

British Headquarters Papers Microfilm Shelf List

Note the page number provided for each record of interest. Go to the Document Number list below to find out what the microfilm number at the National archives of Canada. The Historical Manuscript Commission of Great Britain published its calendar of the collection in 1904-1909, while the documents were still at the Royal Institution. Following the sale and reorganization of the collection, a copy of that calendar was annotated to serve as a guide to the documents in their new order. THAT ANNOTATED CALENDAR FORMS THE BODY OF FINDING AID 784. The ANNOTATED CALENDAR also appears on National Archives of Canada microfilm, reels M-341 and M-342, but without the shelf list which correlates document numbers with the National Archives of Canada reel numbers.
