' living with this family was William Rodgers (b. ca. 1786.) Also, Mary, Benjamin's widow, was b. ca. 1815-6; and according to the 1851 census, John and Margaret's daughter was b. ca. 1831. If Mary Crocker m. Benjamin McKinnon in 1854 and if she was b. ca. 1815-6; it is possible her maiden name was not Crocker, and that this was her 2nd marriage as well. Perhaps of interest is that the son, Andrew Crocker b. ca. 1825, is likely the same Andrew Crocker b. Nova Scotia ca. 1819 in the 1861 census of Newcastle Parish. Not only does this suggest that the 1851 family was, in fact, from Nova Scotia; but also that the enumerator in 1851 was a bit inexact with ages.

Ron Robichaud (McKinnon GenForum, # 1547, 2NOV2009) confirms that that Mary was the d/o John and Margaret (Dickie) Crocker, and that their Nova Scotia family was distinct from the Loyalist of Rowland Crocker.

Also in Newcastle Parish in 1851 were:

McKinnon Martin	M Husband	49 Labourer
McKinnon Margaret	F Wife	34
McKinnon Christinia	F Daughter	15
McKinnon Laughlan	M Son	8	Birth
McKinnon John	M Son	5	Birth
McKinnon Elizabette	F Daughter	3	Birth
McKinnon Margaret	F Daughter	1	Birth

If Martin was connected to Gregor McKinnon's family, it could only be as a son; but this seems unlikely. Martin McKinnon is buried in the Moorefield Presbyterian Cemetery, Ferry Road, Northumberland County, New Brunswick. He d. 11MAR1880 age 78 years, his wife d. 30JUN1862 age 66 years, and a son, John, d. 14MAR1871. In the same cemetery is a Margaret McKinnon who d. 1880 age 78 years; probably a confusion between Martin and his wife.

Thus, if Benjamin's marriage to Mary Crocker is correct, it appears that by 1851 he did not live in Newcastle Parish; but perhaps nearby. The wedding announcement places Mary in Chatham Parish and Benjamin in Northesk Parish. If he was in Northesk Parish in 1854, he does not appear in the 1851 census of that parish. After his marriage, at least about 1865-7, he appear to have lived in Newcastle Parish.

Linda Kehler (e-mail 23MAR2009), provided an image of Mary's headstone in Michigan in a cemetery with a reference, "Sec. N, Lot 7151, Site 3"; which indicates that she joined her sons in that state. The stone reads:

MARY CROCKER McKINNON
1817 - 1900

The '1817' might be '1812' with a faded bottom, but the rest of the incision does not show sufficient wear to justify the suspicion.

The surname Rogers appears in grants in Northumberland Co., NB as early as 1793. Most are in Newcastle Parish, but a George Rogers, Jr. was in Glenelg Parish by 1818. There is also the matter of Rogersville near Loggieville; but whether this is relative is not yet clear.

According to the New Brunswick Genealogical Society's web site, 'First Families', James Rogers b. 21JUL1805, m. 24MAY1829 Ellen Quigley (b. ca. 1812), and lived at Whitney, Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB. James' parents were John and Susannah (Walsh) Rogers, with John the s/o Anthony and Zilpha (Holcomb) Rogers and Susannah the d/o James and Ann (Martin) Walsh. Anthony Rogers appears to be one of several Loyalists of that name.

In Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB (apparently in or near Whitney) was the family:

Rogers James	M Head45	Farmer (Prop)	Birth
Rogers Eleanor	F Wife	39 Irish		Birth
Rogers Sarah	F Daughter	20		Birth
Rogers Zilpah	F Daughter	18		Birth
Rogers Mary F	Daughter	16		Birth
Rogers Margaret	F Daughter	14		Birth
Rogers Susan	F Daughter	12		Birth
Rogers Joshua	M Son	9		Birth
Rogers John M Son		7		Birth
Rogers James	M Son	4		Birth
Rogers Martin	M Son	2		Birth

Thus, Benjamin would appear to later be in Northesk Parish. In 1872, when his niece, Annie Forsyth [54] m. Anthony Rogers (almost certainly a relative of his 1st wife) the marriage was performed at his residence, apparently in Northesk Parish and Annie and Anthony were from there. On the other hand, when Benjamin died, it was in Newcastle; so perhaps that is where the marriage took place.

