

FIRST LOOK

Window pain

BY MIRIAM SPIES

Fragility. It is a term that describes something that's vulnerable, delicate and easily destroyed. Remembrance Day offers a time to reflect on the fragility of peace. At St. Paul's United in Milton, Ont., "fragility" might also conjure thoughts of five stained glass windows that once graced the sanctuary all dedicated to the fallen soldiers of the First World War. Three of the windows were destroyed by fire last June.

