

THE LAST MUSTER OF THE MEN WHO SAVED CANADA IN 1812-14

VETERANS OF 1812-14 PHOTOGRAPHED AT ROSEDALE, OCT. 23, 1861

Read from left to right—1, Col. George Duggan ; 2, Rev. Geo. Ryerson ; 3, Wm. Roe ; 4, Jacob Snyder ; 5, Rev. Jas. Richardson ; 6, Jos. Dennis ; 7 John Woodall ; 8, Jas. Ross ; 9, Col. Bridgetford ; 10, George Ridout.

Veterans of 1812-14

“Soft Sigh the Winds of Heaven o’er Their Graves”

These are the men of Detroit. The tickets answered by the hur-

THE MEN OF 1812-14

“That man is little to be envied
whose patriotism would not gain force

THE LAST MUSTER OF THE MEN OF 1812-14 is a picture that has been happily preserved from oblivion. The sight of these venerable patriots is enough to thrill the soul of every Canadian. God Keep Their Memory Green and raise up men worthy to follow in their footsteps and Mark these aged, white-faced men who stand in line. The burden of the years rested heavily on them, and now the last of that line has passed into the quiet slumber of the brave.

ent when it was taken. He was ten years old then. The picture was the result of the happy thoughts of a man who would be interesting to have all the men of the 1812-14. The picture was taken at Rose Dale, Oct. 23, 1861. It was one of the best of the kind ever taken.