It is vaguely possible that Sarah was also married before. A Sarah Rogers of Northesk Parish m. 28JAN1847 James Atchison of Newcastle. This, however, seems unlikely to be the same Sarah.

As noted above, in 1880, Anthony and Annie (Forsyth) Rogers [54] are in Oscoda, Iosco Co., Michigan. Both are b. Canada, with parents b. Canada. Anthony is a labourer, and the two children are b. Michigan.

Also with them are George McKinnon (b. ca. 1858) and John McKinnon (b. ca. 1859.) Both are b. Canada, as are their parents, and they would appear to be brothers and Annie's cousins. The connection, however, is not clear. One suspicion is that the may be sons of Benjamin McKinnon, her uncle, by his 1st marriage. A John McKinnon, b. Canada, appears to have d. East Tawas, Iosco Co., MI between 1897 and 1916. A John McKinnon was naturalized as a US citizen in 1891, so he seem to have lived until then.

Also of Oscoda, originally of Newcastle, was William G. McKinnon, who m. New Bandon, Gloucester Co., NB by the Rev. James Quinn 14NOV1884 Lucy J. Hornibrook (b. New Bandon, Gloucester Co., NB 6JAN1860), d/o William and Elizabeth Hornibrook. The only William McKinnon I can find in the 1881 census who might fit is the s/o the widow, Mary McKinnon (b. NS ca. 1815.) Also in the household was a John McKinnon (b. ca. 1859, who may well be John in Michigan in 1880. Also, there was a Maggie McKinnon b. ca. 1861. It should be noted that the Hornibrook's, aside from their Gloucester Co., origins, had several ties to families in Tabusintac, Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB.

It would appear, in the circumstances that the widow, Mary McKinnon, in Newcastle in 1881 was Benjamin's wife; but this does not fit the verifiable data. It would also appear that John, George, William G. and Maggie McKinnon are Mary's children, cousins of Annie (Forsyth) Roger's, therefore grandchildren of Gregor McKinnon. This, again, does not fit the known facts.

In the 1871 directory, only Hector McKinnon of Oak Point in Alnwick Parish is listed in Northumberland Co. In 1865 and 1867, there are:

McKinnon, Alexander - Oak Point Northumberland Farmer
McKinnon, Hector - Oak Point Northumberland Farmer

McKinnon, Benjamin Newcastle Road Newcastle Northumberland Farmer
McKinnon, James Water St. Newcastle Northumberland Surveyor
McKinnon, William - Newcastle Northumberland Shipcarpenter

1867

McKinnon, Alexander - Oak Point Northumberland Farmer & fisherman
McKinnon, Hector jun. - Oak Point Northumberland Farmer
McKinnon, Hector sen. - Oak Point Northumberland Farmer

McKinnon, Benjamin - Newcastle Northumberland Farmer

Thus, possible husbands for Mary McKinnon are James McKinnon and William McKinnon.

In the PRF (Pedigree Resource File), William Gregory McKinnon b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 18SEP1856, d. Orchard Lake, Michigan 1941, was the s/o Benjamin and Mary (Crocker) McKinnon. Mary is given as b. Upper Stewiacke, NS ca. 1816. This would make her fit the Mary in Newcastle in 1881; but it means that Benjamin's 2nd marriage is unlikely and that her parents, as given, are unlikely. Also, John and Margaret Crocker, per the 1851 census, were from Scotland in 1835, not Nova Scotia.

John Crocker McKinnon b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 22MAY1858, d. Frankport, MI 6APR1944, m. Sable, MI 16MAY1889 Mary Victoria Loud (b. Aldborough, ONT 2OCT1864, d. Frankport, MI 25FEB1946); is also given in the PRF as Benjamin and Mary's son.

Yet another child of Benjamin and Mary is Margaret McKinnon b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 9FEB1861

Indexed in the Oscoda, Iosco Co., MI. "Au Sable Press" (?), are references to obituaries:

McKinnon, John Campbell death 04/21/1944 p1c2
McKinnon, William Gregory death 10/29/1943 p1c4

The date for William, 29OCT1943, is likely the date of the paper, not of his death, judging by the date for John. Also, William appears to have d. in 1943 rather than 1941. If John is the same, then 'Campbell', as his middle name, seems an error for 'Crocker'; but this is hardly certain.

