

ORIGIN AND DESCENDANTS OF CORNELIUS JONES

OF ORANGE COUNTY, NEW YORK ...

CONTRIBUTED BY MRS. J. A. WELLER, JR., Jockey Hollow Farm, New Hampton, New York

This material was contributed by Mrs. Sandra Buchanan who graciously sent it to me. I am still trying to wade through this but it appears to be the link to my end of the Jones family through the Cornelius Jones family in Goshen, NY as well as a link to my mother's Westbrook family through Ebenezer Jones. That is, William B. Jones who was born in Warwick in 1803 and whose father was William Jones and grandfather Cornelius Jones. For more information on this branch go to: William B Jones of Warwick and Bath, New York Possibly relevant material in Italics

Thank you. -- Dale C Jones

Numbers before names denote order from Cornelius Jones of Stamford, Ct. and superscript numbers denote generations from him.

The origin of the Jones family of Orange County has been searched for at some length by various persons over a period of years, but it is only at this time that we can be certain of their previous residence. The following is the result of some research, and, it is hoped, will throw some light on their connection with several of the old County families. For some data on later generations, I am indebted to Miss Elizabeth Horton and Mrs. Judson- Parker .

1. Cornelius Jones, the first of that name, was of Stamford Connecticut, in 1657. The name of his first wife, mother of his children, has not been ascertained. He owned land in the Shippan section of Stamford. He married secondly, at Stamford, October 6, 1657, Elizabeth Hyatt. widow of Thomas Hyatt. who died at Stamford Sept. 9, 1656, leaving six children. In Fairfield Probate Records are found receipts given by some of the Hyatt children to their "father-in-law" (step-father) Jones. Cornelius made :1 will June 2. 1690. proved March 10, 1690/1, which named sons Joseph and Ebenezer, grand- child, Ruth Hyat (a minor) and daughter Mary Hyat. (The daughter Mary, evidently married her step-brother, John Hyat.) The son Ebenezer was no doubt provided for by his father over the line in Westchester County. Cornelius Jones had five children entered in the first volume of Stamford Records, p. 72; the margin is worn away so that the names of the children are partly obliterated. The entry was made December 17, 1657. All children by first wife. -

Ebenezer Jones conveyed same to his sons, Benj., Joseph, Ebenezer Jr.. and William (W.D. F85;124). There is no clue as to the identity of his wife, but Ebenezer was living as late as 1720 when he "sold to Moses Taylor. blacksmith, a half lot of upland excepting that before sold his son Joseph." (P.340 Lib.E. W .D.) (Vol. 52 p : 173 Record.) His son Ebenezer Jr. md. Sarah Lockwood (Miller's West.) and Cutter states (p.600 Voi.I) that his son Benjamin was born ca 1700 and md. Mary Haley (should be Holly) in 1735.

This statement I am inclined to doubt, since in 1714 he conveyed land to sons including Benjamin whose name ,would probably not have been included if the child were but 14 years of age. Further-more, records though meagre, show Benjamin remained in Westchester, and most probably was born circa 1680-85. On p. 124, Lib. F. W.D. it states '.Ebenezer Jones Sr. of Mile Square to his son Benuamin Jones, land in Mile Square, May 29, 1714". William Jones md. _____and had daus, , Katharine and Rosamund. On Dec. 4, 1705, he deeded them a part of his movable estate "after my decease." The indications are that Ebenezer had sons, Ebenezer Jr., Cornelius, Joseph, William, Benjamin, and Nathaniel. This family, I believe, remained in Westchester County.
