President's Message

First I would like to send Christmas wishes to you all and greetings for a happy and healthy New Year. I hope you are able to share these special days with family and friends.

Time moves so quickly and 2026 is just around the corner.

These past two months have included our 35th anniversary celebration, Remembrance Day services and for my family, a visit from England of two cousins. For a November visit, they timed it very well as there was very little rain and they made it to Kamloops and back easily. In between showing them about and taking them to various locations, was garden clean-up for the winter.

Please see Chris Buckner UE's story on page 4. He and his wife are new members, and it was so nice to see his application come together quickly. The weatherman was calling for rain on Nov. 11th and it was already cold. But it turned out to be crisp and sunny. Please see page 3 for our few photos and notice the blue sky. Very few came back for lunch at Canton Garden this year, but as usual, the food was good and the company is always fun.

We have already had eighteen members renew and one new member join. So we are off to a very good start. We finished the year with seventy members which was up considerably from the 53 at year end in 2024.

We also have a number of Loyalist certificates in the works. Just searching for a few all important proofs. Thank you all for your support and help this past year. It is very much appreciated. If I don't see you at the Christmas event, I will see you next year in person or on Zoom for the AGM.

Loyally yours,
Marlene Dance UE

REMEMBRANCE DAY 2025 Chilliwack, BC

Thousands of people gathered at three locations in Chilliwack to pay their respects to Canadian soldiers and veterans on Nov. 11. There were huge turnouts for Chilliwack's Remembrance Day ceremonies at Veterans' Memorial Park, All Sappers' Memorial Park and the Coqualeetza Longhouse. People welcomed the rare weather, a cold and sunny day, as they lined the streets and surrounded cenotaphs for the sombre tributes which included parades to the memorials, prayers, laying of wreaths, airplane flypasts, the reading of the poem In Flanders Fields, and a trumpet playing The Last Post. (from the Chilliwack Progress Nov. 14, 2025)

Loyalist Certificate presented

Branch member Chris Buchner has been a paramedic with the British Columbia Emergency Health Services for the past 32 years. He is married to Deb and they are the parents of two boys. They have resided in Chilliwack since 2004. They were unable to attend our Oct. 4th celebration to have his certificate presented, due to attending a son's wedding.

A much more important event.

So it was arranged to happen on November 8th following their return. I was so pleased to be able to do this for them.

Chris' Loyalist is Johannes (John) Buchner Senr.

This Loyalist Buchner family settled near Norfolk Co., Ontario Upper Canada. Also, on a map dated May 16, 1795, we found Buchners in Willowby Township near the Niagara River. And they are also listed in Annals of the Forty published by the Grimsby Historical Society.

Deb works at the downtown Library and was instrumental in ensuring the application came together and all proofs located.

A new name to add to our proven Loyalists on our branch webpage. Congratulations, Chris!

Chilliwick Branch Projects in the works:

1) LOYALISTS AND THE CHILLIWACK CONNECTION

This project is ongoing. We are working with the applications in our archives.

Chilliwick Pioneers with a Loyalist connection include:

Aitken, Blakney, Dahl, Evans, Thornton, Stevenson, Patten, Webb, Reeves, Munro, Chadsey, Halcrow, Nelles, Kipp, Reece and Higginson. We are matching to the 1881 Canada Census. It is the first census following the establishment of the township of "Chilliwhack" in 1873. (spelling changed to Chilliwick later)

In addition, please check out the current issue of Loyalist Trails Fall 2025, for a great article by Michael Woodcock UE. On pages 16 - 20 "Early UEL Descendants in British Columbia".

2) Organization of our Library/storage room area:

In reviewing our past history "Branching Out" on our webpage, we found a comment about establishing a Memorial Library in memory of Andrew Webb UE in the Fall of 1995. Andrew was a signer of our charter and our first Branch Genealogist. A number of books from his collection were donated to get our library established. We have had a sign made. Our reorganization is ongoing. We have slowed down a bit but will get going again in the new year.

The American Revolution

There is renewed interest in this topic, thanks to the recent airing of the Ken Burns documentary on PBS.

In a six part, twelve hour series, it tells of the rebellion and victory, to form the United States.

If you missed it, I believe it is being streamed on the PBS app and will be aired again later on PBS.

The American Revolution was at once a war for independence, a war of conquest, a civil war, and a world war, fought by neighbors on American farms and between global powers an ocean or more away. It pitted families against each other. The series is billed as an expansive, evenhanded look at the virtues and the contradictions in the fight for independence and the birth of the United States.

By Brian McConnell, UE posted: October 21, 2025

My ancestor James Humphrey who served with Jessup's Rangers during the American Revolution was granted land after the conflict to settle in Edwardsburgh Township. There is a monument to him and other United Empire Loyalists at Johnstown, within the township, which I visited as appears in a YouTube video near the bottom of this page.

Other Rangers received lands in Augusta, Elizabethtown, and Ernestown Townships. These were four of the initial thirteen Loyalist Townships created in Upper Canada, now Ontario.

The original Loyalist townships created in Ontario for Loyalists were established beside the St. Lawrence River and Lake Ontario. The first survey marker was placed on 27 October 1783. Eight of the townships were along the upper St. Lawrence River and five along the Bay of Quinte. They were given names associated with King George III and his children.

Together with two townships surveyed later, Sophiasburgh and Ameliasburgh they became known as the Royal Townships.

A nine mile wide vacant area was left between the most eastern township, Charlottenburgh, and the last French seigneury. In the five eastern townships, Charlottenburgh, Cornwall, Osnabruck, Williamsburgh, and Matilda were settled members of the King's Royal Regiment of New York. Most of the Jessup's (Loyal) Rangers were given lands in the next three townships, Edwardsburgh, Augusta, and Elizabethtown.

Further west the township of Kingston was for group of about 50 families which arrived in 1784 from New York City led by Michael Grass. The next township, Ernestown, was for Loyal Rangers. Beside it, Fredericksburgh went to the second battalion, King's Royal Regiment of New York and the King's Rangers.

Adolphustown was for Peter Van Alstine's group of United Empire Loyalists from New York and Marysburgh to go to German regulars staying in Canada and some from 84th Regiment (Royal Highland Emigrants).

Later, by 1788, after further surveying, two townships were established for Butler's Rangers. These were Niagara, which includes Niagara - on - the - Lake, and Stamford, now part of the city of Niagara Falls.

The Mohawks, led by Joseph Brant, were given a grant six miles wide on either side of the Grand River. The area where Brantford is located is on land that was part of the 1784 land grant for the Grand River Reservation. The modern Six Nations of the Grand River Reserve is south of the city. John Deseronto preferred the Bay of Quinte and settled with other Mohawks there in the township of Tyendinaga.