If these are correct then Benjamin must have m. Sarah A. Rogers first. Also, if Sarah was a d/o James and Eleanor (Ellen) (Quigley) Rogers, then they married in or very close to 1851; and she d. ca. 1853-5.

An anonymous posting at a Michigan board in 2003 names the children as: William Gregor McKinnon, John Crocker McKinnon and Margaret McKinnon. None seem to have noted George McKinnon in 1880; but this may have been William. William Gregor/Gregory McKinnon is said to have been an informant for Louise Manny on her, "Ships of the Miramichi". There appears to be in the area that the McKinnon's lived a river, Black River, with a McKinnon's Bend. One wonders if the source of the name was Black River in Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB.

A partial solution to some of the above difficulties is in the 1861 census of Newcastle Parish. In this Benjamin McKinnon is age 50, b. NB, a lumberer and farmer. Mary is age 45, Nova Scotian. The family is Presbyterian, and children, b. NB, are William G. (6), John C. (4) and Margaret (6 months.) children:

61. WILLIAM GREGORY McKINNON b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 18SEP1856, d. Orchard Lake, Michigan OCT1943 (1941 ?), m. New Bandon, Gloucester Co., NB by the Rev. James Quinn 14NOV1884 LUCY JANE HORNIBROOK (b. New Bandon, Gloucester Co., NB 6JAN1860), d/o William and Elizabeth (Gabriel/Gabrielle) Hornibrook.

When William died, he is said to have had two daughters.

Lucy's mother was b. Ireland ca. 1818-20 and was the d/o Thomas and Margaret Gabriel, and her father, William (b. ca. 1811-2, also given as 'Hornbrook') was the son of Edward and Elizabeth (Burchill) Hornbrook. Edward and Elizabeth came to NB ca. 1820-30, but she died at sea. Two of Lucy's nieces married two of my cousins in Tabusintac.

Lucy is with her parents in New Bandon Parish, Gloucester Co., NB in the 1881 census.

62. JOHN CROCKER (CAMPBELL?) McKINNON b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 22MAY1858, d. Frankfort (Frankport), Benzie Co., MI 6APR1944, m. Au Sable, MI 16MAY1889 MARY VICTORIA LOUD (b. Aldborough, ONT 2OCT1864, d. Frankfort (Frankport), Benzie Co., MI 25FEB1946), d/o William Harrison and Adela Rona (Anderson) Loud.

John is said to have had 1 son, 3 daughters and 1 adopted son.

children:

621. HUGH RAYMOND McKINNON b. Au Sable, MI 23AUG1890, m. 20NOV1919 MARTHA MAGDELENA SCHENK (b. 28FEB1898 (21FEB1898), d. Frankfort, Benzie Co., MI 9SEP2002.)

Possibly the Hugh McKinnon whose home in Millerburg/Millersburg, Iosco Co., MI was destroyed in a major forest fire in 1911. See:

<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~dunn/Onaway/1911.htm>

Martha is likely the Martha McKinnon b. 28FEB1898, d. 9SEP2002, of Frankfort, Benzie Co., MI.

622. SARAH BELLE McKINNON

623. ADELE (ADELA) ELEANOR McKINNON b. Au Sable, MI 18JUN1895, d. Frankfort, Benzie Co., MI JUL1981, m. 1st? 15MAY1926 LLOYD ANDREW HOLDEMAN; m. 2nd? ROY OLIVER (b. ca. 1882, d. 25AUG1930.)

I suspect that Roy's date-of-death is actually their marriage date, and that Roy is Roy Oliver b. 8JUN1844, d. Frankfort, Benzie Co., MI NOV1973.

624. MARION LOUISE McKINNON b. Au Sable, MI 26JUL1897

625. AUSTIN RUSSELL McKINNON b. 27JUN1900, d. Au Sable, MI 14APR1931

63. MARGARET (MAGGIE) McKINNON b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 9FEB1861

7. ALICE ("ELSIE/ELSY") MacKINNON b. Bay du Vin, Northumberland Co., NB ca. 1813 (or 1814), d. Newcastle, Newcastle Parish, NB 23JAN1895 age 81 years, m. St. James' Presbyterian Church, Newcastle, Northumberland Co., NB 9AUG1837 ANDREW FRASER (will made 7FEB1840, probated 31JUL1843), s/o John and Mary (Gillis) Fraser.

