

LOYALIST CLOTHING WORKSHOP

10 March 2018

City of Ottawa Archives

Sponsored by the

Sir Guy Carleton Branch, UELAC

PRESENTED BY ANNE REDISH
(Kingston Branch, UELAC)

Anne emphasized the importance of using primary sources to ensure accuracy in the clothing.

Left: Fashions of the Loyalist period (1770-1790). The lady on the left is wearing the most likely and most common attire.

Right: Wearing examples of the practical clothing of the time; likely “camp followers” carrying all of their possessions.

Participants were given the opportunity to see many examples of typical garments and to compare modern fabrics to those of the Loyalist era.

Demonstrating typical undergarments:

Chemise

Corset

Hip Roll

(worn at the waist between the under and outer skirt)

Under skirt

Outer skirt
