Message from the President

Greetings to all the members of the Sir Guy Carleton Branch U.E.L.A.C.!

I wish you and your families a very Happy and Healthy New Year. 2017 is an important year in Canada's history, being the sesquicentennial of Confederation. We have some very special events planned for the year. Our Spring Social and A.G.M. is slated for the 22nd of April. We had planned on a workshop to be put on by our Dominion Genealogists, but that has had to be cancelled due to unforeseen health issues. It is hoped that another interesting activity can be scheduled in the same time slot in March. Stay tuned for further information. In June there will be at least one flag raising, in honour of the Loyalists. The Mayor of Ottawa, His Worship Jim Watson will raise the Loyalist flag at Ottawa City Hall on June 19, 2017 at 11:00 am. All Branch members, family members and friends are invited to attend. I urge you to take part in our activities, and if you feel able, volunteer for a position on our executive. At the moment we are looking for someone to replace Ed Kipp our Web Master who has given us fine service for many years. Welcome to our new Branch member Norm Swarts, who's ancestor was Henry Swarts.

Best Wishes to you all.
Marg Hall U.E.

Report on the Fall Social – November 19, 2016

A total of 33 branch members and guests gathered at the Best Western on Carling Avenue for the annual Fall Social. Penny Minter introduced our guest speaker. Jennifer de Bruin has deep ancestral roots in Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry counties as well as further afield in Ontario, Quebec & colonial America. She is an established author of “fact-based” historical fiction. She has also contributed articles to several special publications. Her latest articles relating to the Loyalist experience through war, displacement, and resettlement are featured in the Cornwall Township Historical Society Newsletter and an upcoming edition of Geoscope, a publication of the Quebec Association of Geography Teachers & Global Educators. Jennifer is also the manager of the Lost Villages Museum Facebook page and helps manage both the St. Lawrence Branch website, and their newly launched Facebook page.

Jennifers’ excellent visual and audio presentation detailing the struggles of not only her Loyalist family, but, of thousands of others was warmly received by her audience. She was extremely well informed and very entertaining.

After the presentation, Branch president Marg Hall made several brief announcements regarding upcoming events and that the plans for the 2019 conference which is being hosted by Sir Guy Carleton Branch are well underway. Marg asked that anyone with ideas for the conference to contact the conference chair. Also, Brian Tackaberry is organizing a tour of Loyalist sites in the area and is looking for input from the membership.

There were several concerns expressed over the quality of the meal. The Branch Executive is aware of these complaints and is making every effort to ensure that these issues are not repeated at the upcoming Spring Social.

John Ruch Memorial Bursary

Sir Guy Carleton Branch is pleased to announce the 2016 recipient of the John Ruch Memorial Bursary is Pitseolak Pfeifer – Bachelor of Arts Honours; Canadian Studies at Carleton University

Library Nuggets – Lost in Canada? : Canadian - American Query Exchange

Searching for information in periodicals can seem like looking for a needle in a haystack, or panning for an elusive gold nugget. Shelves and shelves of boxes, but which one might hold a clue? To make the search easier and bring to light some nuggets hidden in the Sir Guy Carleton Branch Library, I have been going through some of our periodicals searching for information that might be useful.

One of the periodicals we have is “Lost in Canada? : Canadian - American Query Exchange”, published four times a year by Joy Reisinger of Sparta, WI from 1975 to 1994. This periodical focussed mainly on tracing French Canadian families who had migrated to the United States. However, it contains a wealth of other information: on Loyalists and on Ontario, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia families.

Our collection is missing some issues: all of Vol. 1 (1975) and Vol. 2 (1976) (but we do have the indexes), Vol. 7 (1981), Nos. 3 and 4, and Vol. 8 (1982) No. 2. The Toronto Public Library holds a complete set and volunteers of the Toronto Branch, UELAC, are willing to make digital copies of articles.

In the issues we do have I have found a number of articles that could be of interest to those seeking their Loyalist ancestors. The articles list names, usually in alphabetical order and always give the reference to the original document. I have divided the articles into subjects below.

1. Loyalists
  - a. Vol. 5, #II (18), pp. 94, 95 - “Loyalists of the Bay of Quinte”, from Ontario History (Ontario Historical Society), 1931, Vol. 27 “The Quinte Loyalists of 1784”.
2. Military
  - a. Vol. 4 #I (13), p. 40 - “Muster Roll of the Queen’s Rangers”, James Hannay, Proceedings and Transactions of the Royal Society of Canada, 1908.
  - b. Vol. 5, #II (18), pp. 96 - 109 - “Loyalists of Prince Edward Island”, from Muster Roll of Discharged and Disbanded Soldiers and Loyalists who, with their families, arrived from Shelburne and settled in Prince Edward Island”, (26 July 1784), Ward Chipman Papers, MG 23 D1, Series 1, Vol. 24, pp. 128-130, Library and Archives Canada.
  - c. Vol. 8 #I (29), Feb 1982, p. 28 & 53 - “An Annotated List of 317 German Soldiers Remaining in Canada”, Virginia Easley De Marce.
3. Loyalist Names in Academic Theses and Dissertations
  - a. Vol. 5, #III (Aug 1979), p. 164, The Migration of Carolina and Georgia Loyalists to Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, Georgia Carole Watterson Troxler, Dissertation, University of North Carolina, 1974.
  - b. Vol. 5, #IV (Nov 1979), p. 222, The Philadelphia Loyalists, 1763 - 1783, John Walter High Jr., Thesis, Temple University, 1974.
  - c. Vol. 5, #IV (Nov 1979), Tryon County, 1775-1783: A Frontier in Revolution, Robert

- William Venables, Thesis, Vanderbilt University, 1967.
- d. Vol. 5, #V (Nov 1980), p. 223, Loyalist Georgia, Gary Mitchell, Dissertation, Tulane University, 1964.
  - e. Vol. 6, #II (May 1980) - Loyalty and Reprisal: The Loyalists of Bergen County, New Jersey and Their Estates, Ruth M. Keeseey, Dissertation, Columbia University, 1957.
  - f. Vol. 6, #II (May 1980), New Ireland: Loyalists in Eastern Maine during the American Revolution, Robert Wesley Sloan, Thesis, Michigan State University., 1971.
  - g. Vol. 6, #II (May 1980), p. 113 - "The Return of the Massachusetts Loyalists", David Edward Maas, Thesis, University of Wisconsin, 1972.

To obtain a copy of a thesis or dissertation, I suggest interlibrary loan from a local branch of your public library. Library and Archives Canada may assist those living outside the National Capital Region.