An announcement of the death of Alice McKinnon Fraser describes her as the widow of Donald Fraser. It also has her as dying in Newcastle. A death record has her dying in Newcastle and b. Bay du Vin.

Alice-Elsie is sometimes given as two, different persons. When married, both Elsy and Andrew are given as being of Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB. Their marriage was announced in the Chatham, "The Gleaner and Northumberland Schediasma", issue dated 15AUG1837. The announcement does not name Miss Elsy McKinnon's father, but the mention of her brother, Benjamin McKinnon, and brother-in-law, Robert forsyth, in Andrew's will leave little doubt as to which McKinnon family she belonged.

Their daughter, Mary Jane, is given as m. 1858 Asa C. Mutch and to have lived in Whitney, which, in 1851, was in Northesk Parish. However, neither the Fraser's nor Asa Mutch appear in the 1851 census of that Parish. Asa is listed as a farmer at Northesk Boom in the 1865 and 1867 directories. James and Samuel Mutch are in Northesk Parish in the 1871 directory.

Andrew Fraser was fence viewer for Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1839. He owned a Lot 10 in Sunny Corners of 480 acres. His will was signed in the presence of Robert Forsyth [5A], and witnessed by Richard Hill and Elisha Godfrey. Benjamin McKinnon [6] was made executor, and asked to educate Andrew's son, and support Elsie until she remarried.

children:

711. GEORGE AMOS MUTCH b. Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 4SEP1867, d. St. Maries, Benawah Co., Idaho 8DEC1913, m. MARY EATON.

Probably the George Mutch b. ca. 1868 in the household of a widow, Mary McLean, her children and 'Berthia' Sherrard (b. ca. 1868.)

72. JOHN FRASER b. ca. 1838.

A John A. Fraser b. NB ca. NB ca. 1841, m. Alcona Co., Michigan 31AUG1879 Jennie (Annie?) Bridgman (Bridgeman) (b. Canada ca. 1849; m. 1st John McNally), d/o Robert (b. England ca. 1833) Bridgman. They were in the 1880 census of Alcona, Alcona Co., Michigan with her children; Alice M. McNally (ca. 1875) and John H. McNally (ca. 1877); her father and her brothers; Francis Bridgman (ca. 1860) and Henry Bridgman (ca. 1862.) While both her parents were b. England, her brothers' mother was b. Ireland. Her first husband also was b. Ireland. John's parents were both b. NB.

"JOHN A. FRASER was born in New Brunswick in 1843. He came to Michigan in 1868 and worked on Cass River for Tom Nestor, at lumbering. He came to Alcona County in 1875 and worked for R. A. Alger & Co., at Harrisville, Alcona County, then with the company to Black River. He was married to Jenny Bridgeman, in 1879 and has two children, boys, who are still living. Mr. Fraser was made foreman of a camp and is now still engaged at Black River in that important business, and is a reliable man at lumbering in the woods."

("History of the Lake Huron Shore and Its People with Illustrations & Biographical Sketches of Some of Its Prominent Pioneers", 1883, Chicago, Page 279)

8. CHARLES McKINNON b. Black River, Glenelg Parish, Northumberland Co., NB ca. 1813 (or South Esk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 1816?), bpt. United Church of St. Andrew and St. John (probably St. Andrew's Presbyterian), Chatham, Northumberland County, New Brunswick 22NOV1817, d. post 1861, m. 24JUL1839 SARAH LEACH (b. ca. 1819), d/o Thomas and Mary (McDonald) Leach.

James Leach (b. ca. 1791) and his wife, Mary (b. ca. 1792) were in Northesk Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1851. Both were b. NB.

When baptized as the s/o Gregor McKinnon, his home was in Bay du Vin.

A Chas. McKinnon b. ca. 1804, d. Blackville, Northumberland Co., NB APR1888 age 84 years. He had been in good health until he had "an attack of paralysis while at work." This may be 'Charley McKenen' b. England ca. 1821, with a wife, 'Easter McKenen' (b. England ca. 1826) and a son, William (b. England ca. 1857), farming with Mathew Doherty (b. England ca. 1826) in Blackville Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in the 1881 census.

No Charles McKinnon is listed in the 1865, 1867 nor 1871 directories. Presumably he died before the 1861 census.

Also, there appears to be no McKinnon family in Blackville Parish in 1851. Charles son, also Charles, is said to have been b. in Blackville in 1856.

If one assumes that the children were b. between 1840 and 1860, then one possibility is Dorothy Wells (b. ca. 1854), wife of a farmer, Isaac Wells (b. ca. 1852), with children: Mary (ca. 1876), John (ca. 1878) and Martha (ca. 1880.) There is no immediate information on this family other than that they were in Blackville Parish, in 1881, all b. NB, Scottish and Presbyterian.

Much the same might be said of George Wells/Walls who m. Phoebe McKinnon in 1859. In 1851, there is no sign of a Wells/Walls family in Blackville Parish. However, in 1865, there are several Wells in Black Brook, Northumberland Co., NB. A George Walls is a cooper in Derby Parish. In 1871, in Blackville Parish, are George, Charles and John Wells. In Black Brook, Chatham Parish are Andrew and James Walls.

In Chatham Parish, in 1851, are:

with, perhaps, George Walls b. ca. 1831 being the same who m. 4AUG1858 Jane Davidson, or m. 1859 Phoebe McKinnon. The parents are William Howard and Maria Hannah (Astle) Walls. children:

81. PHOEBE McKINNON b. ca. 1839, d. 1875, m. 27JUL1859?, GEORGE WALLS (b. 7OCT1834 (ca. 1835); m. 2nd the Manse, Blackville, Northumberland Co., NB by the Rev. T. G. Johnston 28SEP1878 Mrs. Mary Ann Stewart (b. 23JAN1855)), s/o James and Sarah Ann (Munroe) Walls.

Possibly Phoebe McKinnon of Blackville, Northumberland Co., NB who m. 27JUL1859 George Walls, also of Blackville. Perhaps George is George Wells of Blackville Parish in 1881, b. NB ca. 1835; with a wife, Mary Ann (b. ca. 1836 and a large family.) This would appear to be at least a 2nd marriage for George as George Walls m. the Manse, Blackville, Northumberland Co., NB by the Rev. T. G. Johnston 28SEP1878 Mary Ann Stewart; both of Blackville. It was Mary Ann's 2nd marriage as well, as she was Mrs. Mary Ann Stewart. George Walls and Phoebe McKinnon had a daughter, Charlotte Elizabeth Walls b. Blackville, Northumberland Co., NB 25JAN1856 which seems to contradict their marriage date.

In fact, George appears to have married several times under similar circumstances. For example, the Rev. Thos. G. Johnstone also performed the marriage of George Walls and Jane Davidson, d/o Phineas Davidson, 4AUG1858; when both were of Nelson Parish. By the same clergyman, in Blackville on 28NOV1884, George Walls m. Charlotte Walls, eldest d/o Francis Walls of Derby Parish. George Walls of Nelson Parish m. JUL1839 Barbara Clark.

Assuming only one George Walls in Blackville. some events were:

1MAY1845, infant son of George Walls of Blackville dies.

George Walls and Phoebe McKinnon had a daughter, Charlotte Elizabeth Walls b. Blackville, Northumberland Co., NB 25JAN1856

Phoebe McKinnon of Blackville, Northumberland Co., NB who m. 27JUL1859 George Walls, also of Blackville. George Walls is given as b. ca. 1834-5, d. 1903, the s/o James and Sarah Ann (Munroe) Walls; and to have has a son, James W. Walls b. ca. 1860.

George Walls m. the Manse, Blackville, Northumberland Co., NB by the Rev. T. G. Johnston 28SEP1878 Mrs. Mary Ann Stewart; both of Blackville.

George Wells of Blackville Parish in 1881, b. NB ca. 1835; with a wife, Mary Ann (b. ca. 1836 and a large family.)

Thus, Phoebe's husband appears to be the George Walls b. ca. 1835 in Blackville Parish in 1851, the s/o the widow, Sarah Ann Walls; m. 1st 27JUL1859 Phoebe McKinnon (b. ca. 1839) of Blackville, Northumberland Co., NB, d/o Charles and Sarah (Leach) McKinnon; m. 2nd the Manse, Blackville, Northumberland Co., NB by the Rev. T. G. Johnston 28SEP1878 Mrs. Mary Ann Stewart; both of Blackville. Arnold E. Krause, in his website, noting "Old North Esk on the Miramichi", by W. D. Hamilton, p. 343, arrives at very similar conclusions.

Charles' children by his 2nd marriage were Robert Alexander Walls (b. 7MAR1881) and Margaret J. Walls (b. 8FEB1879.) In Blackville Parish in 1881, George was Scottish, a farmer and C. Presbyterian. He is in Blackville Parish in 1901 as well. Although George's 2nd wife is given as Mrs. Mary Ann Stewart when they married; she is also Mary Ann Stewart in the birth record of their son, suggesting the 'Mrs.' may be incorrect.

84. ALICE (ELSIE) McKINNON b. 10JUN1845, d. 23JAN1895, m. by the Rev. Thos. G. Johnstone 1OCT1873 JOHN STEPHEN (STEVENS.)

Possibly the Elsie Stephens b. ca. 1841 in the 1881 census of Blackville Parish, Northumberland Co., NB. She is married (but no husband is present), English, b. Nb and Church of England. Children were: Isaac (6) and Elizabeth (4.)

85. ELIZABETH MARTHA McKINNON b. 15JUL1847 (14JUL1846, 15JUL1844 in 1901), d. Northumberland Co., NB 7MAR1927 (FEB1927), m. Ludlow Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 27JAN1868 THOMAS CARROLL (b. Doaktown, Northumberland Co., NB 20AUG1845 (15AUG1843 in 1901, ca. 1845), d. Carroll's Crossing, NB 11JAN1917 age 72 years), s/o Thomas and Ann (Carney) Caroll.

Much of this is based on, "Early Carroll Families of Northumberland County, New Brunswick, Canada", by Joseph E. Carroll, beginning at:

<http://homepages.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~jcarroll/index.htm> and particularly at:

http://homepages.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~jcarroll/ps01/ps01_122.htm

Carroll's in Blackville Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in the 1851 census were:

Carroll Donald	M Head	69 Irish	Farmer & Prop	1814
Carroll Nancy	F Wife	61 Irish			1814
Carroll John	M Son	22 Irish			Birth
Carroll Edward	? S & H	26 Irish		Birth
Carroll Mary	F Wife	22 Irish			Birth
Carroll Nancy	F Daughter	1 Irish			Birth

and in Blissfield Parish:

Carroll Thomas	M Head	38 Irish	farmer-prop in the year	1827
Carroll Ann	F Wife	32 Irish			birth
Carroll William	M Son	16 Irish			birth
Carroll Mary	F Daughter	12 Irish			birth
Carroll Michael	M Son	10 Irish			birth
Carroll Sarah Ann	F Daughter	8 Irish			birth
Carroll Thomas	M Son	6 Irish			birth
Carroll Patrick	M Son	4 Irish	birth
Carroll Edward	M Son	3 Irish			birth
Carroll John	M Son	1 Irish			birth

with Thomas b. ca. 1845 perhaps being Elizabeth's husband. In spite of the fact that there appear to have been six, separate, Carroll families in Northumberland Co., this is generally taken to be the case.

They appear to be Thomas (b. ca. 1844) and 'Alisebeth' (b. ca. 1846) 'Cardel' in Ludlow Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1881. Thomas is Irish and Roman Catholic where she and the children are Scottish and Church of England. He is a farmer and all are b. NB. Children were: Howard T. (12), William (10), Thomas (7), 'Marther' (daughter, 7) 'Avret' (son, 4), 'Arnest' (4), 'Henery (2) and Annie (1.)

Thomas and Elizabeth were in Ludlow Parish in 1901 with their son, William, not far off with his family.

children:

851. HOWARD T. CARROLL b. Ludlow Parish, Northumberland Co., NB ca. 1869, d. Ludlow Parish, Northumberland Co., NB 27SEP1905 age 37 years

852. WILLIAM BYRON CARROLL b. 4JAN1871, d. Northumberland Co., NB 6JUL1941, m. EMILY

K. O'DONNELL (b. 11FEB1874)

853. THOMAS CARROLL (twin?) b. ca. 1873-4

854. MARTHA CARROLL (twin?) b. ca. 1874

Possibly Martha b. 21JAN1874, wife of Alfred Stuart (b. 7AUG1871), living 'next door' to Thomas and Elizabeth in 1901.

She may be Martha Carrol who m. Northumberland Co., NB 6MAY1894 Henry Lions (Lyons?) See:

857. ERNEST CARROLL (twin?) b. ca. 1877

858. HENRY CARROLL b. 17JAN1879

858. ANNIE LOUISE CARROLL b. Doaktown, Northumberland Co., NB 14DEC1880

859. JUSTUS (JUSTY) CARROLL b. 9NOV1882

85J. MARY MAY CARROLL

85K. SARAH CARROLL b. Carroll's Crossing, Northumberland Co., NB 9MAY1886, d. 1955

85L. GERTRUDE BEATRICE CARROLL b. Carroll's Crossing, Northumberland Co., NB 10FEB1888

85M. JENNIE B. CARROLL b. 6SEP1890

85N. JAMES LETCHMORE CARROLL b. 16AUG1892

86. MARGARET CAROLINE McKINNON b. ca. 1845-51, m. the manse, Blackville, Northumberland Co., NB by the Rev. Thos. G. Johnson 10APR1867 PATRICK PORTER (b. 9MAR1841 (MAR1838 in 1911, ca. 1837-40)), s/o James and Eleanor Porter.

Both were of Blackville when married.

In Blackville Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1851 there were two families listed one after the other:

Porter James	M Head	55 Irish Farmer & Prop	1828
Porter Eleanor	F Wife	45 Irish		1825
Porter Elizabeth	F Daughter	25 Irish		Birth
Porter Thomas	M Son	22 Irish		Birth
Porter Sarah	F Daughter	19 Irish		Birth
Porter Mary Ann	F Daughter	16 Irish		Birth
Porter James	M Son	14 Irish		Birth
Porter Patrick	M Son	11 Irish		Birth
Porter Samuel	M Son	9 Irish		Birth
Porter William	M Son	7		Birth

Porter Thomas	M Head	40 Irish Farmer & Prop	1825
Porter Margret	F Wife	38 Irish		1824
Porter James	M Son	14 Irish		Birth
Porter Andrew	M Son	12 Irish		Birth
Porter John M	Son	10 Irish		Birth
Porter Sarah F	Daughter	8 Irish		Birth
Porter David M	Son	6 Irish		Birth
Porter William M	Son	4 Irish		Birth
Porter Margret F	Daughter	2 Irish		Birth

Also in Blackville Parish were:

Porter James	M Head	31 Irish Farmer & Prop	1836
Porter Ellen	F Wife	21 Irish		Birth

Patrick appears to have been the son of James and Eleanor; James and Thomas were likely brothers but it is not likely that the younger James (with the wife Ellen) was necessarily connected.

In Blackville Parish, in 1881, Patrick was b. NB ca. 1837, and was a farmer. Margaret was b. NB ca. 1845. The family were all Scottish (which must have been a surprise to Patrick) and Episcopal.

They were in Blackville Parish in 1891, when Patrick was age 52 and Margaret age 40. This time Patrick's parents were b. Ireland, and Margaret's were b. NB. Patrick was a farmer and the family was Church of England.

In Blackville Parish in 1901 and in 1911, Patrick is a widower.

A Patrick Porter d. Northumberland Co., NB 14FEB1920.

Children:

861. SARAH PORTER b. ca. 1867

862. WILLIAM (GEORGE) PORTER b. ca. 1870-1

863. JOSEPH PORTER b. 8MAR1874 (ca. 1873)

864. MARY JANE PORTER b. 10MAR1876 (ca. 1875-6)

865. CHARLES (CHARLIE) PORTER b. 3AUG1878 (AUG1875 in 1911, ca. 1877), m. JOSEPHINE _____ (b. MAY1881)

Children:

8651. EARNEST PORTER b. NOV1906

866. ALICE PORTER b. 8JAN1881 (ca. 1879.)

Possibly Alice Margaret Porter, m. Wordlow (Wardlow) Eldridge (Elbridge)Gilks.

867. ISAAC PORTER b. 7APR1883 (ca. 1880 in 1881 census)

868. ARTHUR PORTER b. 4JUL1887 (ca. 1884)

869. MINNIE PORTER b. 17JAN1890 (ca. 1889)

87. MARTHA McKINNON b. ca. 1851, m. ROBERT PORTER.

A Robert Porter b. ca. 1853 was the s/o Thomas and Margaret Porter who appeared in the 1851 census of Blackville Parish.

88. DOROTHY GIBBONS McKINNON b. 12JAN1854, m. ISAAC JAMES WALLS (b. 2APR1853 (ca. 1852-5), d. Goodwater, Saskatchewan.)

In Blackville Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1881, Isaac Wells is age 29 and Dorothy is age 27 years. They lived next to John J. (T.?) (67) and Catherine (49) Wells; possibly Isaac's parents..

In Blackville Parish, Northumberland Co., NB in 1891 'Isac' Walls (b. ca. 1843) has a wife, Janie (b. ca. 1844.) However, the mother of Howard Thomas Walls (1888) and Lloyd Walls (1901) is Dorothy Gibbons McKinnon. Howard (ca. 1888) is one of the children in 1891. In Blackville Parsh, in 1901, his wife is 'Doratha' and children include Howard and 'Lloid'.

In 1911, "Essex?" (APR1853) and Dorothy (JAN1855) are in Assiniboia, Saskatchewan.

Children:

881. MARY WALLS b. ca. 1876-8

882. WILLIAM (JOHN) WALLS b. 4AUG1878 (ca. 1880)

Malcolm McKinnon

MALCOLM McKINNON b. PEI 10OCT1848, m. JESSIE B. _____ (b. PEI 10OCT1850.) In 1901 census of Richibucto.

Apparently the Malcolm McKinnon of Shediac, Westmorland Co., NB in 1881; age 31, b. PEI, farmer, religion: 'Kirk'. His wife was Jessie B. age 30, b. PEI and Kirk as well. With them were James R. (b. PEI, 3) and Nellie H. (b. NB, 1); as well as Ellen J. Hilson (b. PEI, 35, Anglican.) As Ellen J. Hilson and Jessie were both English, while the rest of the family was Scottish, it seems possible that Ellen was Jessie's sister.

In 1881, in Summerside, PEI, a widow, Mary Hilson, age 67, Irish, b. Ireland, Church of England; was living with John and Margaret Frazer (presumably daughter and son-in-law.) Another widow, also in Summerside, was 'Eleonor' A. Hilson, age 54, French, b. PEI, Baptist. There were 43 McKinnon's in Summerside at the time.

Possibly the Alexander Hains mentioned in the, "Union Advocate", of Newcastle, Northumberland Co., NB, 16FEB1881, as:

Yesterday the body of a man belonging to one of the lumber camps near Red Pine Station, south of Bathurst (Glouc. Co.) was found in the woods and taken to Red Pine freight shed where an inquest was held yesterday eve. - 'Times', 11th. We have learned that the man referred to above is Charles HAINS s/o Alex. HAINS of Richibucto (Kent Co.) He belonged to Chatham whither his remains were conveyed and were on Saturday interred in St. Andrew's Church burial ground, Newcastle.

He died of 'heart disease'.

Fredericton, "The Gleaner", 14JUN1890.

Alexander HAINS, his son, Allen HAINS, grandson, Alexander and great grandson, Theodore GRAHAM, representing four generations, have been seen together in a wagon the other day. - Richibucto (Kent Co.) 'Review'

Date March 4 1869 d. Douglastown, Sunday, 21st, John M. McKINNAN, age 24.

SWEET: John Sweet born Apr 1788 in Halifax, NS, d. after 1849, m. Aug 1821 Joanna Flaherty born Dec 1795, d. 5 Jan 1842: family came to NB by 1835 and settled on the Little South West Indian Reserve in Northumberland County: in 1849 they moved to Manistee County, MI and settled near other NB families:

Children:

1) Margaret Sweet born 22 Jul 1822, d. after 1890, m. 1 Dec 1837 Anthony Rogers born on 10 Jul 1814, died after 1890, s/o Anthony Rogers and Lydia Ledden: settled in Michigan: had issue:

In 1881, a widow, Sarah McKinnon b. ca. 1829, lived in Alnwick Parish, Northumberland Co., NB with her sons, Alexander McKinnon (b. ca. 1823) and Hector McKinnon (b. ca. 1831); also Hector's wife, Mary C. (b. ca. 1849.) Alexander and Hector were farmers, all Scottish, b. NB and Roman Catholic; which seems a bit unusual.

There was in 1851 a family of John McKinnon (b. ca. 1810) in Alnwick Parish, who arrived in 1810; but there seems to be no connection. John, however, would have arrived with his parents.

Hector, in 1881, appears to have been a s/o of Hector McKinnon, Sr.; with he and his son in the 1865 directory in Oak Point, Alnwick Parish.
